Intro

Come with me on this precious journey of life. This book first got started way back in 2001. I first heard about the Kabbalah back in the mid-seventies.

Until recently you had to be Jewish. You had to be a male. You had to be over forty. The Kabbalah was an esoteric aspect of Jewish tradition. It has existed for over two thousand years.

In September of 2001, my wife and I embarked on this incredible journey. Karen Greenberg was a great teacher who taught a group of us in Penn Valley California. She lived in Michigan. Karen came four times a year to teach us.

We had monthly classes where we would meet at our house. My wife and I were instructors for this class. They say if you want to learn something you should teach it.

Well, I decided to channel the wisdom. I used a book from Ted Andrews which had all the archetype symbols for each sephirah. This is called the tree of life.

The tree of life is a diagram used in various mystical traditions. It usually consists of 10 nodes symbolizing different archetypes and 22 lines connecting the nodes.

The nodes are often arranged into three columns to represent that they belong to a common category. We only studied the 10 nodes.

For each node, we spent the month studying and experiencing the particular node or sephiroth.

This is from Wikipedia.

Carl Jung understood archetypes as universal, archaic patterns and images that derive from the collective unconscious and are the psychic counterpart of instinct.

They have inherited potentials that are actualized when they enter consciousness as images or manifest in behavior on interaction with the outside world.

To be quite frank I never worked with archetypes symbols before. I first was exposed to them at the Monroe Institute in the mid-eighties. I spent a week there.

For some reason, it was love at first sight. With my meditation experience, I found it easy to tap into each symbol. I believe there are universal archetype symbols that exist in the collective unconscious.

You might ask yourself why would anyone want to learn this? Well, I like this analogy. The goal is to have your feet on the ground and your head in heaven. I like that statement.

I liked the idea to be proactive in life. Most of humanity is reactive. We can't control our minds and emotions. Look at the current situation today. People are divided. The nation is divided. People are flaming each other on Facebook.

As I said our class only studied an individual Sephiroth for a month. In the old days, they studied one a year. Time has changed. Personally, I think the learning aspect has quickened.

Knowledge and wisdom come from the heart. When the mind and heart are in coherence the ability to gain wisdom occurs.

I hope this book will help guide you on your journey in life. We all have our particular points of view on life. This is my personal journey. It has made me a better person.

To be honest I don't study this anymore yet the foundation lies inside of me. Day by day, moment by moment my goal is to be a better person. I take responsibility for my life. I'm learning to respect all different faiths and traditions. We are all on the same boat of life sailing together. Bon voyage.

Council Meetings

What in the world is a council meeting? Good question. This is very difficult to explain. It involves the quantum field which is beyond time and space. In essence, it's a meeting that takes place where spiritual beings talk about this precious planet.

Remember we are never alone. There is a human evolution taking place on earth. Yes, it takes time and patience. Everyone on earth is involved in this process.

Carl Yung might call this the unconscious collective awareness of humanity. We are aware of only one percent of the light spectrum. This means we only see a small fraction of the story in life.

We are almost missing the entire story. We just see the physical. Man has been fighting for thousands of years. There is no end in sight. Yet this is the greatest time to be alive.

A great transformation is taking place. Yes, this will take years. It seems like chaos is all around us. Yet millions of people are waking up from their slumber.

These council meetings take place in the quantum field. Nothing physical exists in that world. It is the power behind all creation. Yet to deliver a message, it manifests as a physical meeting place.

I might have lost you there. Yet that's the simplest way I can explain it. There are spiritual beings who adore the human race. Humans can discover their true nature.

There is a precious puzzle to solve. You are the universe you just don't know it. Richard and countless others say this constantly because it's true and humanity needs to discover this fact.

You may recognize many of these spiritual beings. They have never left us. We just simply carry on with our lives and are oblivious to them. They exist inside of you. They never left yet mankind is texting on the freeway of life.

Let go. Do not try to control things in your life. Flow with the river downstream. Don't fight the current. Live in your sanctuary. This is your true assemblage point.

Be still. Embrace compassion, love, and tolerance in your life. If you do all negativity will drop away. Let the veil drop. Don't react.

Be in a state of a pro-active being. Stop look and listen before you have any confrontations. If you can feel the stillness then you are in a pro-active state otherwise you are reacting. This is the path of discrimination and discernment.

Let go of trying to control others. Master yourself. Let G_d will be your will. G_d does not try to control you. You have free will. Therefore don't try to control others. If you try to control others there will always be conflict in your life. It goes against the laws of nature.

Release all tensions between your relationships. Accept them as they are. No ifs, and, or buts. This is the true way. Don't try to change anybody. You have no right.

Let go of all your attachments and expectations. If you do you will attain all. If you don't you will be disappointed. Nature has no expectations or attachments. It simply is.

Nature is stillness. Be still. This is the true meaning of life. All wisdom and knowledge come from stillness.

A Cabalistic live in stillness. They recognize this is the sacred law. Out of stillness lies chaos. Man lives in chaos. He doesn't know stillness.

Your sanctuary is stillness. Live only there. Be like an idiot. Feet on the ground and your head in heaven. These are tests you must pass to be a Cabalistic.

Council meeting

Michael

Live in stillness. For the world to be restored man must be in stillness. Man is in a reactive mode, therefore the world is in chaos.

As initiates your job is to help balance the energies on earth. There is indeed a fight between good and evil.

Time is of the essence.

Live each day, as it will be your last day. Each day should be lived in the merging of G_d's will and your will. If humanity can do this there will be a major transformation on this planet.

Remember this is not a conversion. Don't try to change anybody. Live your life. People will ask you questions.

Love is the key to the secrets of the universe. Have compassion for your fellow man. Love is the most powerful force in the universe. Be like the Christ, shower your love on the world.

Don't judge anybody. We are all on a great team whose goal is to unify the planet earth. We are here to guide you and assist you in your mission. The more you understand yourself the greater the influence you can have in your life.

We are all partners in this life. For the mission to be successful we need your assistance. We all have the same orders from G_d. Our life is dedicated to serving G_d and being Co-Creators.

Remember each day to slow your life down- to meditate each day. Live in your sanctuary moment by moment. By living in your sanctuary you will be in a place of love, compassion, and tolerance. Your will and G_d's will be merged. In this stillness, you are open to all wisdom from any dimension.

You can receive guidance from all of the hierarchy. We are here to guide and assist you. Each step you take is your own. We can't walk for you.

Remember it is an honor to be a part of the hierarchy. Don't take it for granted. It's the highest service a human can do. Day by day each one of us is waking up to our mission.

It's extremely important. Don't fall asleep. Because there are so few of us (earth plane) each one of you has to be extremely aware. We are counting on you.

This isn't a burden on your shoulders but a blessing. So hold onto the light and let it shine like a lighthouse to this world. Don't diminish the light. Day by day this light will get brighter as you get brighter.

Your goal is to live in the kingdom of heaven on earth. If you achieve this earth will be transformed.

Great things are happening to you. Recognize and hear the calling.

We love you...

Gabriel

The beginning of a new year is upon you. The seed has been planted a long time ago. Christ came and planted the seeds of love. It has been planted in man.

A new day is being born. Love will flower into a fruit, which will tie man together. Love is the answer and the key. To help this planet, you must be a cultivator of love.

Be like a farmer growing crops. Till the soil. Get rid of all the junk in your lives. Purify yourself. Water the plants daily.

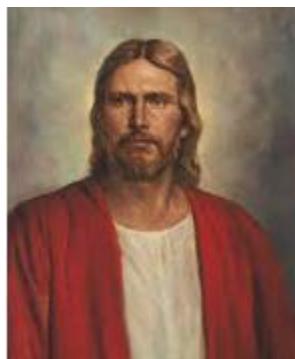

Meditate and receive a direct connection to G_d. Bath in the light. Take out the weeds in your life. Only you can pull out your junk. Let's get together and be on the same page. We all have an incredible mission ahead of us.

Wake up from your slumber. Be aware and conscious. Your perspective of the world is changing. The more you live in heaven and the deeper you go the view you have of the world will change.

The world will not change but you will. Your eyes will open up to the fact that love itself created this planet. All creation was created by the power of love. Feel the love in your life. Every cell, every atom is drenched in that love.

Incredible things are happening in this universe. Remember why you are alive. Remember your mission. Be Proactive and be a Co-Creator. Remember you are the missing link. Only you can help this mission be successful. We love you.

Christ

Welcome welcome welcome. We are here today to celebrate and witness G_d's love. This love exists before time and creation. How fortunate you are to be able to live in this love?

You are a representative of his love. What a golden opportunity! Words cannot describe it. As the year comes to a close and the New Year begins, commit to being in love and compassion. Love is truly the key. Love is the answer.

Develop unconditional love. Be like water. Water will quench your thirst. It will not discriminate. Therefore live in love and you will shower the world with love.

Great things are happening. Get ready. You all have an incredible mission on this planet. Prepare yourself. Do the training. We are here to guide you. Be still and be silent daily. You will receive guidance from us. We love you.

The coming year will bring great opportunities to you. Take them. Manifest your dreams. Merge your will and G_d's will. Don't react.

Live in the stillness. This is the key to life. If you are still everything will come to you. A reactive mind is not in harmony. It will experience the up and downs of life.

When you are still you are living in heaven. This is your goal. By doing this heaven will be on earth. Each one of you has to master yourself. It's not easy. I did over two thousand years ago. Now is your opportunity. We are here to guide you and assist you.

We love you

Stillness

Stillness is the key to being in a pro-active mode. As Co-Creators we must be still. From stillness comes the force to create.

A reactive being is trapped by receiving messages from the dark side (the negative ego). It's very subtle.

Only through stillness can man will be merged with the will of G_d. Stop look and listen. To master Malkuth we must be still. Thru stillness, we can have direct communication with G_d, Archangels, guides, and all who are there to help us and assist us on the path.

Over reactive

The first key is to know when you are overreacting in certain situations. You must be aware. Don't gloss things over.

Why do you over-react? Over-reacting is 10 times the energy charge to a being that lives in a Proactive mode.

Therefore a huge amount of energy comes but it dissipates into the body creating a huge vessel of stress. Stress hormones have released that harm the body over time.

You must learn to live in stillness in the face of any obstacle or problem. When in a confrontation be absolute calm. Reside in stillness. Do not react.

You will receive signals from your dark side. Ignore them. Receive the subtle signals from G_d. It's like a beacon.

At first, it's very subtle. Over time it will transform into a beacon where you will always be in communication with us. Therefore practice stillness. Do not be right or wrong.

Don't try to convert, change or manipulate anybody. Be true to yourself. Be a representative of G_d. Be humble at all times. You are no better than anyone else.

Always live in compassion. Pray for peace. Serve your fellow man. Shower them with love. It doesn't matter who they are, the creator loves us all. Therefore don't judge anyone including you. We love you.

Aggressive

superiority over one another.

When a man is aggressive he/she is trying to force his/her ideas down your throat.

He/she is trying to control you and have power over you. It is a form of a power trip- a way to prove

The way to overcome this is to embrace G_d's compassion. Aggressiveness comes from a lack of compassion in your life. Be compassionate for yourself and others.

You have no right to enforce your values, ideas, and concepts on other people. If they are open fine. Everybody has to learn his or her lessons. A person who will is under G_d will have nothing to prove to anybody. He/she simply is.

They live life in a world of total love and compassion. The negative ego is set aside. This is the true state of a human being.

Therefore let go of all aggression. Let go of your reactive nature. Know that you are G_d's child. You have all of the qualities built-in. Know is the time to wake up.

Laziness

Laziness is the dark force's way of prolonging you from reaching your goal. The darkness wants you to be lazy.

There is a subtle charge to it. It almost feels good to be lazy.

Therefore recognize that laziness comes from the dark side (the negative ego). You must be Proactive.

Make your effort. Manifest your dreams. Live in stillness. There you will be totally at ease. You will overcome the sense of lack of inertia. Your true state is stillness. From there comes all of creation. A lazy man cannot create.

A lazy man gets stagnates. Water must flow or it will stagnate. Water must flow or it will eventually turn into a cesspool. Laziness is a way to stop you from reaching your goal. I'm comfortable.

Let me take off my shoes and relax for a while. Then man rests for almost eternity. Man must know himself. In stillness lies the true resting place.

Laziness does not contain a true resting place. It's a false image. Drinking another bottle of beer is not the answer. It is an illusion. You feel that you are rested wherein actually you are not.

So live in stillness. From there you will achieve the state of being with your Father/Mother.

Greed

We all experience greed in our lives. Greed comes from our dark side (negative ego).

Man wants to hold on or to hoard things because he/she doesn't understand the law of abundance. He/she tries to hold onto things.

Man believes that things are scarce. Yet if man/woman would be in tune with G_d there would be no scarcity in their life. He/she would understand the laws of abundance and prosperity.

Man has associated money with greed. Greed has nothing to do with money and money has nothing to do with greed. Greed is the opposite of abundance. In the true state of abundance, there is no greed. In that state man is truly a Co-Creator.

Merlin

Don't take things personally in your life. Don't judge, criticize, condone or change anyone. As your stuff comes up, let it go.

Be in a Pro-Active state of mind. As you know it's very easy to give up and go into your shell.

This is not the place you want to be in. Therefore don't react. Listen from your heart but don't take it personally.

This is an opportunity to get rid of your baggage. Remember we are all rooting for you. It's not easy. Everyone must go through the fire. You are almost there.

Don't give up. Both of you are on the same page. And don't know it. Be in a state of compassion and tolerance. Don't try to be right or wrong. This is a test for you to overcome all obstacles.

This is the time to be Proactive. This situation has nothing to do with your partner. It's all about how you react to the situation. When you react you build a shell around you. This is not the answer.

Next time stop, look, and listen. Realize that you have the power and the blessings to stop this crazy cycle. The whole world is crazy because of this.

Therefore only you can stop this insanity. This will help bring balance to your family and the people around you. This must happen to evolve. This must be faced.

You can walk away from it but it will manifest itself in the future. So if you have a thorn in your feet then take it out. It will heal so much faster. We are here to guide you but you must take action. Don't get involved in the drama of life. Don't try to be right or wrong. Don't try to judge anyone. Don't react to life. Simply be in stillness. From there comes the will which quenches your thirst.

You will be whole again. Major transformations are taking place. Relax have a good time. Go beyond any pettiness. Solve the mystery of life. Don't fight with one another.

The dark side is counting on that. You can win this battle. Use your wits. Know that people around you are on the same page. It may not seem like it but they are.

The world has its differences but life is supposed to be different and unique. It has many colors. We are not meant to be the same. Enjoy the differences. Don't try to be the same. The world is different for a reason.

That's the beauty of life. We are all completely different. The way you perceive the world is entirely different. Merge with the difference. Become more diversified. Unite under one master plan. Blend the two into one.

Do not procrastinate. We are always here. We love you.

Recklessness

Man is reckless because he/she doesn't respect life. First of all, he/she doesn't know the meaning of life. Therefore life is in chaos.

Being reckless gives them a thrill. By being out of control an energy charge happens. They feel the power of life for a moment but then the bomb explodes and they come crashing down.

Man who has stillness in his/her life has found life itself. He/she will be in balance. This is the purpose of life.

Council meeting

Jesus the Christ

All rise. Today is the celebration of spirit. What a glorious day indeed! Our Father/Mother who art in heaven. Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom comes on earth, as in heaven. Amen.

What a glorious prayer. What a golden opportunity we have. The entire council is brought together for one purpose. That is to bring the kingdom of heaven on earth. We are here to serve our Father/Mother.

We are here to assist in the transformation of this planet. What a grace it is for you as humans to assist in this transformation. G_d plans is that you assist in fulfilling this incredible dream.

You must do all of the practical work. We are here to guide you and assist you in bringing down more energy into your plane of existence. As you know major things are happening on your planet.

This room is full of beings all over the universe and representatives from the Galactic Federation. We are all here to rejoice in working together to bring this transformation.

We cannot do this without you. How fortunate that you have arisen to this occasion? We salute you and honor you in this commitment. It's not an easy job but it's extremely worthwhile and it assists in our Father/Mother purpose.

I walked upon your land two thousand years ago. The seeds were planted back then. Now is the time for the harvest. Humankind is waking up from its slumber. Individuals all across the land are sensing and experiencing the awareness of how precious life is. In the past few months since the World Trade Center, individuals have brought a sense of unity to the world. Even countries that have embraced terrorism are now embracing peace. Keep up the good work.

Be an example of your Father/Mother. Don't try to change or convert anyone. We are all here to assist you. Be a beacon to this world. Nowadays thousands of people like me are working to transform this world. You are the chosen ones.

You volunteered for this mission. You were born into this world and forgot who you were. There was a reason behind that. You had to be human and experience the life of a human.

At some point, you realize your purpose. So we are all here to honor you for performing your mission. You came from the light born into the darkness of this world and started to wake up. The seed is now offering fruits to this world.

What a glorious day indeed! Upon closing know that we love you. You are not forgotten.

Gabriel

Song played. The female sang a beautiful song.

We are here under the sword of justice. Chaos has been ruling your world for thousands of years. We are here to come together on this planet.

What a sacred time it is! You have been chosen for this mission. Each one of you has been given the sword of justice. May our Father/Mother's dream be accomplished?

Let's join our hands and hearts together to bring peace to the earth. The battle plan is made up. Each one of us has our duties to perform. Love is truly the answer. Live in G_d's love. Live in your sanctuary. Great things are manifesting on your planet. To see correctly place your will into G_d's hand. You will then see the majestic scheme of all.

Therefore prepare yourself for the hour to come. Focus your attention on your breath. Day by day remember who you are.

Peace on earth will come when humanity discovers who they are. When each human discovers the secrete of life within, there will be peace on earth. It all begins with you.

We are humble servants of our Father/Mother. What a great day it is! Remember you are not alone.

Unknown

Your prayers have not been forgotten. Align yourself with your Mother/Father and you will be free. Recognize and realize your mission. You are not alone.

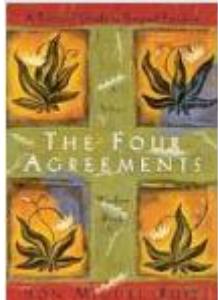

What a glorious day it is! You have been chosen for this mission, hand-picked from G_d. What a golden opportunity!

Let's join our hands for this occasion. We are all here united under the umbrella of Love. We are all here as servants of our Mother/Father. We stand today united as one being.

Each of us has waited a long time for this special occasion. Now is the time to fully awake from your slumber. You are being trained for your mission. Now go and partake in your council meeting.

We love you.

Individual Meeting

Strive to be Pro-Active. You have seceded when you spend one day without any conflict. Now expand it to two days. You can do it. All of your dreams are being realized.

Read the four agreements. Put the four principles into action. You are a warrior of light. Concentrate on your breath. From that stillness, greater understanding will take place.

Look up the word avarice. See a deeper meaning. Daily plan your activities. Your dreams will come true. Throw all excess baggage out. Look at your emotions and feelings. Break open the shell.

You don't need this anymore. Your home is your Father/Mother. Live in your sanctuary. Your shell has no purpose anymore. Next time you try to go back into your shell remember these words.

Stop look and listen. Your body is changing very rapidly. It needs to heal and realign itself. This will help speed up the process. Your DNA is being realigned.

Remember to monitor yourself. If you react to anything stop, look, and listen. Take a deep breath and let go.

Don't take anything personally. By doing this you will transcend. We are extremely happy to see your progress. If you have any questions you may ask them. This is your time to reflect.

Adonai ha Aretz

Look at the sun. Look at the stars. Look at the birds flying across the sky. Look at the beauty of the flower. Look at the sun sitting in the sky.

Look at the waves breaking on the distant shore. Feel the wind blowing in your face. Fell the warmth of the sun on a hot summer day.

Throw snowballs to your loved ones. Laugh like a child. Open up your heart. Open the shades of illusion and see the light inside. This world is heaven if you have eyes to see.

Take off your blinders. Take off the mask. Strip off all of your barriers. Be naked. Then you will see the world from a new perspective. Remember you must be like a child to enter heaven.

Throw all of your garbage away. Live each moment, as it is your last. Be open to love. Reflect only on love in your life. Let go of all your worries. Let go of anger. Live in your sanctuary. Life is incredible. We make it so boring. Live life to the fullest. It will never come again.

Don't get trapped in the world. Your purpose in life is not the work. Work is a part of life but work is not life. Spend time with your kids. Spend time with your family. Spend time with yourself. Work, play, laugh, sing and dance. Surf. Take walks.

Look at nature. Embrace G_d's creation. Be alive. Feel your emotions. Be Proactive each moment. Don't stuff your emotions. Daily improve your life.

Take out the thorns. Don't take life so seriously. Experience your creator. Feel the grace and mercy in your life. Realize how incredible it is to be alive. You have the opportunity to help in the mission of bringing peace on earth.

I am Adonai ha Aretz the Lord of this plane. Come to me and I will show you over time the mysteries of life. Drop all of your baggage. You will then be set free. Be in total awe of each moment.

You then will be free. Take my hand and I will help you on your way. Walk on my side and you will see the glories of life. I love you.

You have an incredible connection to the dragon world. Remember who you are. Awake from your slumber. Open up to the different worlds. Bring your gift to this world.

You came only to serve. This is your mission. Incredible times are here.

Archangel Sandalphon

Life is an incredible journey. To master life, you must master yourself. Throw away all of your excess baggage. Let go of the past.

Don't hold on to your feelings of the past. Be aware of what triggers you and let go. This earth plane is here to allow you to quickly let go of all your imperfections.

Take the opportunity to let things go. When something comes up, stop, look and listen. Feel it and then release it. You are beginning to be aware of how critical it is to be in the moment.

Live in the stillness of life. From stillness come ripples of creation. You are learning how to merge G_d's will with your own.

Your life is a dance. Dance with it. Move with the rhythm of life. Don't get stagnated or rigid. Be flexible. Life is always flexible. Death is rigid. All of your dreams are coming true.

Day by day focus on them and take appropriate action. Let the miracle of life and creation manifest the dreams in your life. Learn to merge your will with the will of G_d. Then you will be in perfect synch. You will be like a creator. We are happy to see your progress. Don't give up. Stay focused. Incredible things are happening to you.

Daily take a look at your dreams and put into action the various activities needed for the day. We are here to guide you and assist you.

Have total faith. How fortunate you are to realize the phrase- as above so below. You are one of the select few who recognize how incredible it is to discover yourself on this earth plane.

You can bring awareness of heaven on earth. How fortunate you are? Years ago you meditated to leave this planet. Know you meditate to bring heaven down to earth.

As you know I'm the Archangel of Malkuth. My name is Sandalphon. I'm here to help and assist you. But remember there is no free ride. You must do the work. That is the law. We are very happy to see your progress. You will go a long way. You will become a master Kabalistic.

So we are with you. You are becoming aware of your mission. You have been preparing for this all of your life.

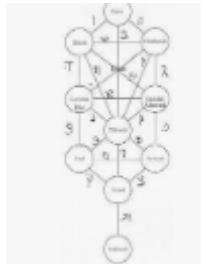

Now is the time to watch it manifest and bloom. Be in perfect synch with G_d. Live only in your sanctuary. Don't take things personally. Don't react to situations. If you do this, incredible things will happen. Learn how to have a win/win for everybody. No compromises.

You will achieve harmony in your life. Be still and know from stillness comes life itself. All creation comes from stillness. By being still you will know G_d. What an incredible journey this is!

What a blessing it is to be alive. Take each moment and savor it. Taste the beauty of life itself. You will become free.

Message on Malkuth

This past month has been a golden opportunity for all of you to learn about Malkuth. Incredible things are happening to you. There is no turning back.

All of you have witnessed in the past month that baggage from the past has come up. You had the courage and foresight to face it.

Many of you have let go of this excess baggage. All of you have become lighter in the process. Remember these are all blessings in disguise.

You are walking on the same path as Christ and thousands like him. You are in the desert facing yourself and coming to terms with yourself. You are learning step by step to be in a proactive state versus a reactive state.

You are learning that the goal of a human being is to have the will of G_d and you will be in synch. This will bring you to the state of being a co-creator.

All of you are transforming from man to human. Man lives his life in a reckless state. His/Her life is in chaos. He/She lives in a world where darkness prevails.

A true human is Adam Kadmon. In this state, consciousness is truly transformed into light. The will of G_d and yourself is one. The veil is lifted.

This being is living and breathing the Kingdom of Heaven on earth. What an incredible state this is! As Above so Below. This is the aim and purpose of being on earth.

This is why you are on earth. We can only guide you and assist you. We cannot do the work for you. You have to do the work yourself.

So incredible things have happened to you. The so-called good, bad, and ugly. You are learning how to stop, look and listen. You were taught that when you crossed the street you always stopped.

Look in both directions to see if there are any cars. Listen – is there any danger around you? Can you hear any cars? Is there a bicycle or skateboarder riding down the street?

Do you feel any danger? If you don't and everything is in synch you can cross the street.

The Kabbalah teaches you that moment-by-moment the aim is to live in your sanctuary. When any event occurs live in stillness. In that state, you can stop, look and listen.

In that state, your baggage can come to the surface and you can simply let it go. Imagine the ocean when it is calm. The waves of change come and we have the opportunity to ride the wave or get wiped out by it.

A Co-Creator rides the waves of change in his/her life. Man in his/her ignorance is continually trapped in the riptide of life.

When you are in the riptide man constantly struggles. Huge waves and small waves are constantly breaking in your life. You have a hard time catching your breath. Life is so hard.

The Kabbalah teaches you to surrender to the riptide. Don't struggle with the current of life. Eventually, you will be brought out of the riptide of life and you will be transformed.

So day by day, remember to stop, look and listen in your life. This will set you free.

Malkuth is teaching you about discrimination and discernment. These two qualities will help you to stop, look and listen. Remember don't take anything personally in your life. If someone says something to you and there is a charge don't react or take it in. Life has presented you with the golden opportunity to release this baggage. You can transform this moment from a reactive being to a proactive being.

You are on a teeter-totter of life. You can learn how to balance yourself in life. Man in his ignorance is thrown off the teeter-totter when he/she reacts.

You are learning that perfect balance comes from stillness. Perfect balance is when your will is merged with the will of G_d.

This past month all of you are working on manifesting your dreams. It is very important to focus on your dreams daily. Read your written down dreams daily.

This will help solidify them in your life. Daily ask for guidance or the actions needed to full fill your dreams. If you do this day by day your dreams will come true. You are a Co-Creator of G_d.

You are learning about the four worlds of creation. All of creation is created out of these four worlds.

So you have learned so much about Malkuth. Know is the time to step up into Yesod. You will bring all of your learning up to this point to this level.

We are building one foundation upon another. We are acquiring the gifts of each Sephira and attributes into our life.

You are learning that in Malkuth if you are being overly reactive, aggressive, or greedy that you are out of balance in this Seproiah. Moment by moment you are learning.

As we proceed to Yesod continually strive to live in your sanctuary. Bring the gifts that you have received in Malkuth and place them on your altar.

Place the baskets of grains, precious jewels, stones, the precious oils into your sanctuary. Turn them into a key and create symbols for them. These archetype symbols will help awaken you to your subconscious. It will allow you to manifest your dreams on earth. True abundance is yours.

Look at how abundant the earth is. Look at the clouds, the flora, and all the animals. Only the man is lacking.

These symbols will help unleash the power of life and abundance. Imagine the source code of life. These symbols will help activate the program. It will start a chain reaction.

So remember at each Sephira pay attention to the gifts being given and the Archetype personality. These will help transform you. All Cabalist throughout the ages has used these symbols.

Also on each step focus and try to acquire the qualities of each Sephira. Spend time on each quality. What does it mean? What kind of energy frequency does it have? Learn to melt these qualities into your life.

Ask for help and assistance from the Lord of this realm, the Archangels, and the Spirit. Feel their qualities and energy. Feel their radiance. Completely absorbed them. They are here to help and guide you on your way.

It's beneficial to have the sacred oil, stones, and color around you when you are focusing on any Sephira. This will help bring your energies to help align them to the energies of the Sephira.

It's like a tuning fork. By focusing on the Sapphire you will begin to vibrate at the level of the frequency of the Sephira.

Remember that in the Sephira of Malkuth it isn't only the physical world. You can receive guidance from the Dragons, Unicorns, and fairies.

Don't get stuck there but it can be used as a tool. The Dragons have so much wisdom and knowledge. Man created this veil.

You are fortunate to be here. You have blessings from the Brotherhood and Sisterhood of light. You have the blessings of the Hierarchy. You have the blessings of the Galactic Federation.

You have the blessings from G_d. Through this mystery school, you are receiving sacred knowledge and wisdom. This isn't knowledge that comes from books.

Therefore you don't need to compare other Kabala books to gleam information or compare them. They are used only to create a small step in awareness.

The true foundation is when you walk the tree of life in your life. Keep it simple. The rational mind tries to figure things out by using the mind. This knowledge and wisdom lie outside the realm of the mind. It's two distinct and different worlds.

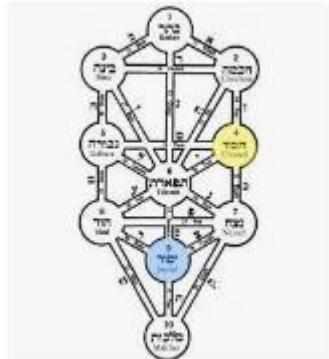

Therefore you need to gain your relationship with the Tree of Life. You may read other materials, but remember this is a living Tree. Only you can make it grow. It must be watered daily. Theories are just theories. You must be a Co-Creator in your life.

We are here to guide and assist you. We are very happy to see your transformation this past month. Know is the time to embrace Malkuth and walk into Yesod. Your independence lies here.

We love you.

Welcome to Yesod

Welcome to the world of Yesod. In this world, you will learn about true independence. You will learn if you are independent in your life?

In Malkuth, you learned about discrimination and discernment. To be independent, you must know how to use discrimination and discernment in any given situation.

Independent means that you are empowered to perform actions without being dependent on some person, place, or thing. It brings true freedom. The less you are dependent on this world the happier you will be.

True independence lies when your will is merged with the will of G_d. This coming month numerous situations will come up where you will see this in action.

Therefore pay attention to what's going on. As you go up the tree your energies will get more intense. Make sure that you get plenty of rest to assimilate these energies.

Your intuition will increase this month. Daily meditate on the qualities of both the strengths and weaknesses aspects of this Sephirot. Your baggage will come up so let go.

In Yesod, you will begin to understand the ebb and flow of life. All of creation has this flow. If you are in tune with this flow you will acquire the knowledge and wisdom of life itself.

All of man's creation has this flow. Civilizations come and go. Your stock market goes up and down. You feel happiness and sadness. This is the Ying/Yang of life. If you understand this rhythm you may use your knowledge so it may be beneficial in your life. For example, when the stock market goes up and down you may understand the current cycle. You will know when to buy and when to sell.

All of life has a flow that has movement. A man understands that the forces of the moon dictate the tides of the ocean. Your emotions are governed by the ebb and flow of the moon.

How do you control your emotions? How do you achieve emotional health? Yesod will help facilitate and help integrate your emotions. When you understand the ebb and flow of life you will understand how to calm your emotions.

You are learning how to be proactive, not reactive. When you react to any given situation your emotions go out of whack. You can't see the forest from the trees. Adrenalin kicks in and you lose your perspective. When you are pro-active your emotions are stable.

It's like being in the center of a hurricane. The winds are howling but you are in the center. You are still and full of peace.

Nature has numerous examples of how we can learn to center ourselves. Look to nature for guidance.

This coming month pay attention to your dreams. Your dreams are a reflection, a doorway to learning more about yourself. They can help you to foresee the future.

They can show you the baggage you need to release. They can show you warning signs in your life. Pay attention. Every single moment of your life is a learning experience. Seize the moment.

You are learning to become aware. Become aware of your body. What does it need? Pay attention to it. Don't abuse it.

It is a temple of G_d. Get plenty of rest. Eat good wholesome foods. The purer your lifestyle the purer your life will be.

We talked about being aware of your dreams. Be aware of your thoughts. Be aware of your baggage. This month your intuition will expand. The capability of astral travel will expand.

Remember these are all-natural abilities you have. Everyone is born with them but we have forgotten them. As you pay more attention to astral travel it will come easier for you.

Pay attention and bring to your sanctuary Shaddai el chai and the Cherubim. Daily focus on the beautiful, naked, strong man. This is a key to starting your engines to remember all about this Sephirot.

It is extremely important to do so. Daily receive the gifts of the silver slippers with the wings and the mirror. The mirror will help you to see who you truly are and to help reflect you the baggage you need to unload. This is a magic mirror. Mind you it is not ordinary.

You will learn about the qualities of silver slippers with wings. It will help you to astral travel. It will help you in your dreams. It will help you with your intuition. It will help you with your independence.

Pay attention and focus on spontaneity. Are you flexible? Can you adapt and change to any given situation? Are you controlled by your reflexes? You must acquire this trait. Focus on it. Bring your energy and concentrate on it.

Now let's look at your weakness in the Sephiroth. Is your life idle? Have you driven your life or are you on the remote control? A Co-Creator is in total charge of his/her life.

Are you in control? The car is running but are you going anywhere? Self-realization comes when you put your life from the park mode and change the gear to drive. You then can drive to your destination.

Even if your life is in a traffic jam or at a stop sign you will eventually reach your destination. So don't be idle. Don't spin your wheels either. This is where your discrimination and discernment come in.

Next, don't be vain. Don't try to prove to anybody how important you think you are. It is only your ego getting inflated. Your balloon will pop and you will learn a great lesson.

Vanity is not allowed if you want to go further up the Tree. It must be relinquished. Therefore drop it. Be a humble servant of the Lord.

Don't be obsessive about sex. Don't have it control your life. Empires have gone to war over it. Politicians have lost their perspective because of it. If you are obsessive about anything you have lost your balance.

A man or woman who constantly needs to look at pornography material has lost his/her way. He/she has lost discrimination and discernment in life.

The act of making love is one of the most sacred acts in creation. Don't abuse it. There will be dire consequences if you do, don't play with fire.

How impulsive are you? Your whole civilization is dependent on impulsive buying. Your advertisements are all directed to hook you in to buy. Your life is directed by impulses. I would love to have a chocolate bar now.

When you are shopping how much are you in impulse mode? Where do these impulses come from? Can you ever be satisfied with your impulses?

What are we looking for? Your entire world is driven by this behavior. Do you think this will make me happy or maybe this will? Learn to achieve true happiness by knowing yourself.

By doing this you will stop these crazy impulses from taking over in your life.

Are you always a follower? Do you continually go from one New Age idea to another? Do you always allow others to dictate your life? Who's in charge of your life?

A follower does not have true discrimination or discernment. True wisdom can't be acquired if you are a follower. To go up the Tree of Life, you must be a servant, not a follower. You must be a Co-Creator. A servant in your world is a second-class citizen. In G_d's world, a servant is the most important being in the universe. You are a Co-Creator of G_d. Look at ways in your life that you follow.

This month pay attention to omens. Pay attention to signs of where you are heading. You are on the freeway of life. Learn to watch for signs on the freeway.

These signs are to help you to take the quickest and most efficient road. So watch out for omens. Watch out for warning signs. Be aware.

So this will be an incredible month for you. Once again welcome to the Sephirot of Yesod.

Council meeting

Jesus the Christ

All stand-up. Heavenly Father. Heavenly Mother. Thank you for the opportunity of bringing us together today. We love you. Our lives are dedicated to being humble servants of G_d.

Let your will, be our will. Today is the day we come together to help manifest our dream on earth. We are forever grateful for helping you with this service.

We are so different and unique. That's the beauty of life. We are all tied together through your thread of love. May we all truly unite as one? May the earth truly realize that there is only one family?

A family that is not divided but united under you. Words cannot describe the gratitude we have for you. You have brought us back home. It is an honor to serve you.

Nothing in the entire universe or of your creation has greater meaning. Thank you for the opportunity to be a Co-Creator. You are allowing us to serve in such an incredible manner.

Two thousand years ago I walked with my fellow man and declared that everything I do is a miracle. Yet someday humanity itself will do greater miracles. The time is ripe. The fruits are on the vine.

By your grace, we shall witness the kingdom of heaven on earth. The meek shall inherit the earth. Heavenly Father Heavenly Mother thank you, thank you, thank you. Peace on earth. Peace for all. In the name of the Father/Mother amen.

Please sit down. What a golden opportunity we have! I would like to welcome all the new newcomers to this council meeting. It is an honor to have you here today.

You have the integrity to understand the importance of serving your fellow man. We honor that. Thank you for being here. You have made the most important decision in your life.

Not everybody is called or asked to be here. Incredibly only a silent few are called. We don't know why but that's the way it is. You have a humble heart and want to serve. That is the key. No negative ego is allowed here. That's the prime directive.

We are here today to help facilitate bringing our Father/Mother's dream of peace on earth. This entire council is dedicated to bringing this dream and helping manifest it on earth. What a grand game! The creator could bring peace to this planet in an instant but he has given us free will. This is probably one of the greatest gifts that have been given to us. Our Father/Mother does not judge us.

With free will, we are learning how to come back home. What an incredible journey you have embarked on! Each one of you is participating in the greatest event on the face of the planet.

Have you ever thought how grand that the Lord itself has allowed you to partake in this game? You are a Co-Creator. Words cannot describe what an honor it is. Only through you can peace be attained.

This is the miracle of life. You have waked up to this call. You have arisen from your slumber. Never in my wildest dreams would I imagine what is happening on your planet.

During my days the seeds were planted. Very few men or women understood my mission when I was alive. And yet today we have thousands of people from all walks of life waking up. It doesn't matter what religion, nationality, or creed.

Humanity is waking up. What a blessing! Do you know how incredible that is? I can hardly express what I'm feeling. They are of the utmost reverence.

Our Father/Mother allowed me to plant the seeds into man's heart a long time ago. All of the great religions had teachers who did the same. I bow my head in gratitude to them today.

I bow my head to the known and unknown teachers who dedicated their lives to serving our creator. So we stand here today seeing the fruit is ripe. What a miracle! Now you have the same opportunity today.

You are a representative of your creator. We honor that. What a golden opportunity! Be ever humble. Don't let your negative ego get in the way. So once again we salute you. Jesus the Christ

Archangel Michael

Welcome. Welcome. Welcome. We are today united under one Mother and one Father. United we stand divided we fall. How incredible it is for me to witness the transformation on your planet.

You have no idea of the glory that I see. I'm in charge of the legion that helps to bring peace on earth. I'm here under the Father/Mother to help bring justice to your planet.

Thank you for having me here today. The world needs you. Each one of us has a mission to perform. The battle is raging. Recognize the opportunity at hand. Peace on earth cannot happen if you don't participate.

We on this side can do our part but you have to do yours. We are partners. We humbly respect your work and mission. We are here to guide and assist you. Someday volumes of books will be written about this time.

They will describe how you helped to restore balance on this planet. What a glorious opportunity! What an honor! I bow my head in gratitude and reverence. You came into this world and due to karmic laws over time, you lost all of the wisdom and understanding of who you are.

There was only a small flicker of light like a candle. Yet you knew there was something more to life. Everyone else told you differently. They had a different story to tell. Eat, drink and be merry.

Who wants to know G_d? Yet you had the grace and foresight to know there is a purpose to live. Even being in total darkness you had the slightest glimmer of hope; do you realize how grand we think of you? What an incredible service you perform!

You volunteered to come to this planet as a Co-Creator yet you have to forget who you truly are. This is the game. You have to rediscover who you are. And here today you stand.

What a miracle! Gods, Goddesses, Angels, and Archangels are envious of you today. All of us bow our heads in reverence. You dared to come down and perform your mission.

We were there the whole time watching silently over you. We were there during your darkest hour. We were there when you cried out in tears. We were there when you were sick.

We were there when you felt all alone. We were there when you felt you didn't belong here. We were there through the good times and bad times. And you prevailed.

How grand it is to go from darkness to light. You will be incredible Co-Creators because you have gone through the gamut. You have seen the good, bad and ugly. You have lived in total darkness with no signs of hope.

A small flicker of light remained inside. And yet you preserved. You went on. Now that's an incredible story. This story will be told for eons into time.

You were the ones brave enough to come into this world. Such love, you have for your Father/Mother. We didn't volunteer. We are so proud of you.

Your Father/Mother has the utmost gratitude for you. People sing the praises of the Archangels yet we sing your praises. You are the ones most deserving.

We can't even imagine what you went thru. Thank you for being here. We love you and salute you. This is your home. We are of assistance to you.

Please call us at any time. If we are busy we will let you know. We will send someone who will talk to you. We love you and honor you. Remember you are never alone.

Elohim

I have come to your world numerous times with a message. I came to Moses, Abraham, and Mohammad. I came today with a message from your creator.

Dear loved ones. You are very dear to my heart. You volunteered long ago to assist to bring peace on earth. You come down and the nature of this mission was to come down to earth.

You had to lose all connections to my world except for a small candle that burned inside. In other words, you had to be as far away from me as possible. That was the contract.

Do you know what a miracle it is that you are here today? Not only did you survive but also you passed the test with flying colors. The love I have for you is infinite.

Words cannot describe. I almost have a hard time comprehending what you went through. I bow my head in respect to you. Together we can bring peace to Earth. You are Co-creators. May peace prevail on earth? Go forward, my children.

Never stop. Be ever so humble. You have come so far. I have the utmost respect for you. The courage and faith you have are amazing. I salute you and honor you.

We are all so thankful. Without you, this planet would have been destroyed. There is still plenty of work to be done. You are the beacon to this world.

Thru you, peace will prevail. I deeply send you my utmost love and respect. Thank you for volunteering so long time ago. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Shaddai El Chai

Welcome to the Sephirot of Yesod. You have been given these two gifts for a very special reason. These two gifts have been given to man for time memorial.

As you know each Sephiroth has gifts that are given to you. Concentrate on these gifts. Absorb these energies. Place them in your sanctuary. Utilize them daily for this month.

Find out for yourself the qualities of each gift. There are so-called general qualities of these gifts which are common traits to all yet each one of you has a unique gift.

This is a very special gift. Don't take it for granted. You cannot comprehend the gift through the mind. The soul understands. These gifts will help unlock all of the qualities of this Sephiroth.

The Silver Slipper with wings and the mirror both contain the qualities of Yesod. You will acquire these attributes. Furthermore, these gifts will show you the various weaknesses inside of you about Yesod.

Pay close attention to this. The magick lies in releasing the baggage. When you release the baggage you will acquire more knowledge and wisdom from Yesod.

Automatically you acquire stronger aspects of Yesod. This is the key. You must let go. Therefore pay great attention. Daily look at your life. This month will be a golden opportunity to face your weakness embrace it all and then let it go. You will have the opportunity to change your patterns and habits.

It takes about 21 days to change a habit. This month you will see what an incredible world you have walked in. What opportunity that you have?

Each Sephroit is a world of itself expressing the qualities of G_d. You have been given the road map and the vehicle to drive to your destination.

In early December Karen taught you about the world of Malkuth. You are all exploring. You traveled to the land of Malkuth and now you are in Yesod.

So explore this world. To go up the tree, you must pass some tests. You must face yourself. As you see people will drop out. Even if they acquired the gifts of Malkuth and they were in tune with Yesod- for some reason they back off.

So don't give up. This is not an easy task. In the past, it would take at least 10 years just on the Sephroit work. This doesn't even include the pathways.

So you will go through a faster development rate. So listen carefully and pay attention. Time is of the essence. We have the archetype symbol of the beautiful, naked strong man.

Cabbalistic have used this symbol for eons. This symbol contains the qualities of Yesod. Therefore talk to him. Daily receive gifts from him. He is here to help and guide you. He is here to assist you. This beautiful man lies at the core of Yesod.

You can't even imagine how deep it lies. Take the entire universe and compress it into a dot. And then you will understand this Archetype symbol. In other words, it is more than skin deep.

Thru the power of this beautiful naked strong man, you will acquire greater intuition. The sky is not the limit. Open up wide and receive. Let the engines roar. Travel to different worlds through astral traveling. Know thy self. Thru the beautiful naked, strong man your dreams will be activated.

Not only the dreams when you are asleep at night but your actual dreams that you have set up in motion in the class of Malkuth. So pay attention. Daily sit and meditate. Be still and focus on Yesod.

This beautiful, strong man will allow you to have greater emotional health. You can acquire these qualities by facing your emotions and releasing them.

Focus your mind on this man and you will begin to acquire all of the emotional health of this being. It's like a tuning fork. Whatever it touches it resonates at that frequency.

So focus on the emotional health of this being and you will acquire greater emotional health. One good way is to embrace him daily. See him. Hug him. Feel the incredible emotional health radiating from him. He has no baggage.

He contains the natural emotional health of G_d/Man the Adam Kadmon. This is your gift. Open up to it. Receive it and embrace it. Your life will never be the same. Imagine these qualities are G_d's qualities.

You have the opportunity to embrace these qualities in your life. Can you imagine the pricelessness of this gift? Mankind has spent billions of dollars on trying to acquire some sort of emotional health and you are presented with the key.

Open up the door. Use it wisely. Know what has been given to you. A diamond has been given to you. Don't be a fool and throw it on the ground.

True emotional health is extremely rare on earth. We carry our emotional baggage, which causes us so much pain. You are offered a way to achieve greater emotional health.

You are being offered a way to acquire a way to completely heal your emotional body. You can be free. Can you imagine the relief that will be?

What a burden you are caring! The rock will be lifted from your shoulder. This will not only heal your emotional self but your physical as well. They are both interconnected.

What a blessing this is! So daily embrace the beautiful, naked, strong man. You will not be the same. True emotional health is here. Embrace it. Let go of all excess baggage.

You will be lighter. Don't hold on to some event or how you felt you are mistreated. Let go. Embrace your true being. Know how you are. Don't get sidetracked by the past.

Don't feel sorry for yourself. Get up off the ground. Dust yourself off and go on your way. Your baggage does not serve you in any way. It is extremely heavy.

So focus on light and you will let go of your baggage. Embrace your troubles. Embrace the moment. Embrace life. Realize the golden opportunity of now. Seize the moment.

Don't be afraid. We are here to help guide you and assist you. We love you and blessings to all. You have the courage of a lion. You are bold enough to face your demons. You are on the road to self-discovery. I am Shaddai el Chai. Blessing. I love you.

Gabriel

Open up your heart. Don't let the troubles of the day bother you. Every day is a glorious day. Don't get caught up in life's drama. It's so easy to be angry about life. I it's so easy to hang on to your baggage. True emotional healing comes when you truly let go of your baggage.

Don't take life so seriously. Don't take it so personally. Look at your emotional patterns and change them.

Don't be right or wrong. Be neutral in life. Be Pro-active. This is the way. Letting go of your emotions is difficult but can be done. Change your attitude and you will change your emotions.

Don't allow them to control you. What is upsetting to you? Does it matter? In the face of life is it that important? Change the pattern. Change the habit.

Break the endless cycle of getting upset by such trivial things. Focus on beauty, not on the trivial things in life. You can do it. Be still in life. If you are still your emotions will be in balance. If you react your emotions will get out of whack.

That's the nature of the game. Anytime you react your emotions are affected. No wonder there is so much chaos in your land. Peace on earth begins with you.

You have to stop the crazy cycle. Live in peace and stillness. This is your birthright. Don't get affected by dark forces. They are so predominant on earth.

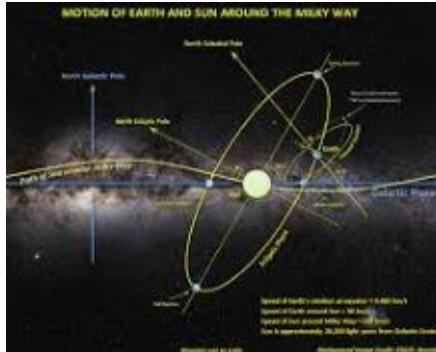

You can achieve this. Remember to stop, look and listen. This is the way to salvation. You must save yourself from yourself. Let go of your baggage.

Refuse to play the game of pettiness. This is how you get saved. A savior does not save you. You must save yourself. It's your responsibility. A savior saved himself.

A savior will show you the way. This is the law. You have to take the steps. We can help you and guide you but you must walk the path alone. So remember these are the steps that must be taken. It must be done. So why not do it now?

Have the conviction to master it. Learn to control your emotions. Don't react to life. Don't get involved in the pettiness of life. Don't take sides. Drop your shell. Embrace G_d and you will be free. Let G_d's will be your will. This is the way. You will be set free.

Movement

The entire universe moves. Love is the power, which moves all things. From the rotation of your planets to the formation of a star movement takes place.

The entire creation involves movement. Stillness lies inside the moment. From stillness comes the ripple of creation, which causes creation. It's like a wave in the ocean.

The water is perfectly still yet waves are created. The waves are in motion. Thought creates movement as the wind creates waves. So be in stillness and you will understand this mystery.

The Cheribum

Welcome to the Sephroit of Yesod. This marks the beginning of a grand evolution revolution in your life.

You are embarking on a grand spiritual journey, which encompasses all areas of your life.

The Kabbalah deals with all aspects of life from the physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual. The activation sequences have been activated.

There is no turning back. Let your baggage go. It will do nothing for you. It has no value except it is a burden in your life.

Yesod is where you learn about the ebb and flow of life. Pay attention to this. All of creation has this ebb and flow. Waves of change come in and the tide goes out.

All of creation has this flow- even your breath. Your breath is just like the tide-each breath contains the high tide and low tide. Yet beyond your breath lies perfect stillness.

This is the secret of life itself. From stillness comes the force of creation, the Yin/Yang of life. This is the Father/Mother principle of life. Behind this principle lies the power of love, which created the power of creation. So this is where you come back to Yesod.

Yesod teaches you the way to understand the ebb and flow of life. Granted it takes time but the activation process has started.

The moment you focused on the beautiful, naked, strong man, the gifts of the silver slippers with their wings, and the mirror the activation process started.

You will receive an initiation, which will further enhance the process. Therefore it's imperative to focus daily this month on Yesod. Concentrate on the ebb and flow of life.

Everything has a rhythm. You experience the biorhythms of life every hour of every day. There are times of the day when you have high energy and times when your energy is low.

The Nathors have provided you with a simple ritual that takes around two minutes to complete. This ritual is performed at certain times during the day when the tide changes from high tide to low tide.

By doing this ritual you will not experience the extremely low tide of life. This is just one aspect. Look at your finances. Most people on your planet are running on empty.

They barely have enough to live on. In America buy, buy, buy. This creates an atmosphere where they are deeply affected by financial tides. Because you live in this world this ebb and flow happen.

Yet the wise man understands from stillness comes true abundance. Wealth comes from the ebb and flow of life. Even Bill Gates lost half of his fortune during this year.

Abundance cannot be taken away from you. A poor man can be abundant while a rich man can be truly poor. It's a state of mind. True wealth and abundance are a state of being. It's absolute freedom.

A rich man is constantly worried about his money. A poor man is worried about paying his bills.

The wise man is in touch with the secrete of life and is free. It doesn't matter if he is rich or poor. It just doesn't matter. In that state, you could have millions of dollars or be free as a bird. It doesn't matter.

So you can see true abundance is a state of mind. By understanding financial phases you can understand the ebb and flow of Wall Street. By understanding these laws great wealth can be attained.

Health is another issue in your life, look at the ebb and flow of your life. Every year do you get sick?

Are you emotionally well? Man has put himself out of harmony. Man does not follow the laws of nature, look at what you eat. Look at what time you go to bed.

Just these two areas alone can cause you to have tremendous health problems. The PH in your blood should be around 7.4 yet your diet is extremely acid.

Coffee and carbonated sodas are one of the highest acidic drinks known to man. No wonder you have health problems. Man lives against natural laws.

All of your diseases or should I say most of the diseases are created by you. Your lifestyle dictates your physical health, so ask yourself if your body is truly a temple of G_d would you want to throw garbage around the temple?

This is the human condition. Your people are driven by fast food. The world looks at people who are health conscious and thinks they are weirdoes. That's the fact of life.

Your country spends billions of dollars on research, yet they think they can ignore the natural laws and get away with it. So heal yourself. Follow the laws of nature.

This is your temple so you can see the ebb and flow of your life. Understand them. Take full responsibility for your life. Be practical. If you do you will be saner, healthier, and practical. You will have greater emotional, physical, mental, and spiritual health.

Gabriel

Today let's talk about increase intuition and psychic ability. Your DNA is hardwired to all the wisdom and knowledge from the universe.

It is built into your design. Yet as a human, you have this incredible engine. It was meant to be used but it lies in your garage the entire life.

How sad that is! Man has the knowledge and wisdom built-in, yet can we see it? Man gets lost in the 9 to 5 existence. You have all of the wonders of G_d inside of you, yet you can't see the forest from the trees.

This is the connection of man today. Yesod gives the Cabalistic increased intuition and psychic ability. These abilities lie dormant in man. Imagine having a seed in the ground for a thousand years.

Without water, the seed will not germinate and grow. The seed will be dormant. By concentrating on Yesod you are watering the seed. Therefore the seed begins to grow. It is as easy as that.

As the seeds get watered daily and you have fertile soil the seed grows. To acquire fertile soil you must live your life as a Proactive being in other words as a Co-Creator. This is a major goal in life. This will set you free.

Your will and G_d's will be in complete alignment. You are learning this daily in your life. Now let's go over increased intuition. Why would you want that in the first place?

Without intuition, you would not have a way to get in touch with G_d. You would always be in a reactive mode. You would always react in life. Intuition allows you to stop, look and listen.

It allows you to listen to a soft voice inside beckoning you. In a reactive state imagine heavy rock and roll music blaring in your ears.

Intuition allows you to turn down the music ever so silently so you may hear the music of G_d. G_d's music is always there but we only hear the music of our rambling minds.

The goal is to consciously change the channel from heavy rock and roll to G_d's infinite channel. This will change the state from a reactive state to a proactive state.

This is what increased intuition is all about. Somewhere inside of man lies a beacon to direct man home. By having increased intuition you can synch to the radar of life and begin to walk back home. What an incredible game this is!

Now you may ask what do psychic abilities have to do with all this? You have five physical senses, hearing, sight, touch, taste, and smell. You also have five internal senses, which correspond to the five external senses.

These internal senses are used to perceive G_d's inner kingdom. This is your birthright. As Christ declared the kingdom of heaven lies within. How do you get there?

Imagine having TV channels for your five senses. One TV channel may be more developed than another. Some people are visual while others learn through hearing. And yet some learn through kinetics.

Yet what would happen if man developed these internal channels within? Man would be transformed into a human. Man = mind, while human = divine mind. Man would then live in the kingdom of heaven.

This is the transformation that needs to take place within man today. Now can you see how the pieces of the puzzle create the picture? Both of these are vital components of the key to life.

Your new age concepts and the role of psychic ability do no justice to the real meaning of intuition and psychic ability. They are usually way off the mark. Yet at times you may meet someone who is right on.

So these gifts are yours. Listen to the soft music of G_d. Live in stillness and you will be free. I love you.

Independent

Independent

Are you independent in your life? Do you rely on anybody to do things for you? Do you rely on your wife to make breakfast for you?

Do you rely on others to do things for you? Yesod teaches you about independence. You must be independent in your life. When you are dependent on a person, place, or thing your power goes away.

Suppose for example that a husband is in charge of finances. He performs this service for 30 years. If the wife never got involved she is hopeless when he dies.

It's best not to be dependent on anybody. Learn to do things yourself. It's the same for taxes. Learn how to do them yourself. Even in your financial world learn to do it yourself. Nobody has your true interest at heart. So look at all areas in your life.

Look at your emotions. Are you dependent on anger, greed, and lust? Do they control you? Are you dependent on sex? Is your mind preoccupied with it all the time?

Does sex control you? Does sex control your ability to think correctly? Man has gone to war over sex.

Your life must be in balance. All areas of your life must be in balance. Take a look around and see areas in your life where you need to be more independent.

Learn how to do things yourself. Don't be dependent on your wife making your dinner. So learn to do things yourself. If you need to do the laundry do it. If you never do the laundry then learn how to do it.

This will teach you more about being independent. At the same time, your wife or husband will love to see that.

Are you dependent on watching TV? Do you love to zone out nightly? If you do, shut the TV off. You are being controlled and brainwashed. You are being told to buy, buy, buy. Don't be dependent on the TV.

So this month take a look at your life and look at the ways you are dependent on people. When you see an area in your life where you are dependent on things then start learning to do them yourself.

You will feel a lot better about yourself. When you are dependent on any person, place, or thing you are giving your power away. This is why over time you get so tired.

You have spent an enormous amount of energy being dependent on something. It's quite a paradox. You would think it's the opposite. We think that if some person cooks me dinner every night, while I sit there and read my paper I should gain more energy.

Yet because of this dependence, you are losing energy. So consequently both parties lose out. Because both parties are dependent on each other their energy gets drained.

You must reclaim your energy. You must learn how to do it yourself. You will then break the cycle. So learn what the other is doing in a relationship.

Look at your thoughts. Are you dependent on them? Do you criticize or judge others? If you do you are dependent on this for your self-worth. You need to see other people's faults besides your own.

Do you need to justify that I'm better than you are? Get rid of gossip in your life, that is one of the main rules for the Kabbalah. You have no right to judge anyone.

Are you obsessed with anything? Are you an obsessive shopper or are you obsessed with sex? Are you obsessed with watching sports on TV?

Do your energy and emotions get excited about how your team is doing? Look at your sporting events. Millions of people watch them. Remember there is always a winner or loser.

If your team wins you are happy. If your team loses you are sad. This cycle goes on year after year. Mankind is addicted and dependent on it. You have your ESPN where you can watch your favorite teams day and night.

Do you always have the radio playing when you are at home? Do you need some sound because you can't stand silence? You are dependent on sound? You refuse to face issues in your life.

Turn off the radio and get introduced to yourself. Look inside and see your baggage. Throw them away. You will feel better about yourself.

Are you dependent on someone to come over to fix things in your house? Learn to do them yourself. If you can learn and have someone come over when you are busy that's ok. But remember to learn to do the thing yourself.

Look at ways where you rely on others to do things for you. Do you have someone send out your emails? Learn how to do it yourself. Stand up and learn how to do it yourself. Stand on your own two feet. Don't depend on religion to save you. You must save yourself.

Don't be dependent on books to provide you with wisdom and knowledge. Books provide information. Knowledge and wisdom come from within.

So this is a treasure house. Learn to discover your treasures within. Reclaim your energy. Reclaim your dependence on others. Become a truly independent being. If you do this you will become truly free. You will become an independent and sovereign being. You will be a light to this world.

So once again pay attention in your life. Be aware and independent. You will not regret it. This is what's keeping you from reaching your goal. Blessing to you. We love you.

The deepest wisdom from Yesod is the vision of the machinery of the universe. In other words, this is how all things are connected and interconnected.

This vision is of unity. You will see the unity of all life. You will see the unity of everything in the universe.

You live your life as if you are separated from everything. Man does not see the unity behind all things. Man distances himself from nature and the entire creation.

Man thinks the environmentalists are strange but man is strange. What a strange concept that man is the king of the universe and he can do what he dams well pleases. Man has lost him/herself to the negative ego. I know all of the answers.

Don't tell me what to do. We think we know all of the answers. Man is only a speck in the universe. Your knowledge is only a drop of water in a cosmic sea.

A human recognizes this fact and is humble before the face of creation and the creator of life. Man is sawing off the branch he is sitting on yet thinks he knows all of the answers.

Before anyone can have this vision of the divine plan at work in all things you must be humble. You must come with an empty cup. If your cup is full you can't receive the vision.

So this month pay attention to this. Pay attention inward and outward. Be aware of the unity of all things. Don't just look at objects as nothing but matter. They are alive.

Everything in the whole universe is alive. Feel the energy of love flowing through all things. Listen to the word that is vibrating throughout the universe.

See the Divine Light that is the unifying force of all creation. The whole universe is tied together like a garland. A garland contains all sorts of different flowers but is tied together with a thread of love. This thread ties everything together.

This thread of love ties all of life in this universe or others. Can you imagine that this vision can be yours? So open up your heart. Be humble. Let go of your baggage.

You are on an incredible journey. The Kabbalah will teach and show you life's great mysteries. So pay attention. Be a Co-creator. Don't react and take it personally.

Many adventures will come your way. The secret of life lies inside of you. So make some lifestyle changes this month. Pay extra attention to your baggage. Let go of your weaknesses of Yesod.

To have this deepest vision, you must be pure. Imagine there are two worlds. You can either live in one or the other. You can be a reactive being or a co-creator.

A co-creator sees the magic of life. A Co-Creator will be in sync with the will of G_d. No wonder man doesn't see the unity behind all things. If you are a reactive being you can't cross over the river of life.

A man says "what river" I can't see it so it doesn't exist. Yet there is a river of life, which comes from the source of all. Scientists know that it exists, yet they can't put their fingers on it.

They have theories and formulas. You have the opportunity to experience it firsthand. What a grand opportunity! So be conscious and aware of your daily activities.

Change your focus. Learn to live more in your sanctuary every day. This is your new reference point. You will begin to see the world through different eyes.

Your perceptions will change. Over time your vision will be in harmony with the universe. So the analogy of the tuning fork comes to mind. A tuning fork will vibrate at the frequency of the object that it touches.

Touch illusion and you will see an illusion. Touch G_d and you will see G_d.

So this study of the tree will go on for eternity. Your understanding of the tree and each Sephroit will go on moment by moment, day by day, year by year, century by century, millennium by millennium until eternity.

This is how incredible this tree is. So your vision of the deepest level will always go deeper. There is never a time when you can say, "Now I know everything there is to know". Knowledge and wisdom go on forever. What a grand adventure it is! It's time for man to wake up from his slumber. Man has to be aware that he is part of the great plan of creation

It's time that man wakes up from his slumber. Man has to be aware that he is part of the great plan of creation. Man must make his/her own decisions.

You have consciously decided to embark on this train. You now realize this is not an easy train ride. It can become very unsettling at times. Imagine riding on the train and your baggage falls out of the compartment because you brought too many bags.

They can't all fit in the overhead. The conductor says to reach your destination you must give up and throw away all bags except for the ones you can carry yourself.

So let go of all your fears. Let go of your baggage. Enjoy the train ride of life. Don't have expectations or assumptions about this train. Accept where you are on this train.

Trust in your own experience. Don't judge yourself or expect you to be like others. You have been custom designed. So honor that experience. Water your tree daily in your life.

Someday you will have many beautiful branches that children can play on. You will be the light of the world. You will be an example to all.

Recognize this opportunity. Don't take it for granted. Don't throw the gem on the ground. You can do it. We are so happy to see your progress. Don't stop. Your life is changing so fast.

Years ago a man would spend one year on each Sephroit. You are focusing on one each month. You can do it but you must be aware. So eat the carrot that is dangling in front of you. It's real.

Be humble and a true servant, a Co-Creator. If you do you will have the vision. You will see the Divine plan of the universe. You will see how all of life is connected.

So take these words to heart. Put them into action. You have plenty of homework. We love you. The voices of Yesod.

The Christ

Greetings. What a memorable day. Blessings to you all. You are so fortunate to be here. We are all gathered here together under the umbrella of love.

We are all here to fulfill our Father/Mother's dream of peace on earth. It begins with you. You are the ones who will make it happen. We are the inspiration and grace behind you.

You are the ones who have to take these necessary steps to fulfill the dream. So we are all gathered today to discuss the necessary actions each one of you needs to take.

What a golden opportunity you have. Each one of you has a particular role and function to perform. We are here to help and assist you.

For those of you who are here for the first time, we have this meeting and afterward break up into the 12 councils. You will be assigned to a particular group.

Over time you will rotate from one council to another. After this council meeting, you will receive personal training. Here you will meet with your guides and teachers.

You will learn different techniques to help your growth. There will be a part of you that will remember and a part of you that will forget. On Friday night please go to bed before midnight. If you are exhausted you will not remember anything at all.

Over time you will remember. You will get glimpses of these meetings and you will have a sense of familiarity with these meetings. So try to be aware and conscious.

Saturday morning is a very special day. So we welcome any new Adepts. You are embarking on an incredible journey. Man has the potential to realize the thread of love, which ties all of humanity together.

When people realize the power of the pieces of the puzzle, peace will manifest. Your job is to be aware of who you truly are. Your job is to be an example-full of love, compassion, and tolerance. Remember never to judge others.

Be ready to help those in need. Be humble. Be a servant of G_d. We are here to help you and guide you. In the name of the Father/Mother,- Son/Daughter, and the Holy Ghost. We love you. Amen. Forever yours.

The Christ.

Michael

Choir of angels singing...

What a joyous song! The whole universe is singing the praises of the almighty Father/Mother. We are all united under love.

We are all so fortunate to be here today. We are all so fortunate to be able to help our Father/Mother in bringing peace on earth.

What a transformation we shall see. As you know there is a battle between good and evil. For peace to prevail man must embrace G_d. So these council meetings are for you.

We are here to help facilitate and help bring peace to the earth. Yet it begins with you. You have been chosen to help and assist in this mission. You all have an active part. We are here to guide you.

Your world as you know it is going through turmoil. Since Sept 11 you have been thrown off balance. In America, they are still getting over the shock.

For some, it will take years. Humanity feels unsafe in normal ways of life. How do you protect yourself from this happening again? The battle has started. Lines are drawn in the sand. What side do you want to be on? Good versus evil.

In the US, they are watching the demise of the Enron Corporation. They are watching how the owners sold billions of shares of stock and let the employees hold the bags.

These two events alone, along with the Amtrack scare have caused an impact on the life of people in the United States. So the battle has started. The battle first begins with you.

You must face yourself and throw away all of your baggage. You must let go of your old ways and embrace life. Evil does exist inside and must be dealt with. Christ went to the desert for forty days and had to face his demons.

He conquered and realized himself. You must take the same steps in your life. You don't have to go to the desert. You can do it in the privacy of your own home. So take up the sword of love and cut through the veil of illusion.

Discover who you truly are. Wake up from your slumber. Remember you are not alone. You have the hierarchy to help you in achieving your goal. What more support do you need?

So we are always here to assist you. Learn to live in your sanctuary. Learn to live in love. Learn to live in compassion. The world will be a better place. So remember your mission. We love you, Michael.

Unknown

For over two thousand years ago the seed of peace was planted.

You are the ones who will be the farmers of mankind. Christ and Michael both spoke of the coming times.

You have been handpicked. You have been chosen to help in assisting the planet's transformation. What an incredible time! I am a messenger to mankind. Throughout history, I have been one of G_d's messengers.

Today I deliver a message from G_d. How blessed you are. You have the opportunity to serve. Only you can help to bring peace. Each one of you is important. The kingdom of heaven will be on earth.

Slept for a few hours

Gabriel

The Almighty has chosen you to be a part of his master plan. What a golden opportunity it is!

You have been handpicked. So arise to the occasion. You have the blessings of the Almighty to overcome any obstacle.

You can let go of your baggage. You can be free. So open up your heart. Let G_d's will be your will. Throw away your baggage. Be free. You have been chosen to be a Co-Creator.

Know is the time to walk hand in hand with your beloved. Pay attention. Listen to only your heart. Don't react to any situation. Be a Co-Creator. Life is a mystery and you can solve it. You have been chosen to help the almighty.

It's strange but the almighty needs your help. The one who created the universe needs your help. But there are rules to the game. Only the people on your planet can bring peace to your planet. Everybody has free will. So it's up to you.

Peace will come one by one when each person becomes peaceful. This is how the kingdom of heaven will occur on earth. So my blessings are with you. Love Gabriel

Christ

This concludes this morning's portion of our meeting. We will now divide it into our 12 Council Meetings. If you are new please ask for assistance.

Author

It seems to me that the 12 councils are like the 12 Astrological signs. They contain certain energies and frequencies similar to Astrology. Each of the 12 Councils has an Archangel from the 2 quorum. I have been assigned to the council group, which has a frequency similar to Sagittarius.

Personal instructions

Sit still and listen to the stillness. Listen. Be aware. When you are still, go to your sanctuary right above and slightly behind your head. This is your assemblage point.

In this state remove yourself from your negative ego. The negative ego cannot touch you in your sanctuary. It's strictly off-limits. Only you and your guides can be there. Try to maintain your focus there in your daily life. Speak only when necessary. If something gives you a charge don't react.

Stop look and listen. Defuse the bomb. Don't take it personally. By moving your assemblage point up you can defuse any situation inside of your being.

You will not get angry or take things personally. It's a shift of energy and consciousness that needs to happen. You need a shift from the physical world to the spiritual world.

This is how Christ mastered himself. He lived in the physical yet his assemblage point was the spiritual realm. So pay attention and use the technique daily in your life. Over time you will shift your assemblage point permanently to this level.

So daily practice this. This is like learning how to ride a bicycle. It takes time but once you learn it you will never forget how to ride. If you can master this then you can over time let go of all of your baggage. You will become free.

So don't take anything or anyone and make it personal. Reflect only love and compassion in any given situation. This will set you free.

Second, as you go up the tree, focus on the Archetype symbols and the gifts received from each Sephirot. Even if you are on the next level focus also on the Sephirot below.

As above so below. As below so above. You will acquire the qualities and energies of the Sephiroth. You will be in balance. You will be the Adam Kadmon. So be aware.

Dreams

Dreams are gentle reminders to wake up. Dreams are a way to process and filter through your baggage.

Each dream has a distinct filtering process from your subconscious. Dreams come from your subconscious and contain many different kinds of messages.

Dreams contain knowledge and wisdom about you. Pay attention to them. They are beneficial for healing past wounds. They help reflect your fears and to show you your hidden baggage.

Man, in general, does not pay attention to dreams. We are so worried about our 9 to 5 existence that we lose ourselves in the material world.

Dreams contain all our hopes, our aspirations, and how we wish our life would be. We have forgotten who we truly are. Dreams help you to wake up. They help you to process information.

They help you to heal. They help you to forgive others and to forgive yourself.

Dreams are a healing experience. They can also be a warning sign. They can help you and show you the danger you may be in. Imagine if your lifestyle is out of control.

You may have a dream about an accident or something causing you great bodily harm. So they are there to warn you in your life. Either you change your lifestyle or this will happen to you.

Many great inventions came from dreams. Many great discoveries of the 20th century came directly from dreams, for example, Einstein's theory of relativity.

Dreams are a way to connect to the unmanifest world. They are a gateway to the source of knowledge and wisdom of the universe. Man can tap into the well of wisdom.

Can you imagine if a man would tap into this wisdom at any time? You can. Dreams are a doorway to this world. A man just steps into the stream of life and pulls out a fish of wisdom.

Man claims the fish as his/her own and declares this to the world. Yet the idea already existed. The man just tapped into it. So dreams can help you to tap into sacred wisdom and knowledge.

All creation comes from dreams. First, there was a flash of an idea. From the idea, a thought came. From thought comes a blueprint. From the blueprint comes action.

All creation follows this process. Unfortunately, man does not understand this process. This is why so many of your dreams don't come true. Man must learn to take the reins of his/her life and be in charge.

Your dreams can come true. So be careful what you dream about. Put your dreams down on paper. Every day look at them. Pay attention to them. Read them every day.

Do this daily in your life. Furthermore, you must act on them. You must create a blueprint or master plan to put into action so you may reach your goals. Each of the four steps is necessary.

The reason why your dreams don't come true is that you don't follow the laws of creation. You must act upon them. You may have an incredible dream, but if you don't follow the four steps of creating it will never come true.

So be a Co-Creator. Put on your calendar or diary the actions necessary to make this happen. Take small steps. Day by day take small steps and eventually you will reach your goal.

So remember all creation first comes in a flash as an idea. From that idea, a dream is born. Contemplate that dream- which is thought.

From that, a master plan or blueprints need to be developed. You can't build a palace without a blueprint. From there the palace must be built. Put into action and follow your blueprints and master plan.

Do you have a palace when you only dream about it? No. Do you have a palace when you have a blueprint? No. But you do have a palace when you follow the four steps of creation and practically start to build the palace.

Then the palace becomes a reality. So dreams can come true if you take these necessary steps. These four steps are the recipes of creation. You need these ingredients and you need to follow these steps to achieve them.

You may be in different phases of creation. Suppose you had 10 different dreams. Each dream may be in a different phase. Take for example a homebuilder.

He may be working on 5 different houses at once. Each house will be in a different phase of creation. This is the world of creation. You are a Co-Creator you just don't know it.

This Sephroit will teach you more about it. You are an independent being who is a Co-Creator. This is the purpose of life. The purpose of life isn't to control us.

The purpose of life isn't to control others. The aim and purpose of life are to be a Co-Creator with G_d. The aim is to build the kingdom of heaven on earth.

Man in his ignorance builds poverty, misery, and dominance over others. We built the fences that separate us. We built the barbwire of our minds.

We built the bombs of destruction in the name of peace. Man has lost his way. He is sawing off the branch he is sitting on.

Man has the opportunity to make this world a better place. Many messengers from G_d have come down and talked about this dream. The dream is now in the action phase. It is your responsibility to take action if you want world peace.

Only you can make it happen. This is the collective dream of man and G_d. This is why we are here. Know is the time to wake up from your slumber.

You have been asleep for way too long. Man must unite or eventually, man will die. It is as simple as that. The decision is yours. You are all a garland of life. The thread of love is tying all of you together.

So what an incredible dream this is! Your life is a dream. You are born and someday you will die. It is just a flicker in the time of eternity. So what is real?

Your life will never end. What is, was, and will always be is inside of you. That's the riddle of life. That is the mystery that must be solved.

So pay attention to your dreams. Contemplate upon them. Make a blueprint or master plan. Act upon them. Be a Co-Creator.

True emotional health

True emotional health is rare among mankind. Man, in general, has poor emotional health. He/she is not stable.

The winds of the mind constantly blow him off course. Because man lives in a reactive state the emotions can't be stable.

A man goes through the ebb and flow of emotions in his/her life. Because of this, man is constantly off balance. This is reflective of your overall health.

Furthermore, a man holds so much emotional baggage in his life. Man's life is like a soap opera. We have a lot of drama. So how does one achieve true emotional health?

How do we let go of our baggage? The sephirot of Yesod helps to balance and strengthen your emotional health. This is so important. Without this, you cannot proceed up the tree.

You cannot be emotionally unstable. Can you imagine if you had true power and your emotions were unstable? You would cause great harm. You already have seen in your past historical figures cause havoc throughout the ages.

The aim is to be in harmony with your emotions, not to let them drive you in your life. You want your emotions to be like a dog that is extremely well trained, not a wild barking dog who is a hazard to society.

When you reside in stillness over time your emotions will be stable. This is why humanity's emotions are unstable. They hardly ever connect to stillness.

Man is like a boat drifting in the sea. You have no rudder so you float aimlessly over the ocean. A wise man buys a boat with an engine and a rudder.

He can reach his destination. So be like a wise man. Your engine comes from stillness. This is the engine of life. Your rudder is to focus on G_d. Make G_d's will your will. This will create an atmosphere of healthy emotions.

What are healthy emotions? Love, compassion, tolerance, trust, and acceptance are some. All of these qualities are like the sun's rays. If you sit in the sun you will get a suntan.

If you bathe in G_d light you will absorb the qualities of love, mercy, and compassion. This will help stabilize your emotions. So it's imperative to soak up the inner rays daily in your life.

Meditate daily. Go to the stillness and absorbed the divine light. This will help you to stabilize your emotions. Your baggage will come up so release them.

As you can see these qualities of Yesod work on each other. To understand the ebb and flow of life your emotions must be stable. By increasing your psychic abilities and intuition you will understand more the ebb and flow of life.

By bathing in the light your emotions will be balanced. Each aspect is not separate but has a unifying consciousness behind it.

So remember as long as you live in a reactive state your emotions will control you. You can spend a lot of money trying to solve certain issues yet it is hard to heal.

Emotional healing comes when you can embrace your baggage and let them go. This will make you whole. Your western doctors only deal with curing the symptoms. True healing needs to go to the source itself.

Meditation is like a laser beam, which allows you to focus on any given issue. Over time it can help to bring in harmony all of your emotional baggage and issues.

This is why it is so important to meditate. You need light to reveal darkness. So this is how to achieve emotional health. We are here to guide you. Try not to take things personally in your life.

True emotional healing is yours. By achieving this, your body will become healthier. Most of man's diseases are caused by stress and poor emotional health.

So remember true emotional health exists at the center of the hurricane, not in the winds swirling around you. Step into the center. You will be free.

The tree of life will show you how to be centered in your life. It will take you out of the swirling winds and into the stillness. This will set you free. He/she must look in the right direction.

The Kabbalah as a system is probably one of the greatest mental and emotional healing tools. It can truly heal us. It doesn't place a band-aid over the source of the problem.

This is true healing. The Kabbalah is true healing on all levels. It treats all aspects of you. So this is one of the most powerful transformation tools on the planet. It's for anyone who asks. So take these tools and utilize them in your life. Water the tree daily. This will set you free.

Love and blessings Gabriel

Omens

The topic for today is Omens. Omens are like signals on the highway. Imagine you had to drive across the country and there were no signs or stoplights. It would be extremely hard to do.

You wouldn't know where you were. You might be driving too fast for the road. Up ahead might be a dangerous curve.

Omens are like signs or signals on the freeway of life. They are there to put you back on the road. Without omens, it would be extremely difficult to see the signs on the freeway of life.

Omens can also be a warning. A stop sign on the freeway of life might indicate that you are traveling on dangerous territory. Your life might be spinning out of control.

Stop and look at what's going on. The more intuition you have the greater omens will be in your life. They will help and guide you to your destination.

Omens are signs coming from G_d. To receive them, you must be open. In times of danger, your airbag may be released to save you from the accident that is about to happen. Omens can be grace in motion.

Man has been receiving omens for thousands of years. They are like a lighthouse protecting men from getting shipwrecked in life.

So pay attention to the freeway of life. Watch where you are driving. Watch for omens and look out for the sign and signals in your life. Be aware. You all have omens in your life. Turn down the volume of the radio of your mind. This will bring you into stillness.

A person who is a reactive being has a hard time seeing omens on the freeway of life. The windshield of the mind is cloudy and foggy. In conditions like these, it's hard to navigate much less see any road signs.

When a person gets lost on the freeway of life we run into potholes. We drive into dangerous neighborhoods. We get arrested for drunk driving. We get into fender benders and at times we may even get into a serious accident and die.

Some people live their lives according to the book and never take any chances. They obey all the rules of life yet they never question where there are going. They are along only for the ride. They live complacent lives.

The goal is to be a Proactive being that is driving on a smooth highway. Every moment there are signs and signals to protect you. The lanes are well marked.

You can drive as fast as you want. Warning signs will come up when you need to slow down. You have time to enjoy life. You can put the car on cruise control and enjoy the ride. G_d's will is your will. This is the purpose of life.

If there is danger ahead a sign will appear to warn you. So pay attention to your life. Look at the oneness in your life.

Yesterday there was a discussion on how the various aspects are tied together. You need stable emotions to receive Omens in your life. You need intuitions and greater psychic ability.

They all go hand in hand. Yesod's qualities are necessary for the road of life. You need these qualities to be integrated and assimilated into your life.

Then you will begin to wake up. You will see that the Omens have always been there. It was I who couldn't see them. I put blinders on my eyes. Take off your blinders. Don't judge them.

You will be amazed at what you do see. Your journey will be incredible. Life will be joyous. So this is your birthright. This is why you are alive.

So I hope that this discussion throws some light on the nature of Omens. They aren't only for the wise men. They are custom-designed for you. Each of us has our signs on the freeway of life.

So be aware of them. Focus on the freeway. Pay attention. Meditate daily. Let's go off the baggage. You will soon drive down the freeway of life in a convertible, with the sunroof down, and be smiling with the wind. You will be free.

So open up. Feel the glorious wind on your face. Put your foot down on the pedal and drive on the freeway of life. You are going home. Blessings to you.

How much spontaneity do you have in your life? Is your life ruled by a lot of rules? Are you flexible? Do you know how to bend?

Can you touch your toes? Life is spontaneous. It is grand and glorious. A man takes life and sucks all the life out of it. Man creates harsh rules to live by.

Spontaneity is the bread of life. It's like dancing in the rain. Man with all of his rules says you should never go out in the rain without a raincoat. You might get a cold.

Yet have you ever danced in the rain and got soaking wet? Have you ever felt how glorious it is? You were experiencing the joy of nature. Most of the men live a cold dreary life.

Everything is put in a box and he/she will never look outside of it. You live a 9 to 5 existence. Party on the weekends and the saga goes on. But life is grand, it is free. It is full of spontaneity. It's like a river flowing downstream. It can change course at any time.

Spontaneity keeps you in the river of life. It keeps the mosquitoes of drudgery away. Once a river stops flowing stagnation occurs. Mosquitoes soon appear on the horizon.

A swamp contains stagnant water. The water is not pure. Man's life is like a swamp. Due to our ignorance, we have created swamps in our life. Day by day, month-by-month, and year-by-year men live the same predictable life.

We have lost touch with the youth within and our spontaneity. Look, how much spontaneity a child has? From moment to moment a child is free. Yet we take the child and teach them to be like us. You must be practical. This is for your good.

Don't be a daydreamer. You must work hard. They slowly lose their innocence and spontaneity in life. How sad that is! Yet we have to reclaim it once again. We must be like a child.

An adult is too rigid and locked into his life. This is the way it is. There is no other way. A child can try on different things and see different viewpoints. A child's glasses are not tainted.

So this month be open to spontaneity. See where it takes you. Many glorious doors will open. It's a breath of fresh air in life. So look at life and see where you are. Is your life ridged?

Are you set in your ways? Can you look at both sides of the coin? Are you open to being more spontaneous? Let go of all your residue and resistance.

Let go of your old ways of doing things. Be like a child living moment-by-moment experiencing life. Live with the light glowing inside. Live your life as a Co-creator.

Remember a reactive being is not spontaneous, while a Proactive being is. Life is a grand adventure. Life is constantly changing. Your dreams are there.

So the choice is yours? What kind of life do you want to live? The decision is yours. So this month pays attention to the beauty behind life.

Make your choices. They will be the foundation of your life. Learn to be truly spontaneous in your life. Love the voices of Yesod.

A reactive being is idle in his/her life. Imagine that you have a car and the car is idle. You must put the car into drive to move the car.

Then and only then can you drive to your destination. The car will not go anywhere if it's in neutral or park.

Man in his reactive state has his engines running but doesn't know how to take the car out of neutral.

He/she is spinning their wheels and going nowhere. This is the condition of man. This sephirah allows us to overcome idleness in our life. It will help you to make a conscious decision in your life.

It will allow you to consciously take off the brake and put the car into drive. To reach your destination, you must drive there. You can't sit in your garage and expect to reach your destination.

You must be Proactive. Look at how incredible your human body is. It was perfectly designed by G_d. Your body is a temple where G_d lies inside. Yet the majority of mankind has no idea what lies inside. Man is destroying his temple.

Imagine the body is hard-wired to be with G_d. Imagine the body is like an Aero Ship. The engines are running but you are not going anywhere. Sadly enough we don't realize that the Aero Ship exists inside.

We spend our entire life without this knowledge. The human being contains the spark of the entire universe. The human body is a vehicle where a man can realize his creator.

Unfortunately, the majority of mankind is idle. They are in slumber. They have forgotten the key to life.

This Sephroit will help you overcome idleness in your life. You will learn how to move from park, to neutral to drive. This will help in all parts of your life.

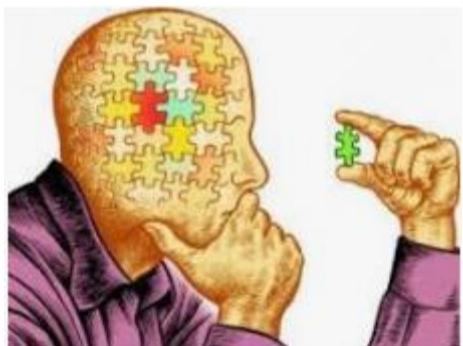

You will learn how to put into drive all the dreams you have. Your life will no longer be idle but will be on the freeway of life. Remember only you can drive your car.

You must take the car and drive it out of your garage. There is a saying he who hesitates is lost. You must make the decision that will change your life.

So seize the moment and take advantage of this precious moment. Learn to be truly alive. Blessings.

The Shephroit of Yesod will bring you a greater understanding and self-awareness of yourself.

By increasing your conscious psychic ability and intuition you will be more aware of yourself.

You will be more aware of the thread that ties us all together. You will be more aware and sensitive to your physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual sides. You will begin to see that this physical world is just the beginning of this journey.

Each step you take contains more awareness. It's kind of funny but without awareness, a man can't see. Imagine if you had a room full of baggage and you walk blindfolded. You wouldn't be able to see the baggage but you sure would feel them when you bumped into them.

A blind man may use his senses to feel the baggage. Anyway, the man is blind and thinks that he can see. This is a riddle of life. Without awareness, man cannot see. Awareness is the key.

You must be aware. This journey teaches you about obtaining awareness every step of the way. Awareness is like removing the filters of how you view this world. The filters are tainted by the shades of darkness we have.

Awareness allows us to get one step closer to the truth. It is truly the name of the game. The whole game of life is to be consciously aware that you are a Co-Creator. You are more than a mere mortal man. You contain the spark of life, which holds the key to the universe.

You are on an incredible journey. Every step you take is a step into awareness. You will go on for infinity. Your awareness will grow and grow and grow. You are an incredible part of your life.

This tree of life is sacred. You have been allowed to know its vast seed of creation. You will become self-aware. Your past steps have taken you this far. Now greater awareness awaits you.

Learn to love each moment. See the miracle of life everywhere. Look at how your life contains the thread of life, which holds you together. Your physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual aspects are all held together by love. Love truly makes the world go around.

So how do you achieve greater self-awareness? A reactive being becomes aware of a series of slow-motion, trial, and error. Over time man slowly evolves. The entire universe evolves, that's the course of nature.

Yet a Pro-Active being consciously is aware step by step. Each step takes you into a greater sense of awareness, as you go up the tree your awareness will grow.

So this is truly a special tree. Take advantage of the opportunity you have at hand. Remember you are not alone. We are here to guide you and walk with you. So pay close attention to your life. Remember you must be aware. Wake up from your slumber. All the tools are there. Blessings.

The Hierarchy of Light

It's a sad day indeed that we have lost the sacred mystery school in Africa. The volcano wiped all of the members out.

This mystery school helped to bring balance through sex and passion. It's been around for thousands of years. This mystery school was responsible for balancing the sex chakra for this planet.

This isn't the first time a mystery school was wiped out. Today a valuable asset to the planet is gone. One key component is missing. One entire tribe is gone.

All seven mystery schools are valuable for maintaining balance on this planet. With these mystery schools gone we will have to create another vortex of energy to help sustain the chakra.

It's time to wake up from our slumber. The world needs you to wake up. The game is being played right before your eyes. So wake up. A new game plan will have to be developed to create harmony in this area. All of you need to see what you can do.

Wake up to your piece of the puzzle. Interesting times are upon us. In your world, nothing is for sure. Everything is unstable. How could something like this happen?

A vital piece of the puzzle is gone. Now is the time to re-affirm G_d's will like your will. G_d needs your help. There are no and, ifs or buts about it. According to the rules of creation, only man can play this game on earth.

You can receive guidance from us but only you can play the game. We are your coaches. Only the players play the game while the coaches are on the sidelines. You are all players in G_d's game. You have incredible coaches, mentors, and guides backing you up. But remember only you can play the game.

So the game is being played right before your very eyes. A huge loss has just occurred to our team. The stakes are clear. Do you want peace on earth or do you want chaos?

This is the essence of the game. Imagine you have 7 major forces working on this planet; suddenly you lose one key component. It's a major blow. It's like a spark plug that doesn't work.

The engine will stall or backfire. So the time is now to dig your trenches and to let the light shine on this world. Be a beacon of love. Seize the moment.

Only you can help save the world. Your help is requested. We must stand together as a unified force, indivisible and justice for all. Let's be united and stand together. This is the way.

United we stand divided we fall. Be united in G_d's love and light. Recognize how precious you are. The destiny of your planet is in your hands. It's time to reap the harvest.

A tremendous amount of energy has been spent in healing the soul of man. You wouldn't believe how many people lost their lives because of their dedication to G_d. The hard work is paying off but there's still so much work to be done.

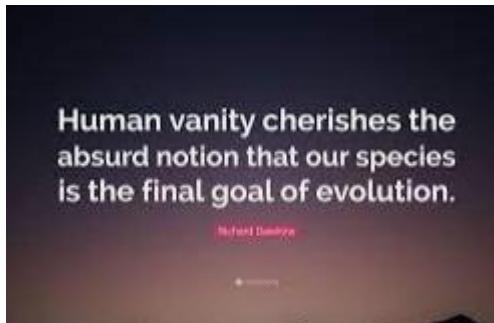

A huge wave of love is about ready to rise in your world. Be united. Don't let anyone stand in your way. You are the ones who will bring peace on earth to the earth. Don't react. Be a Pro-Active being. You are a Co-Creator.

The time is now to go out and play the game of life. You are in a huddle but now your orders are given. Go out and play the game. It's up to you. The game is in your hands. So go out and play.

The hierarchy of light.

Vanity

Vanity has gotten man in a lot of trouble on your planet. War has started because of vanity. Vanity prevents a man from thinking right.

Man becomes illogical and not rational in his behavior. What causes man to be so vain? It's when you lose control of your negative ego. When it takes over man will become vain.

In an ordinary man, it's already a struggle between the positive ego and the negative ego. Man has been struggling with vanity for thousands of years. Even among the spiritual man, it comes to the surface. When you lose humility you become vain.

Man must become humble in order not to become vain. A wise man is humble among men. He/she has nothing to prove. Yet a fool thinks he/she is better than anyone else. His/her ego is inflated.

Therefore they can't develop compassion and love in their life. They become self-centered. A rich man and the poor man may become vain. It doesn't matter your financial status.

A person who is vain projects that aura about himself to the world. I'm sure all of you have met someone like that. The entire world revolves around them. How sad that is!

Man loses the true treasure of life- love, and compassion. These two qualities alone should be cultivated in your life. These qualities come directly from G_d. So look at your vanity and look at ways in which you are vain.

Look at your baggage. Throw them away. Cultivate love and compassion. They will set you free. Vanity will never bring you closer to G_d. It will bring you further away. A person who is vain lives in a reactive mode. A man full of love and compassion lives in a Proactive mode. He/she is a Co-Creator. So look closely at your vanity and see if it's worthwhile to hold onto,

Learn how to be humble and compassionate. This will lead you out of vanity. You can't go further up the tree if you are vain.

Love the voices of Yesod.

Obsessive Sex

The sexual urge is built into your DNA. This urge is to help continue your species. Yet obsessive sex is not built-in. A person who is obsessive about sex is out of balance.

Man has done numerous actions with sexuality that have brought him/her out of balance. Man has become illogical when it comes to sex.

The sexual act is beautiful and sacred. Yet when man's obsessive nature kicks in man degrades the act. He/she takes something that is sacred and special and degrades it.

Look at all your pornographic material today. Your sex industry is the biggest industry by far on the planet. Your culture is obsessive about sex. Your commercials, TV programs, movies, books, and magazines are full of sex. Sex by itself is sacred and holy.

So how does man overcome this condition? He/she must discover his/her sacredness and wisdom. Your society, in general, has a hard time controlling its sexual nature.

They have no idea of the true power and sacredness. They have lost the capability of being in harmony with nature. Man must learn to be in harmony at all levels. Man has taken something sacred and holy and turned it into something that is perverted. This is your advertising world.

Man's ideas of what is sexy and the creator's idea don't match. Man is coming from a reactive mode. In that state, you have lost your true perspective on life.

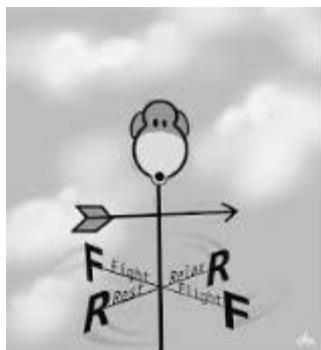

You are not in flow with nature and the universe. Consequently, man lives in his world that is false. You tend to look at people as objects. It is a perverted relationship with yourself and others.

So a man can change his/her ways. Man must discover who he/she truly is and then you will understand these words.

Your advertising world knows that sex sells. Sex is not a commodity. Yet Wall Street and Madison Avenue would question that. So learn to be in harmony with yourself and nature. You will be transformed.

Compulsive

Are you compulsive? When you shop are you a compulsive buyer? Look at all areas in your life where you are compulsive. Stop and ask yourself the next time you get into your car to buy ice cream.

What do you need? Will this truly satisfy you? Do I need this?

Man lives in a reactive mode. Impulsive behavior and compulsive behavior stem from a reactive mode. Man is compulsive about everything from sex to drugs, to work.

What is the cause behind this behavior? Man thinks that by doing these things ultimately he will be happy. All these things are short-term happiness. Yet man's actions are directed outwardly. By looking outwardly man can't find balance.

Compulsiveness is a trick being played by you on you. You are chasing a carrot on a stick. Your dreams and aspirations are so elusive. So what can you do to stop this insane behavior? The first step is to recognize it. Very few individuals stop and look at their behaviors.

Generally, a man spends his entire life without even looking at himself. Man is always on the go. If a man would stop, look, listen and pay attention this planet would be better off.

Many wars have been started because of compulsive behavior. The solution to the problem is to become centered. Become a Co-Creator. Let go of your baggage.

Pay attention. Meditate daily. Dialog with yourself. Forgive yourself. Be compassionate. These are some ways to help you transform into your life.

Remember this is vital to you. Remember to fill your life with things that will bring you your self-discovery. Don't let your negative ego control your life. So take proper action. You can transform.

Follower

Are you always a follower? Do you follow the trends of society? Do you always keep up with the Jones? In your spiritual pursuit do you always follow some Guru or teachers?

Man must learn to stand on his/her own two feet. So much of man receive guidance from someone else besides themselves. A man goes from one teacher to another.

Do you find out your answers to life or do you have someone else figure them out for you? Nobody knows the answers to your own life. Only man himself holds the key to unlocking the mysteries within.

Strive to be independent in your life. If you do you will not be a follower. By following you lose perspective of yourself. A part of you is trying to find out answers outside of yourself.

A true teacher has no followers. A true teacher teaches a man to stand on his/her own two feet. A true teacher provides guidance. Nothing more, nothing less. A true teacher does not need followers to feel complete.

A follower expects the teacher to provide all the answers. A follower looks outside himself/herself for the teacher to provide a sense of discovery about himself.

A follower has given power to his/her teacher. You must be a sovereign being. You must not be dependent on someone else. You must look for all of your answers within.

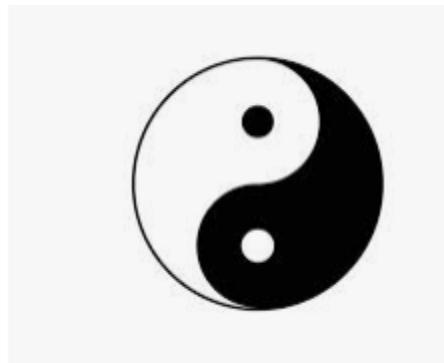

Don't get trapped in the games of teachers and students. A lot of teachers need students and a lot of students need teachers.

Man must build a strong foundation within him/herself. This will set you free. Remember to remain ever so humble and compassionate. A wise man has nothing to hide. A wise man has nothing to prove or disapprove. He simply is.

So learn to build a strong foundation in your life. Learn not to go from one teacher to another. Gather your wisdom from within. This will set you free. Become free of the bondage of a teacher and a student. Learn from others but don't be dependent on them.

Yesod

Life is a grand adventure. You never know quite where you are going. It has its many twists and turns. This month you learned about Yesod.

You learned about a greater sense of independence. True independence means to stand straight and be aligned with the will of

G_d. In other words, your will and the will of G_d are the same. You are a Co_Creator.

You are independent of the whims of this world. How fortunate you are to come this far. You are a minority in society. Keep on striving. You learned about the ebb and flow of life. Everything in the universe contains this flow.

You have the means to comprehend this magnitude. All-natural laws are governed by this.

As you know Yesod planetary aspect is the moon. The moon itself causes the tides to go up and down daily in your life. So pay attention to the Ying/Yang of life. Everything in this universe follows this cycle.

You have been privileged enough to understand this sacred law. It's the law of love. To truly experience this divine love you must be independent of this world. You must not be caught up in life's snares.

You must not be caught up in the web of this world. As you know their weakness of Yesod are vanity, impulsiveness, idleness, obsession, and always being a follower. These negative traits will prevent you from reaching your goal. These are the traps and snares of Yesod. So pay attention.

This month has been given to you a renewal in your emotional welfare. You may or may not have gone through a lot of emotional issues. Keep on cleaning. You are healing your emotional body. You are healing the wounded gull within. What you are doing is not easy but can be done. Understand what a blessing it is when you go through emotional issues. You are healing and transforming your emotional self.

Have you noticed an enhanced perception of your dreams this month? Have you noticed your dreams coming true one by one? By focusing on your dreams every day and by putting effort into accomplishing them your dreams will come true. So pay attention to them.

Pay attention to your dreams when you are asleep. These dreams are a way to release baggage from the past. They may carry messages that you may need to listen to. They may convey proper actions to fulfill a task or to give you warning signs on the highway of life.

Have you noticed your intuition getting stronger this month? Everything in life is an impulse. Intuition is a way to tap into the impulses of life. We are integrated into the impulses of life.

Every time anyone is in the same room your energies tune with each other. Intuition is a means to capture these impulses from the other person and know exactly where they are coming from. You can feel where the person is standing.

It's very subtle. Intuition is a way for you to synch with the freeway of life. Life has a sacred thread and your intuition will help you get in synch with it.

How fortunate you are to know this. Most people's intuition on your planet is not developed at all. They have no idea that they are geniuses. They have simply forgotten.

Each one of us is a spark of life yet we remain in a state of mundane existence. We have forgotten who we are. Isn't it amazing how far you have gone since late November? You have no idea how far you have traveled.

This month you have learned that man's car is idle. Man is so busy with external things. He thinks he is accomplishing a lot. Yet the man's car is still in the driveway. Yesod teaches you to take the car from the park position, reverse yourself and get out of the driveway of a nine to five existence. You are then driving on the freeway of life. This is your true freeway. This is the way to set you free.

Man in his ignorance spends his whole life in his driveway. How sad that is! The entire universe is there for you and man thinks he is going places but he is merely spinning his wheels.

You are on the freeway of life. Your car is in motion. Keep on trucking. You have learned about ArchAngel Gabriel who is the Angel of truth. You have learned about Shaddai El Chai.

You have felt these energies. You all have a dialogue with them whether you were aware or not. These are the grandeur forces in Yesod. The Cherubim are beings of light and glory whose purpose is to help uplift man.

So this is a golden opportunity you have. The world of Yesod is yours. Always cherish the moment. Be truly independent of this world. Reside with your Mother and Father in heaven.

Remember you are not alone in your car on the freeway of life. G_d is in your passenger seat. How incredible that is. You are protected. So what an incredible month this has been. Your journey is just starting. You are on an incredible journey. Your next stop is Hod. We will see you there.

The voices of G_d.

Hod

Welcome to the Temple of Hod. You are on an incredible journey. This Sephora will gain you the vision of truth in your life. So pay attention.

The magical image of Hod is the Aphrodite who is male and female in one body. This occurs in nature with worms. For example, both have male and female sexual organs within them.

They are both male and female.

This ancient archetype symbol will reveal to you that you are also male and female. You must be balanced in life. As you know the Kabbalah has three pillars. You must be balanced in all three pillars.

The hermaphrodite represents the ideal in man. This is the state Man is seeking. You are starting to go from a Man to a Human, in other words, a God-Man or God -Female the true Adam Kadom.

This archetype figure represents the divinity of men and women. This archetype figure is perfectly balanced with positive negative and neutral energy. This is the trinity of life. Brahma Vishnu and Shiva. Father, Son, and the Holy Ghost. Generator, Operator, and Destroyer.

They exist inside of you. Your goal is to be like a hermaphrodite balanced in life. Your mind, body, and soul are in balance. So daily reflect on this archetype. Embrace that symbol into your consciousness. This will help set you free.

The magical gifts are the caduceus and the staff. The caduceus is a staff with two serpents interconnected on the staff with an eagle on top. This is a very magical gift. Hermes use to carry this rod or staff during his time.

According to these ancients, this staff represents the Tree of Life in the human body. Mystics know that there are two nerves the Ida and the Pingala which go up the spinal column in the Sushumna. This is the Kundalini energy. This energy rises from your lower spine up into your crown chakra.

For the Cabbalist the caduceus represents God/man God/woman. Man/Woman travels the Tree of Life. Both the magical image of the hermaphrodite and the caduceus are interwoven together.

They both represent the true state of mankind. In your words the caduceus represents healing. True healings are when both body, and mind, and soul is in harmony.

The Astrology sign is mercury the warrior. We are all spiritual warriors fighting against Injustice in this world. Hermes is a figure from Mercury. There is a flow of energy between these symbols and the gifts. Mercury is in harmony with these aspects of God. It is a physical manifestation of God.

Archangel Michael is the Angel who oversees this Sephroit. Michael is a warrior who fights in the battles of life. His role is to create a balance in this world and to protect man from the darkness.

He is a protector. His aura is of cookies. He has a tremendous love for mankind. He's very present in the affairs of man. The Divine figure is Elohim Tjaloeh. He is the God of wisdom and harmony.

The staff is one of the magical gifts which represent wisdom and harmony. To be full of wisdom you must be in harmony.

The spirits are the Bene Elohim. The Sons and Daughters of the Divine. They transmitted divine consciousness and desires for the divine. Be open to their transmissions this month.

Hod will reveal the vision of truth in our lives. As we are all of the universal truth we must be aware of the breath in our lives. How truthful are you? Do we hide behind falsehood and deceit? Do we gloss over hiding the truth?

During this month pay close attention to where you stand. Look at how truthful you are in all areas of your life. Be honest with yourself. We cannot do this for you.

Be open and frank with yourself. You must be truthful in all areas of your life. To go up the ladder on the tree, you must be truthful with yourself.

Hod contains the knowledge of healing and magic. Hermes was an incredible magician and healer during his times. It's no wonder that our medical community uses the caduceus as a symbol.

So this month be aware that you are ready to receive more healing and magic in your life. Be open to open communication with others. Be an open conduit. Let the information and wisdom flow.

Don't hide behind anything. So this month looks at all areas in your life. How truthful are you? Go over the list and everyone that was in your life.

This is your time to become truthful in all areas of your life. Don't be critical of others. Don't be separate in your relationships with others. You will be changed if you follow these guidelines this month. Our blessings are with you.

Personal message. Be relaxed in any given situation. Be relaxed. Look at the situation from afar. Don't get into it. Reside in your sanctuary.

Message

The magical image of Hod is the Hermaphrodite. This is a very old sacred symbol. This archetype symbol is both male and female in a body. It represents the totality of human life.

The man/woman must be balanced. Man/woman must become the Adam Kadmon, God/Man, God/Women on Earth.

This ancient symbol will start a sequence of events where this will happen in your life. It's like the domino effect. Once one domino is pushed over one by one a series of events get fired off.

So daily concentrate on this symbol. Great things will occur to you if you focus on this. Your Male/Female problems in the world would be solved if you would focus on the Hermaphrodite.

This symbol will take you deeper into meditation and the world of God. A transformation will take place in your life. You will understand how sacred it is to be alive.

You will treat your body more wisely because of your experience. The Hermaphrodite is here to show mankind the way back home. It is here to show you true potential.

It is here to help unlock the mysteries of life. What a golden opportunity you have. You have been shown and revealed a most ancient symbol known to man. Now is the time to focus on it in your life.

The Hermaphrodite will help unlock the DNA codes in your body. It's like a safe with a combination. You never had the right combination. It is now at your disposal. The Hermaphrodite will unlock the DNA within it. It will transform your being. Words can't truly convey the power of this symbol. Experience is at hand. Be reverent with this symbol. You cannot use trickery or deceit.

If your heart and intentions are not pure the safe will not open. Only pure and innocent can open the safe. So, therefore, release your baggage. Look at your intentions. Look at your ego. Purify yourself. Become more humble.

If you follow these suggestions you will see the divine. The veil will be lifted from your eyes. You will truly see. This is the power of one symbol alone.

You can imagine how incredible it is if you embrace the world of Hod. You are a Divine being. You are here to inherit your lost kingdom. The keys are given to you.

You must open the door yourself. This is a practical learning experience. This is not a fairy tale. You are here to have practical experience of Heaven on Earth.

You are to be full of knowledge and wisdom. You were meant to be truly wise. So open up your heart. Be sincere. Be like a child open and innocent. Your life will change forever. Thank you for this time.

The Hermaphrodite.

One of the magical gifts from Hod is the caduceus. Have you any idea of the preciousness of this gift?

Man throughout the ages has been yearning and longing for such a gift. It is now at your fingertips. This is an Incredible Gift.

The caduceus is a staff with two serpents intertwined with each other. With an eagle at the top of the staff. Hermes during his Golden Age used to use this precious staff.

This stuff is used to awaken you from your slumber. Science knows three nerves go from the base of the spine up to the brain. They are the Ida and Pingala and the Sushumna. Imagine the Sushumna is the staff.

The Ida and Pingala intertwine with each other up the spine to the brain. This is called the sleeping giant. The Hindus call this the Kundalini energy.

The object is for the energy to rise over time from the base of the spine and uplift the energy up through all the chakras in the body. This is called enlightenment. This gift helps to set off the necessary chain of events for this to happen.

This staff is very similar to the source of our DNA. This energy works directly with the DNA. It will activate the DNA. As we talked about yesterday the Hermaphrodite is the union of males and females inside a human being.

By concentrating on this archetype symbol sets off a chain of events. This works in conjunction with the caduceus. Both of these will do wonders when used together.

These two alone transformed man. But here's the secret. You must first be truthful to yourself. If you have an ounce of deceit it will hold you back. This is the safety mechanism put in place. This will safeguard the gift. Otherwise, you might have a powermonger using these gifts for evil purposes. So take this gift to the heart. Embrace it. It will set you free.

Another aspect of this gift is that it will balance you on the three pillars of the Tree of Life. This is where true wisdom lies. The other gift is the staff.

This is the staff of life. This staff will show you the foundation of life. This staff is the pillar of wisdom and love. This, as you can see, is not an ordinary staff. It has far more qualities than you ever can imagine.

This staff has been used by the great Mystics of old. Moses, Abraham, Isaiah, and Hermes. They all used this staff. This gift is used for your acceleration purpose.

Once again to fully activate yourself you must be truthful to yourself. As you know a safeguard has been put in place. If you have bad intentions these tools will not work for you. So be open and truthful to yourself.

Tuesday, February 12, 2002

Let's start. Today is the beginning of a new day. Forget about the past and forget about the future. Today you are alive. That is the most important thing.

Daily you must drop all falsehoods in your life. This is where you must come to terms with the truth in your lives. So pay attention. Look at key areas in your life where there is a hint of untruth.

This is where you must start clearing out your garbage. This is a very important thing. Falsehoods and deceits prevent you from the light. They create a veil where you can't see.

This prevents you from becoming who you truly are. So stop and take inventory of your life. Take a good look at yourself. You can change. This is why we are here for you. Only you can initiate change in your life. We are here to help guide you.

Daily embrace the hermaphrodite, the caduceus, and the staff. Take these gifts to your sanctuary and incorporate this into your life. Your life will change.

Call upon Archangel Michael to assist you in this transformation. Michael will provide the necessary tools that you may use to cut through your illusion. But remember you must do the work yourself.

This is very important. Life's mystery can only be solved by you. We can only provide clues in your life. Only you can solve the mystery. What a grand game this is!

The more you open up the more you will see the splendor of all things. You will see the Mysteries of life. You will see that there is another world that exists. You will be transformed.

Our world exists. You just can't see it. We are here to guide you through this transformation. Only you can participate in this grand adventure.

Take a look at the strength of Yesod and embrace them daily in your life. Look at the weaknesses and weed them out. They will make the seed easier to grow. Look at these weaknesses and bring them to your awareness.

Then embrace the light and proclaim to yourself you have no need for them in your life. They served their purpose but now you are embracing a higher purpose. By being a Co-creator you can drop off your baggage. So remember awareness is the key.

As you open up to Hod you will see a greater vision of Truth. You will see the true splendor of this Sephroit. You will see the veils of Illusion and how to cut them free.

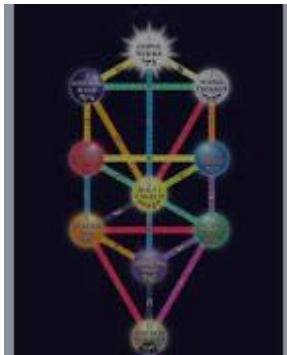

Hod provides you with the secrets of healing and magic. Be open. Life's mysteries will be shown when one has an open heart. Can you imagine how wonderful it is to understand and have the wisdom of the secrets of health and magic? Glorious wonders indeed.

The greater the knowledge you have, the greater the understanding you will have. So embrace the knowledge of Hod and you will have greater prosperity in your life.

I am Elohim Ttzabaoth. I am the Divine force of Hod. I am here to guide you in the wisdom of Hod. We are here to guide you. Now is the time to embrace Hod. You will not be sorry.

The adventure is just beginning. You are blessed indeed. Strive to be a master Cabalistic. All of life's mysteries will be yours. Don't delay. Put your whole mind, body, and soul into this. So my blessings are with you.

Wednesday, February 13, 2002

Welcome to the kingdom of Hod. This is the world of tenderness. This is the world of healing and magic. You will not believe the beauty that exists in this world.

You have come a long way on your journey in life. You are so fortunate to be here. Hod contains Hidden Mysteries that will be revealed to you over time.

Remember this is where you must face the truth in all matters in your life. Let go of falsehood and deceit. This is preventing you from seeing the splendor. We are extremely pleased with your progress.

You have come such a long way since your journey started in December. This is indeed an incredible journey. As you progress up the tree you are learning about the precious attributes of each Sephiroth.

Each world is an incredible expression of God. You're being baptized into God's world. This is true baptism.

You are being shown the secrets of life. You are learning how to be a Co-creator. What a golden opportunity you have. As you know we have a very special relationship with each other. You have my sword blazed into your aura. Never forget that.

You are here for a great mission. This sword is used to fight against darkness and injustice in this world. Stand strong and radiate God's love to the world. You have nothing to prove to anybody. You are on a quest for your journey in life.

You had chosen to come so you may help God on his mission. You came from Spirit and you came into this world. You had to let go of your powers and only have a small candle of light burning in your subconscious.

You and I are representatives of God and yet you are in this physical world. You have always had in the back of your mind that you are a part of God.

You are a servant of God. This is the journey of self-discovery. You are embarking on a journey to discover the secrets of Life. All of your dreams will come true.

Be open to magic and healing in your life. We have been on the same mission for a very long time. You are here to help rekindle the spark inside of a man.

You know there isn't anything to prove to anybody. There's simply a state of being. Radiates God's love. Nothing more nothing less. Love is the key. Judgment is not the answer. But love is the answer.

So go on your way and radiate love. The Kabbalah will teach you and show the true state of man. Embrace this Sephroah.

As you know that in life you have to be patient. Christ planted the seeds into a man's heart over 2000 years ago. Now is the time for the harvest.

You have spent your entire life on a journey of self-discovery. Now is the time to reap your Harvest. You are no better than anyone else. Yet you have tiled your soil for many years. You have taken blood, sweat, and tears along the way.

At times the journey is arduous. At times the journey is smooth. Mankind must learn to walk. He has been in a deep slumber. You have been fortunate to realize at a young age the importance of asking some very important questions in your life.

Most human beings never have the nerve to ask them. They only wake up in life when they are sick or dying on their deathbed. At that moment it is a little late to ask these questions. Better late than never.

So here you are. Congratulations on your journey. It took you over 50 years to begin the path of the Kabbalah. So take this moment to learn. Moment by moment ride the wave of life.

I am always here with you. You and I have worked together for a long time. You know of the hazards. You know that the rules of the game are that you had to forget who you are and your special relationship with God. So you came.

We honor your decision. So we humbly thank you for helping God in his mission to mankind. Always here in love. For we are all love. We have just forgotten.

I love you, Michael. Your friend forever.

The Spirits of Hod is Beni Elohim. They transmit divine consciousness and desire for the divine. To receive this, you must be open and aware.

You have been most fortunate through thick and thin you have held the desire of the Divine.

This is a gift from Hod and Beni Elohim. From the time you were born, you knew that you weren't from this planet. You knew you had forgotten who you were. This puts you in an inner search for where you are today.

You have felt the compulsive of life and received the desire for the Divine. Most of the man think of God on Saturdays or Sundays for an hour only or during times of stress.

You have been graced to have a constant desire to be with God. This desire transformed you. You spent many years meditating on the Divine. The Beni Elohim is responsible for transmitting Divine Consciousness to you. Day by day you have been transformed.

Your body is getting used to these energies. If you were to have the total transmission your body would short-circuit.

So daily receive these impulses of divine consciousness and desire for the divine. They will change your life. These impulses are like radio waves. They are broadcast everywhere.

You must use the radio of the mind to change the channel and tune into these frequencies. The more you tune into the clear signal the clearer it will be. This is a beacon to bring you home. It's like radar.

A pilot can fly through dense fog when flying a plane. He has to rely on his instruments to bring a plane to his destination. Man has to rely on receiving this beacon to find his way home. This is a natural single residing inside of a man. Currently, man cannot see or hear it. He cannot touch, smell, or feel the inner world.

By focusing on the impulse you will be transformed, where the inner world will be just as real as the world we live in. In reality, the inner world is the true world. This material world will someday go away.

When you die everything you own disappears before your eyes. You'll leave this world behind you. Wouldn't it be wise to know where you are going before you die? If you were going to Hawaii from the mainland wouldn't it be wise to first check out why before you move there?

A man rarely sees Heaven before he dies. He is not prepared. He is lost and confused. He can experience Heaven daily in his life. This experience will transform his world. So we cannot emphasize daily to meditate and be open to receiving these blessings.

Your responsibility is to be open and embrace the truth in your life. Be truthful in all areas of your life. Blessings are with you.

We love you

The voices of Beni Elohim.

The foundation in Hold is truth. The foundation of your life is the truth. Truth can only be revealed when you let go of falsehood and deceit.

The vision of Truth is constantly changing. As you let go of falsehoods the signal gets stronger. It's like listening to the radio in a car. At times the reception for a radio station is unclear.

By adjusting the dial you will get better reception. The truth in life is the same. As we embrace truth in our lives our signal will get stronger. We will be able to tune in more clearly. It won't be a faint signal.

It will be loud and clear. So the truth is the way to get a clear signal in yourself. By being in truth your ability to perceive the inner world will get stronger. This is the way to your enlightenment. You have to embrace the truth in your life.

Truth lights up the way for us. It reveals what is real. It is the dispeller of darkness. Truth and light reveal falsehoods and lies. It dissolves the darkness into light.

Darkness is simply the absence of light. When light enters our lives the darkness gets dispelled. It goes away. An enlightened being is full of light. There are no nooks and crannies where darkness exists.

So the goal of Hod is to embrace truth in your life. Clean your temple. Sweep out the cobwebs in your life. Light up your temple. Look at all areas in your life. Let go of falsehood and deceit.

Continue this process. It's an ongoing process. An enlightened being has mastered this process. All areas of his life are filled with truth and light. At this stage, you are a Co-creator. This is the purpose of human life. Your world would change automatically if everybody did this. So truth in your life involves action. It is not passive.

This whole path involves you actively participating. You can't sit on the sidelines in your life. A reactive being sits on the sidelines. A Co-Creator plays the game. He is a Co-creator in life.

So don't sit on the sidelines. Pay attention and be aware. We are here to guide you and protect you. But you must do the work.

Only then will you have a perception of the truth. Day by day the truth will set you free.

Jesus Christ had to take these same steps. This is an essential way of being. These steps are necessary on your path. So be open to truth in your lives. Be in tune and sync with the universal truth. This will light up the way for you.

We love you.

The Voices of Hod

Saturday, February 16, 2002

Greetings. Greetings to all. We are all gathered here today united as one family. We are under one umbrella. Today we are meeting to talk about the necessity of building your bonds stronger.

As you know a chain is as strong as its weakest link. If a chain is going to break this is where it will break. Therefore we are here today to make our chain stronger, day by day. This is very crucial. This is the essence.

Don't think that you have time on your side. You don't. The planet Earth is going through a crucial moment. Mankind is going through an intense moment. There is a battle going on.

This is why you are here. We must all stand together as one force. We are the powers to be. You must be strong in your quest. You must be on your toes. There is a time for laughter.

There is a time for rest. There is a tie for action. Now is the time for action. Now is the time for Humanity to stand up and embrace the light. Now is the time to embrace love. Man has got to stop the bickering that is going on. You have been chosen to embrace these energies. You are the ones to lead the way.

This is a very important time in the history of man. Man is fighting for the light over darkness. We need all the help we can get. Your world is in slumber. You must wake up. Truly love is the answer. Love will pave the way.

There is a battle going on. The majority of mankind is asleep. It's time to wake up. This is not a battle in some foreign countries. This is right in your backyard. Only Love will triumph. Love will set you free. Day-by-day embrace love in your life.

Love will set you free. Learn to become a Co-creator. Man is a reactive being. He lives in a world of darkness. There is a thin veil that exists. Man cannot see. It's time for man to take off his blinders. It might hurt a little.

When you go to a movie and you come out during the day the light blinds you. It takes time for your eyes to adjust.

The same goes for the Inner Light. It takes time to balance love and peace in your life. The more you embrace the light the stronger it is. You realize that this is your true home. The man is wearing blinders. You are here to help man remove his blinders. You are here to shower the world with love and light.

Your world is engulfed in darkness. Your mission is to shift the world from darkness into light. Every one of you has a mission. This mission is to embrace the light and spread it around your world.

Man will begin to wake up from his slumber if you do. This is a very crucial thing. We cannot do it for you. Only mankind can do this. It has to be a man.

We are your coaches. You are the players. You cannot sit on the sidelines any longer. You must take part in the game. You are on one team. The team has coaches and players. It has a general manager. This is where we are united under.

So take up the sword of love and do your duty. Help God to bring this world back home. We love you

Sunday, February 17, 2002

As you let more truth and light in your life you will be shown the areas where falsehood and deception exist. This is a blessing. You must face the darkness and reveal light to the situation.

This way all your nooks and crannies will be full of light.

As you embrace the light you will be able to see falsehood and deception in others. You can use this when dealing with others.

Falsehood and deception are the absence of truth and light. They will never bring anybody any lasting joy and happiness. In the darkness, there exists no truth. Only when light is revealed does darkness go away.

During this month look at all areas in your life where there is falsehood. If there is an area where you can't face the truth there exists falsehood. Pay attention to this area. Forgive yourself or others for what happened. Let bygones be bygones. Don't hold on to the past. Let it go. Learn to live in a Proactive state.

In a Proactive state, you can let go of all falsehood. You can truly embrace the truth and light in your life. Falsehood and deception never did anyone any good.

If you want to go up the tree you must be truthful in all areas of your life. Falsehood and deception are like a negative film. When you embrace the light and truth a beautiful picture is revealed.

So as you are driving on the freeway of light throw away all excess baggage. You don't need any falsehood and deception in your life. It's like going through customs in a foreign country. There are certain items that if you try to bring into the country you cannot enter.

In God's world, there is a customs agent. You cannot enter the kingdom of heaven with falsehood and deceit. You must be like an innocent child. This is the way. Let go of your ego and pride. Let go of I know more than you do.

Let go of judgment. Let go of being critical. Don't try to be always right. Just be a humble servant. In that state, you are truly wise. You have nothing to hide or to prove to anybody. Life is simple and glorious.

So for your sake embrace these principles. You will never regret it.

Love the voices of Hod.

Michael

The more you open up to Hod and you opened up to the truth you will experience an increase in communication at all levels.

Not only will you be able to communicate more clearly but you will be able to have far more open communication with us.

Imagine the internet with a 28k modem. It is extremely slow. It takes a while to download the pages. In this case, it would take weeks or years to download a movie.

Now imagine the fastest line in the world today. You will have instant communication. Your communication with us will be instant and clear. It will seem like we are standing right there with you. In essence, we are.

You will be able to have clearer communication with others. You will know where the person is coming from. You will sense the feelings and emotions of the person.

Increase communication comes from truth. A man who lives in falsehood has a thin line of communication. He is working at a survival level. Words are trivial. They try to manipulate and change others. They can hardly communicate with themselves and others. The conversation at this level is extremely limited.

True communication is faster than the speed of light. It is an open clear channel with no obstructions in the way.

As you open up communication between the Mind, Body, and Soul it will become more clear.

Your body will become healthier. Chaos is when communication from your DNA goes astray. This is caused in part to your lifestyle, emotions, and environment.

Through increased communication, you will follow the basic laws of nature. You will learn how to heal the body and mind. This will allow you to talk directly with your Guides, Archangels, Ascended Masters, and all beings who are here to help and assist you.

You will have an open line of connection. You will develop an inner sense to a higher level where you will be able to receive and send messages back and forth. Your Consciousness will expand. Your goal is to have communications open at all levels.

You have no idea of the kind of communication you can have. You are hardwired for this experience. You can bring Heaven down to earth. This is the way for mankind. So totally and embrace Hod. Embrace the truth. Allow for greater communication to come through you.

Be open and be like a child. You will have an incredible journey if you do. Blessings to you.

Michael

Magic is the art of creating something out of nothing. A true magician is extremely rare. In your world most magicians are illusionists.

They don't produce true magic. It is nothing more than the shift of hands. They are good at illusion-based magic. It is nothing except a trick. They produce a series of events that caused you to believe. Yet it is nothing but a trick.

Yet there exists a science of true magic. Science is behind all things in creation. It is the power of love that creates the entire universe. This is true magic the power of creation.

Man can be Co-creators of God. Man's true dreams can manifest. This is true magic when you take the dream of God and the dream of man and merge them. This is the art of creating.

This is how dreams happen. We think pulling a bunny out of a hat is magic. How about the power of love that created the bunny? Man can tap into this love. This is true magic. Man is truly a co-creator of God.

We have simply forgotten. We have been saying that man is in slumber. Man has no idea of who he is. The majority of man thinks this is all nonsense and hocus pocus. He doesn't know that he is hard-wired for this experience. So man remains asleep.

There are people on your planet who are waking up. They realize that this body is a temple of God. They see the true magic of Life. They understand the miracle of being alive. They know that they are Co-creators of God and are seeking that. T his is true magic. Christ and others before him planted seeds in the hearts long ago. Today we are seeing the fruits from those seeds. This is true magic when a man wakes up. We all have a special gift to offer this world.

True magic is when we dream of gifts and we offer this gift to the world. This is when the world will truly change. So true magic is around you, yet man is blind.

Your scientists are beginning to see the magic of nature. The purpose of life and magic is to reveal to you the secret of life itself. It's to bring you back home. It's once again rediscovering oneness with God.

You are all Co-creators but have forgotten it. It's time to wake up from the spell that was put on you. This spell puts man in a space where he thinks he knows it all. Where in reality he doesn't know anything. He has built sandcastles in the sand.

The tides come in and tear down the sandcastles. A man comes into this world and dies before knowing the truth. This happens generation after generation.

Yet a wise man understands that he has the secret of life inside of him. He found the precious diamond while he is alive. This is true magic.

When he realizes his true nature he realized that he is a healer. When a man is in harmony with his mind, body, and soul disease will no longer exist. Where does disease come from?

The disease occurs when the mind, body, and soul are not in harmony. Extreme stress will manifest in illness. illness is not being in harmony. Stress creates the majority of illnesses in your life.

One who has an unhealthy lifestyle due to the foods that he eats aids in the deterioration of man's health. Man must discover that his body is a temple of God. When a man has this realization he will soon realize the key to Inner health.

The man then begins to see that he has created a mess in his life. There are basic laws in nature and man breaks all of them. No wonder disease runs rampant in your Society.

Your Western world is becoming aware that your medical commercials work on the basis that medicine acts upon the symptoms, not the cause. It will take away the pain but not go to the source. So they are looking at ways to overcome this.

Man is a natural healer but has forgotten. So over time, you can regain your long last abilities. This is your gift from God. This Sephroih helps you in obtaining this gift.

We love you.

Today let's talk about another strength in Hod. This is of greater prosperity through knowledge. Talking about money is a touchy subject.

Money is an area in your life that is a hidden subject. For the majority of the spiritual-minded people on your planet money is scarce.

They somehow have the idea to be spiritual one must sacrifice. You must have no money or possessions. Nothing could be further from the truth. Are you a co-creator?

As a co-creator, you can create anything you want if it's in alignment with God's will. If it isn't it won't be in alignment with God and you won't be truly happy.

So many of the rich people on your planet have riches yet they aren't truly happy. A rich man is rich at heart. You can be completely in alignment with God and be truly abundant. This is your birthright. True abundance is yours.

Man does not have to live in poverty consciousness to be spiritual. Hod's strength is greater abundance through increase knowledge. If you look at your present situation how much knowledge do you have of your financial world? Do you know anything about it?

Did you know that if you invested $500 a year when you're 18 and do this until you retired you will have easily over $1000000? This is the phenomenon of compound interest. This is a proactive way to increase your wealth.

This is the power of a long-term investment. This is practical. Increased knowledge will assist you.

The more you are in harmony with your creator the more you will understand the flow of life. In Yesod, you were introduced to the tides of life. This understanding can be brought personally to your life.

You will understand the patterns of life. You will see the flow in this world. You will understand the tides of your financial markets.

The more you let go of your baggage the more you will see that life is truly abundant. Life is a miracle. Take off the blinders. You will gain much wisdom that way.

Wisdom is the key to prosperity. By gaining wisdom that you are not a reactive being but a co-creator of God, your understanding of your life will change. You will see that life is ever abundant.

There is no lack of life. Man creates scarcity in his life. You limit what you can or cannot have. Your limiting beliefs create your reality.

You must be truthful in all areas of your life. Take a good look at how you treat and feel about money. Are you always worried about it? Do you have a hard time paying your bills?

It's good to be practical in this world. Develop your inner prosperity and God's prosperity side by side. You must be wise and practical.

Don't expect to obtain prosperity overnight. It could happen. Live in true love and joy. Live like you don't have a care or worry about this world. Learn to live in God's world.

This will truly set you free. You must learn to be a Co-creator. Dedicate your life to increasing your knowledge of this world. Be practical and gain knowledge. Wisdom is understanding the laws of nature.

Since you are a Co-creator you can create anything you like as long it is in harmony with God. It's your decision.

Blessings to you

Hod will open you up to enhanced educational and scientific endeavors. What do we mean by this?

The more wisdom you open up to the more secrets of the universe is revealed.

Everything in the universe is recorded. All past, present, and future events are recorded. Imagine a huge hard disk that contains information about the universe.

If you know what track and sector to go to you will obtain information on any subject matter. You would perceive many inventions. Your understanding of science would increase.

Where do scientific discoveries come from? Einstein received a lot of his theory through his dreams. Knowledge can come from your dreams, through a vision, thought, or intention.

There are many different ways to tap in. The secret of life is yours. Isn't it amazing that a Taoist 2,000 years ago spoke about things that modern-day scientists speak about today?

You have a hard time knowing what the scientist said and what the Taoist said. The Taoist uses the first-hand experience of the true nature of all. Scientist uses telescopes and satellites.

This is the information age. Can you imagine how incredible it would be if you open up the doors to true wisdom? You would solve the majority of problems known to man. Hod allows us to tap directly into this information.

How incredible this is. Hod will lead Humanity to a greater scientific level and scientific discoveries. The world would then be true light. We would build transportation devices based on light. You could with proper knowledge travel anywhere in the universe in less than a second.

Your education system would change. Your present-day system awards children who have short-term memory with good grades. You ignore those kids who are dreamers, artists, or those with long-term memory.

A person who crams for a test will soon forget the material. It will be gone by the next day or so. This is not wisdom or knowledge. This is very similar to a parrot reciting phrases.

Mankind must discover conscious education. True learning is getting wisdom from the universe. A student who has the opportunity to learn in this way will never get bored. He would have a yearning to learn. The present-day educational system is in shambles.

Most of the year kids are not motivated. Man has lost the ability to teach from the heart. Everything comes right out of the book. Do we teach our children to become original thinkers or do we encourage them to accept the facts?

Hod opens you up to a greater place of learning. True learning is an incredible experience. Day by day you will learn and grow in your life. Everything is expanding. Hod will reveal to you the true secrets of Life.

Friday, February 22, 2002

The deepest level of Hod is truth in our lives and the truth of our lives. What do we mean by this? The essence of Truth dispels the darkness. In absolute truth lies no Darkness.

There is only light. This is the true essence of Hod. When one embraces absolute light the darkness goes away. It's like a sunrise.

The light cast away the darkness. By embracing the light the darkness goes away. This is enlightenment. An enlightened being has embraced truth in their lives. There is no extra baggage wearing them down.

All the nooks and crannies of their life are clean. This is where man transforms himself. The human body is built as a temple of God. It is hardwired like a Christmas tree.

Because of our density, our bodies are not lit up. It's like the body has an incredible engine yet man hasn't even started the engines. We have no idea that the engines even exist. Messengers from God have told Man that this is a temple of God.

When we embrace truth like the Buddha man sees the truth behind all things. It's like the human body contains the Sun and with the flip of a switch, the Sun gets activated. In this state, a man realizes that we are Co-creators.

This is a state that is beyond words. It is truly self-realization. This is what it means when we see the truth in our lives. Man becomes Adam Kadman otherwise known as the Divine Man. This is our true State. This is where we are going.

So Hod at its deepest level reveals this state. It also reveals the truth of our lives. It reveals the baggage that we may be caring about. To let something go, you must be willing to know that it even exists. A lot of times man thinks he has no baggage where in actuality there are tons more. We must be willing and open to go to the depths of ourselves and open up the windows and clean the air. This is no easy feat. By embracing truth and beauty and by being humble this can happen.

Humility and truth go hand-in-hand. The arrogant think they know the truth yet they still wear blinders over their eyes. The only way the blinders can be taken off is when a person is humble and embraces truth and there are no lies.

We all hear about you must be like a child. You must have the innocence of a child. We were born with these qualities yet over time a veil was created. The deepest vision of the truth of our Lives will help remove the darkness.

This will transform man. How incredible it is that you have the same opportunity. You are being revealed this secret. Life is an incredible experience. Rejoice that you have been given this opportunity.

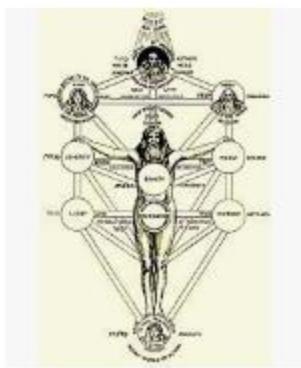

So let go and enjoy the ride. Trust in yourself and God. Be open to accepting the truth in your life. Make this practical. This is not a theory. This is something you must do.

This is a living tree. As a living tree, you must take care of it. This is the sacredness of life. You are being shown life's mysteries. How incredible it is that you are being revealed to the Tree of Life.

So embrace the truth and go on your way. Be humble and be a servant of God. Be a representative of God. You are going home

Adam Kadmon" – The T...

Today is a new beginning for mankind. Today marks the time when the energies will come down to earth where a man can truly transform.

This is the transformation from human to Adam Kadmon. These energies are sacred and holy. They will help to unlock the secret codes. These energies are designed to open up the safe and reveal the true gift inside.

These events will begin to change the consciousness of man. As Humanity starts to wake up from this slumber it will be to alter the consciousness of man.

The veil will slowly begin to be lifted. With a shift of new energy, men will begin to sense the shift of something in their lives. They can't quite pinpoint it. Yet they know something has happened.

It's like there has always been a homing device in man that can lead him home. Yet in the next few years, man will begin to sense the signal. This is very important.

So these events will help facilitate bringing a new awareness to this planet. A ray of hope will begin to manifest on your planet.

The seeds were planted long ago. They have been dormant. These events will provide water and light so they will begin to grow. Seeds can be dormant for thousands of years.

With proper conditions, they will be able to germinate and grow. Humankind is going through this same process. The goal is to wake up. So today marks the new beginning of man.

It begins with a whisper. Water is very gentle yet it can produce a wave of change on your planet. So how fortunate you are to participate in this auspicious event. Your life will be changed forever. You are the ones who will usher in the new era of man.

We are extremely pleased. It takes all of us to work in harmony to achieve this goal. So welcome. Listen to your heart and you will flourish. Let your lives be in service to Mankind. We love you.

The Hierarchy of light.

Sunday, February 24, 2002

Patience is one of its main strengths of Hod. For anything to grow, you must have patience. When you plant a seed in the ground before you even plant the seed you must till the soil.

You get rid of the weeds and rocks in the soil. After you prepare the soil and plant seeds you must have patience.

All of the ingredients are there, the seeds, water, soil, and air. Yet it doesn't manifest overnight. You must have the patience to get the fruit. If day by day you pick up the seeds and roots you will never see the fruit. Patience is one of those missing ingredients in life.

You live in a world of instant gratification. You put your $0.50 in a soda machine and out pop the soda. Yet the true gifts from God require patience. It's like making soup. Making a bowl of soup does not take a few seconds. The best soup is when you cook it slowly for a long period. All of the flavors come out.

Yet man is impatient. Man wants instant results. We don't want to pay the price. If you want to be a good athlete you must practice, practice, and practice. You don't achieve a high level of expertise overnight. It takes time and patience.

If you want to reach the level of God you must have patience. Realize this is a step-by-step process. Patience is the key to life. It is one of its key values of Hod. So many people give up just inches from their goal. They become impatient. How sad that is. You can have whatever you want in life if you will acquire patience.

The whole universe is patient. Christ came and planted seeds into Humanity over 2,000 years ago. Today we are seeing the results of the harvest. Christ had total patience and trust. Man tries a few rituals in life and when he doesn't see instant results they give up.

True gifts in life come from patience. It is the wisdom and knowledge that things have their timetable. We must adjust our inner clock to God's timetable.

We must do our part and perform actions yet be patient. The Gift of Life comes on its terms and time.

God has the most patience. Some of his creations take billions of years. We have to have that kind of patience to truly master life. We must have the patience of God. Man's patience doesn't last long. God's patience is infinite.

To truly achieve our dreams, we must transform from the patience of man into the patience of God. We must rejoice in the day-to-day walk of life. Each step, every moment is precious. We must never forget that. Each part of the journey is precious.

When we are impatient we lose the beauty of life. We are reactive beings. We think that life is hard and strenuous.

A patient being has total trust in God. He knows that life is precious. He knows everything in life comes into its own timetable.

A man who understands the tides of life and the universe is patient. He knows the secrets of life.

This journey of life is mysterious sacred and down-to-earth. Learn to appreciate the moment. Learn to love the moment. Whatever comes your way embrace it. Don't hold onto the past or future. Remember patience is the key.

Monday, February 25, 2002

Today let's talk about practicality. This is one of its major strengths of Hod. Many of your spiritual people live their lives in the clouds.

They have no sense of practicality. Consequently, they are not in tune with true abundance and the affairs of the world. Hod teaches you to be grounded.

It teaches that heaven is a state of mind. Running away from your worldly responsibilities is not the answer. For a man to achieve the state of Godhood, we must be firmly planted on the ground and extremely practical.

This world we live in is not here to run away. It's here to embrace. We are here to learn how to be practical. We are here at the same time to praise God. This is the highest state man can attain.

This state is connected to the source and at the same time, your actions are totally practical. Life is fully grounded in your body.

Many people use to think that the goal was to get out of your body and merge with God. The Kabbalah teaches you that the goal is to bring heaven down to Earth. In other words, be in this world but not of this world. Be practical.

Don't be afraid of working or paying your bills. Embrace life. Don't be spaced out. Have your feet firmly on the ground. Gather wisdom and knowledge from within and without.

Develop common sense, which is uncommon. Be alert to what's going on in the world. Don't live your life in a vacuum. Do your duties and pay your taxes.

Being practical means being responsible for your actions. You are not hiding from this world. You live in this world yet your energies are integrated with God. You become a God/Man.

This is the goal. The Kabbalah teaches you not to be a monk who renounces the world. You don't have to move to a mountain top. You don't have to move to a cave. Live in this world.

This is how we change this world. We embrace it. We integrate the great energies of God and are aware of them. Our feet are planted firmly on the ground. Can you imagine how incredible that is?

You are the sun, moon, and stars yet you are in this human body. At the same time, you are practical. You are not a recluse. You are an example among men. You are extremely wise and practical. This is what the Kabbalah teaches you.

This may seem like a new concept for you but this was planted years ago. You were created for this. Your aim in life is to bring Heaven to Earth not Earth to Heaven.

To do this, you must live your life in the ways of the world. Don't shy away from worldly responsibilities. A practical man knows how this world works and gathers knowledge from it. He understands the ebb and flow of life.

True abundance is there. They understand the financial markets. They understand the affairs of the world. They understand the current affairs of the world. They are well-read.

They keep their bodies in good shape. They eat good wholesome food. They are not fanatical about anything. They can see the forest from the trees. They don't run from one job to another. Their life is stable. They have mastered the affairs of the world.

So once again this is a key component. If you have a recipe for a cake and it says to use flour you can't substitute anything for it. You must use flour. In the same way, the recipe of God says you must be practical. Your feet must be firmly planted on the ground. This is the way. This is built into your DNA.

Your body was designed for this. The blueprints were made a long time ago.
Practicality is the key ingredient in life.

The voices of Hod

Knowledge another strength for Hod. Knowledge is the true wisdom of discovering who you are.

Knowledge means to know and to be aware. Man is transforming his consciousness from outwardly to inwardly.

True knowledge is to discover oneself. This is the goal of life. Man must understand and experience the secrets of life. There is a diamond hidden in man. He knows that it exists yet man looks for it outwardly in their lives.

The wise man finds the diamond within. This is knowledge. A man may gather information from around the world but true knowledge comes from the experience of going within.

From the depths of your soul lies true knowledge. True knowledge cannot be spoken but it can be experienced. Behind the sun, moon, stars, and the Universe lies this sacred knowledge. I t's keeping you alive. What is the power behind your breath? When you know that you will experience knowledge in your life.

The goal of human life is to discover the true essence of self-realization. This is true wisdom. This knowledge will reveal to you the secrets of life.

How does a man acquire this knowledge? By going within. Hod will help facilitate you in acquiring this knowledge. This knowledge will help you in understanding the true secrets of life. Life has meaning and purpose.

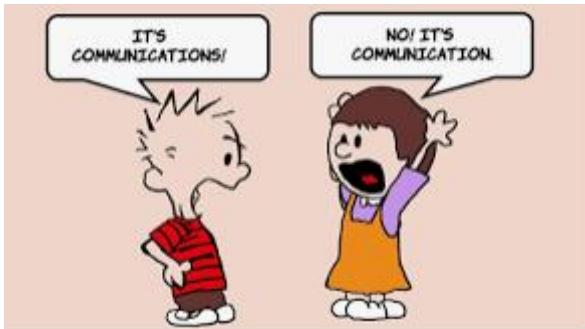

Knowledge will unlock the door to your life. Once you open the door you will see and experience life's greatest mysteries. The whole universe lies within. It's up to you.

By going within you will be on this Incredible Journey. The more you go inward, the further you will see. This is the greatest journey, man can embark on.

This is the reason why you are alive. Hod is there to remind you of this process. It is here to open up your doors so you may walk in. These words are reflections upon the water. You must drink water. You must be absorbed in the waters of life. This is knowledge.

The Kabbalah is revealed to you so you may know this knowledge. It does not come from a book yet it comes from your soul. Open up your heart. Be innocent like a child and you will see true knowledge manifest in your life. This is knowledge.

Wednesday, February 27, 2002

Communication is one of its major strengths of Hod. Your ability to communicate will be more direct, streamlined, and with less effort.

results in your ability to communicate.

By gathering the strength of this Sephora you will see amazing

You will be able to have not only better communication in your world but you will also have better communication in our world. You will be able to communicate over time with any Archangel, Guides, and Ascended Masters to assist you in your work.

There here as advisers. Man, in general, has lost the ability to truly communicate. Because man lives in a reactive mode communication is based on cause and effect.

Rarely does man step outside the box and experience true communication. Man's true state is to be a Co-creator with God. This is the ultimate state. In this state man truly has divine communication.

Man can communicate clearly with Divine beings. This is the goal of Man. By not being aware, man has lost this ability to know who they truly are. Consequently, man has a limited sense of communication. This is the way.

For Cabalistic this communication can be obtained in Hod by being aware of this quality. Embrace it and hold it dearly to your heart. You are holding a key. With this key, you can open the doors of communications.

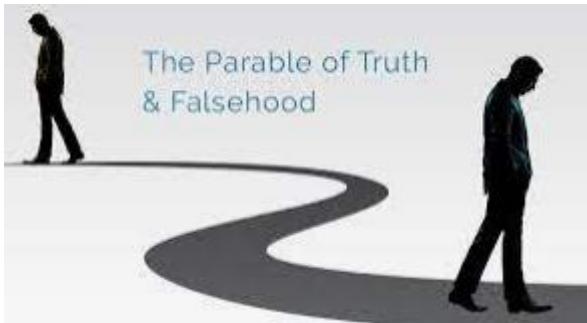

Thereby you will be able to communicate with any beings in any dimension. This is your birthright. So open up your door. Embrace it. Stop look and listen in your life. Be like a wise child open, free, and innocent. Don't be a know-it-all. Clear out all your baggage and emotions which don't serve you.

The more you let go the more you will be able to wake up. The more you wake up the better your communication.

This cycle will get stronger and stronger for eternity. Communication is one of the keys.

In your world, you will have more open and direct communication with people that you interact with. Your communication will be more streamlined and open. You will be honest and not hide behind the bush.

Thursday, February 28, 2002

Truth is the foundation of God's world. Falsehood is the foundation of darkness. By concentrating and embracing truth in your life you will be set free.

The truth will show you the way out of the darkness. It will light up your path. You will become illuminated. Always speak the truth.

By opening up to the truth you will experience the secrets of the universe. You will see the truth behind all things. All Cabalistic in the past embraced the truth. They had to let go of all their baggage.

One ounce of falsehood will prevent you from reaching your goal. Therefore day by day embraces the truth in your life. Always come from truth. Speak the truth. Drop all falsehoods in your life.

The transformation from man to Human comes by embracing the truth in your life. A reactive being stands between truth and falsehood. A proactive being foundation is a truth. A proactive being lives in God's world.

The goal is to look in all areas of your life where falsehood exists. Shine the light on the matter and see the falsehood disappear. This is illumination. All dark aspects of yourself are brought to the light.

So this is the world of Hod. The truth will allow you to see the splendor of all things. You will be able to see the unity of all things.

Christ said the truth shall set you free. Just this one strength in Hod alone will set you free. This is the foundation of God and Light. How fortunate you are to be able to embrace this divine quality.

The world desperately needs truth. Your world is ruled through falsehood. It is ruled by reactive beings. The world will slowly start changing when a man embraces truth in their lives. When man releases falsehood in their lives the truth will dispel darkness. So hold on to God's hand as it will be set free. A man holds onto falsehood and darkness. That time is now to change. You have the golden opportunity to change. The decision is up to you.

Love the Voices of Hod

Friday, February 29, 2002

One of its weaknesses of Hod is deceit. If a person is not truthful with himself or others or with God he is deceiving himself.

You are creating great harm to yourself. You are adding more baggage to yourself. The Light within becomes dimmer.

Man thinks they can hide and be deceitful towards others without suffering any consequences. Yet nothing truly gets hidden. Everything is out in the open. You are an open book.

Man thinks he can act this way. When you are deceitful you know it. You think you can get your way by manipulating the situation. But you are the one who misses out. You are the one who will experience the pain. You are the one who will get tangled in the web.

You are the one who will get lost. You are the one who will feel separation from God.

So the question is. Is it worth it? What do you get from this? True for one second you will get a glimpse of revenge and satisfaction. The light goes dimmer in your being.

Another layer of darkness is manifested. Over time there will hardly even be a spark left. You will feel separate from yourself and God.

Man has wandered for a long time because he doesn't understand the laws of life. Man thinks he can escape these laws. Nobody can escape the laws.

The reason an Angel is an Angel. is that an angel who lives by the laws of God? Man thinks he can break the laws with no repercussions. Yet this is not so. Every action you do there is a karmic reaction. You cannot hide. Our advice is to embrace truth in your life. The truth shall set you free Man thinks that he is free. Yes, golden chains are binding you. Man thinks that these chains are gold so they must be worth a lot. Yeah, they are preventing you from breaking the chains.

Deceit creates more chains. The chain is worth a lot of money yet you are the one who has lost the way. You have forgotten who you are. You are lost and don't even know it.

Man thinks that a man of virtue is weak. Your society has painted the wrong picture in life. A man of God in your society is not revered. A movie star or rock star is the desired man.

Because society is deceitful your values in life are mixed up. What you need you don't want. What you want you don't need. This is the way for man on your planet.

So if you want to be free you must embrace truth. This is the key. By being deceitful you are harming yourself and not even knowing it. You think you can get away with it.

For a short time, you've had but eventually, it will catch up with you. This is the law. So this is the truth that you must decide for yourself. Truth or deceit. That decision is yours.

The council of Love and Michael

Saturday, March 2, 2002

Today is an auspicious day. This past week has been an incredible time for your planet.

The activation that happened last weekend caused a huge series of events in human consciousness.

The seeds that were planted thousands of yours were given the code of love and light which will begin the germination process. Man will transform over time to be a divine human on earth. There are no secrets.

This is available for all. Time is of the essence. Great work has been done on Earth. We are extremely happy. An event like this hasn't taken place for thousands of years.

Now is the time for all of us to be united under the umbrella of love. We must all join together. There must be no differences. Set your ego aside. This is the service of the Lord. Let go of all petty issues.

Today is a brand new day. This activation will begin the process of divine transformation. The safe has been opened. It's up to you to receive all of the gifts. It's time for you to praise God.

You are a Co-creator. Now is the time to recognize it. This activation was here to help open up your ability to be in alignment with God. We are all humble servants of God.

This is no joking matter. Yet we are filled with light and joy. Now is the time to fully embrace the activation and watch the divine process. That time is now to let go of your baggage.

This activation will take away the darkness. Shine the Light within and clean your house. Your primary mission is to first clean your own house and at the same time be a representative of the people on Earth. You are the one to showcase your light to the world

So come together under the umbrella of Love. Each one of us has a particular mission to perform. We are all here to serve the hierarchy of life to fulfill our Heavenly father's dream of peace on earth.

The years coming will be extremely important in the history of man. The battle has started. Will light or darkness prevail? We must all stand together under our Father and be humble servants of God.

We must all be Co-creators of God. This activation will assist you in remembering why you are here on Earth. What is your mission? What is your purpose in life?

Blessings to all Sanat Kumara

The above was Sanat Kumara giving a discourse at a council meeting today Christ

I watched it this week with much interest. Over 2000 years ago I planted the seeds in man's heart and due to the conditions back then the majority lie dormant. These same seeds are beginning to be activated today.

it's wonderful to see our Father's works manifesting. How patient is the Creator? We have been blessed with the opportunity to serve. What an incredible blessing we have to receive guidance from our Father. We have all been chosen to serve the Almighty.

As you know great turmoil and havoc are on your planet. We are here to help accomplish the mission of our Father.

We must love and respect all of life. We are here to be representative of love. Words cannot explain the significance of last weekend. The door has been open. Now you must walk in. You must make a choice. In the name of our Father, I love you. Always behold your creator in your heart.

Jesus Christ

Sunday, March 3, 2002

One of the negative traits that you want to watch out for is impatience. Impatience is what keeps you from reaching your goal.

So many times in life man has journeyed to the point where he is only inches away from the goal. Yet due to impatience man gives up. You have traveled so far and yet due to impatience you will give up only inches away from your goal.

This has happened so many times in life. The darkness knows you are about ready to achieve your goal and will manifest impatience to stop you from reaching your goal.

This is why it's so critical to embrace patience in your life. God has the ultimate patience. Can you imagine Christ planted seeds into man 2000 years ago and had to wait until now to see the harvest? This is patience.

Patience is the ultimate faith. All of creation goes through the four worlds of creation. An idea, thought, blueprint, and action. Each step along the way requires patience.

Most important of all is the action step. We must be Co-creators to acquire true patience. A reactive being is impatient. We live in a society where you put in your 50 cents and coke comes out. We want instant results. Creation doesn't work that way.

Every aspect of creation comes under its timetable. It may be an instant, a second, minute, hours, days, years, or Millennia. It may take an eternity. This is the law.

You must acquire the patience to manifest your dreams. To be a co-creator, you must have this trait. Unfortunately, man does not have this trait. So during this time with Hod completely embrace the quality of patience in your life. This is critical. Do not allow darkness to take over.

So just imagine you are baking a cake. You go step by step in the recipe. Everything is mixed properly. All steps are taken. The last step is to put the cake in the oven at 325 for 45 minutes.

The oven is already at the right temperature. Now, what happens when you take out the cake at the half-hour mark? The cake is not done. It still needs more time to cook.

This is what happens to us in life. We are master bakers but due to our impatience, our baked goods do not turn out right. This is the problem of man. All of our dreams have an internal timer set by God.

All we have to do is wait for the timer to go off and the cake will be done. All of creation works like this. These are some very fundamental laws. So embrace patience in your life. Let's the impatience go. It does not serve you.

Tuesday, March 5, 2002

One thing to watch out for it is being over-critical. This is a weakness in Hod.

It's good to be critical in your life. It must be balanced. But being over critical you are forcing your problems to someone else. This journey of life is quite an adventure.

Don't be too hard on yourself. You must watch yourself. Even Gods and Goddesses learn on this journey of life. There will always be something to improve on in your life

Furthermore don't try to be over-critical of yourself. If you do this it will lead to frustration in your life. You can always improve in Hod.

Don't be overly critical. Take a look at yourself and where you are critical replace it with compassion. The main thing is always to do your best. Do what you can. Don't be too hard on yourself and others. The main thing is day by day, make the effort. This will set you free.

The time to be separate is over. Man must learn how to unite with each other under the umbrella of love. A weakness in Hod is separation.

The majority of your wars and conflicts have been started over a separation. Man over the ages has seen the differences in each other, not the common thread, which ties us all together.

At this moment man must see the beauty in all and unite with each other. As you know this Sephroit is about truth. We must unite under the umbrella of truth and see the unity of all.

By doing so we will not be separated in any shape way or form. We can once again see our divinity.

So welcome to the kingdom of Hod. You have gone through a lot this month. This month you have learned how to face the truth inside of yourself.

You have learned how important it is to embrace the truth in your lives. What a golden opportunity. The truth shall set you free. You have learned how the truth will reveal all falsehood inside of yourself. So this month is a time to let go.

This month you were introduced to the magical image of the Hermaphrodite. This represents a part of your divinity. Embrace this symbol in your life. This will help you acquire all your strengths.

This is a very powerful archetype symbol. Remember to embrace the two gifts of the staff and the caduceus. These two gifts attain the true gifts behind Yesod.

You have been introduced to Elohim Tazabeth, Michael, and the Bene Elohim. Be sure you become more familiar with them. These are actual beings that you should get acquainted with.

You have learned how to be patient in your life. The seed grows according to its own will. You must have sunshine and water to grow. Patience must be incorporated into yourself.

If you don't have patience in your life pray that you may. Try to absorb the qualities of patience. This is not a theory but a practical experience. This is a world within a world.

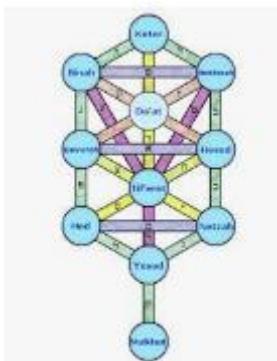

Be aware that one of its qualities of Hod is practicality. This means to bring down all the wisdom and make it practical in your daily life. You are bringing the energies of heaven down to the earth.

As the axiom says “as above so below” you must learn to truly understand this principle. If you do this your life will be truly holy and divine. Your life will be transformed. So once again embrace practicality in your life.

The more you embrace Hod you will see greater prosperity through increased knowledge. Your ability to perceive knowledge will be greater.

Consequently, this knowledge will lead to greater prosperity. Your knowledge will be in greater abundance. So once again embrace these principles. They will lead you up the tree of knowledge.

Welcome to the Sephiroth of Netzach. This is the Sephiroth of beauty. This is where true beauty lies. This is a beauty much more than skin deep. This is beauty where beauty comes from.

Your soul recognizes this true beauty but your minds have been jaded by living as reactive beings. Netzach will help restore the inner beauty within.

The beauty is there yet a thin film is covering the mirror so you can't see your true beauty. The archetype symbol is a beautiful naked sensual woman.

The universe is beautiful, naked, and sensual. This beauty and sensuality are not like the beauty and sensuality portrayed by Madison Avenue. The Universe is absolutely pure. It is open and exposed. It is not closed and perverted.

On your planet sex has been transformed from something sacred and holy to something that can be bought and sold.

Your human bodies are the temples of God. This is a place where you can worship your father. Daily focus on this. You will unlock the key to this Sephoit in your consciousness.

The magical gifts are roses, wildflowers, and seashells. The rose has always opened up the hearts of humankind. The rose rises from its thorns and develops into an incredible flower full of beauty and fragrance.

The rose will show your inner beauty and the beautiful fragrance that lies within. You will begin to see God in all things. You will see the true beauty behind all things.

Everyone is a rose yet we throw this precious flower to the ground. True beauty lies inside of us. You can only see the true beauty of nature to the level that you can see the true level inside of yourself.

The wildflowers will show you that in essence, you are wild and free. You are infinite. You are free and eternal. Nothing can stop you. Your spirit was and will always be.

You are wild beyond your imagination. Sometimes as humans, you have felt trapped by the constraints of this world. You are carrying the world on your shoulders.

The wildflower will reveal to you and help lift off this unnecessary burden. You are wild, divine, and sensual.

The seashells are another gift. Imagine a sea of love and joy. This sea created all things known to man. The sun, the moon, and the stars. The entire universe was created by this sea.

Imagine that the Creator himself is giving you this precious gift. You are receiving a gift directly from the source of love. Look at the beauty of this seashell.

How wondrous it is. Now imagine that you are this seashell. You are this gift. You are a gift from God

The divine force is Jehovah Tzabaoth the God of hosts. He will guide you into the proper expression of emotions. He will reveal to you your true nature. He will help you to become a true co-creator.

The Archangel for Netzack is Haniel. She is the angel of love and harmony. She is here to show you your true love and harmony, your artistic endeavors, and your creative abilities.

She will help assist you in this matter. Everyone is a Creator and has some artistic abilities.

Netzach will help reveal to you the understanding of relationships. You will see the sacred and beauty behind all things. Your relationships will be stronger. You will begin to understand and see true love.

You will start to become an unselfish being. Netzach will help you to open up to mystic and creative Inspirations. You will begin to sense the fairies and elves in your life.

Netzach also exposed your weaknesses in life. It will expose your fits of negative emotions. Your worry, envy, and lust will be exposed. All your impurities will begin to surface. The object is to let go of those weaknesses

Once again welcome to Netzach. You are on an Incredible Journey.

The archetype for this Sephora is the beautiful sensual naked woman. She represents in all of us our divine nature.

Unfortunately for the majority of men, they have lost their true nature. This woman is like the universe naked, open, and receptive.

She contains all beauty. From the depths of her soul resides this beauty. She is sensual and not afraid of it. She is wild and free yet extremely down-to-earth.

By concentrating on this image it will help you to unlock these qualities inside of yourself. We need to unlock our true nature. We need to be free like the wind. Man lives in such a repressed state.

Netzach will reveal to you all acquired traits from this beautiful, sensual, naked woman. We need to be open to our inner beauty. We need to learn how to stand naked in the world and not feel ashamed of ourselves.

Concentrate on this woman. It exists inside of you. Amazingly, these qualities have always been there yet we forgot.

Become like the wind and be free. This woman will reveal to you your deepest longing.

The magical gifts of Netzach are the rose, wildflowers, and seashells.

The rose is one of the most incredible gifts. From thorns comes the flower of the Rose. It has the fragrance of life.

The Rose reveals our hidden beauty and fragrance. We have all sorts of thorns in our life yet in the grand scheme of things we are the rose. It is full of love and compassion.

By accepting these gifts we are embracing love, beauty, and fragrance in our lives. Who we are is pure. The Rose reminds you of how pure and divines our true nature is.

The wildflowers will reveal to us that the whole universe is wild, vast, beautiful, and utterly awesome. We get so caught up in our nine-to-five existence that we forget how incredible life is.

The whole universe exists right before your eyes yet we live such a mundane existence. The wildflowers will help you to discover the wild side of the universe and yourself. Be more open. Be in love with life.

You will have a real passion, not a perverted passion that your world thinks passion is. Your sexuality will be heightened. Be a co-creator in life. You will be a vessel for creation.

You will sense the sun, moon, and stars. You will dance with life. At the same time, you will be perfectly balanced. This is what the Kabbalah is all about. The balancing of all divine energies inside of you. You integrate all these qualities of the Sephora into your life.

The last gift is the seashell. We are all born from the waters of life. Over time we have forgotten who we are and where we came from.

The Seashell will help remind us of where we came from and of our true home. It's almost like a homing device that reminds us daily in our lives that we have a true home.

We are not orphans upon this land. So daily we must focus on these gifts to awaken us from our slumber.

The divine force of Netzach is Jehovah Tzaboth. Look at the sun, moon, and stars. Wonderous creations they are. Look at man created in the image of God.

What a divine blueprint. Netzach will show you how to open up to your inner beauty. You are divided. The Kabbalah will show you who you are.

You are an Adam Kadmon. Words can not describe the experience that lies inside. Pay attention to your lives. Absorb the finer energies of each Sephroit. Be like a child. Don't be a know-it-all.

You are here to be a representative of the Almighty. Embrace the magical beautiful, sensual naked women. This is your true state. You are wild, open, sensual, and full of devotion. Capture the essence of that.

Be in this world and yet bring Heaven down to earth. This is the time for man to transcend. The Kabbalah will help assist you in this transformation.

Netzach will give you a greater opportunity of the beauty of God and the means to express your artistic and creative abilities. Look at areas that bring you supreme joy in your life.

These are your expressions for you to express your devotion to the Almighty. Take a look at them and develop them. You are here to express the gifts while walking the Earth.

Don't take this life for granted. Don't take the Kabbalah for granted. Don't live a mundane nine-to-five existence. Know that your life is divine. Live in this world.

Be extremely practical and full of discernment. Don't be spaced out. Be grounded. Take each Sephroit and absorb the qualities of each one in your life. This is key to your liberation.

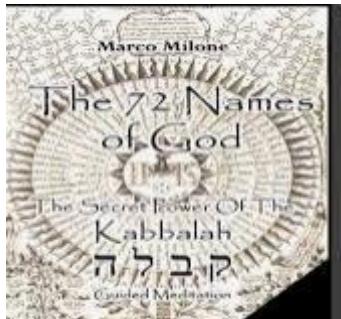

You must do the work. You have the key but you must open the door yourself. The Kabbalah is about taking action. If your house is messy you must clean it up.

You go through room by room and clean everything. You can't just read a book on house cleaning and expect your house to be clean. Daily clean your inner house. You will become divine.

This is a moment-by-moment path. Go easy on yourself yet do the work. Make the habit in your life to practice the Kabbalah. This is necessary. You must perform the work. My blessings are with you.

Welcome. Welcome. Welcome. In the name of Adoni, we welcome you. Life is a grand adventure. You are on an incredible journey. Open up to the splendor of Netzach.

Do you know where you are going? Fortunately for you, you are on an incredible path. The adventure is to know thyself.

This is the key component of life and the Kabbalah. Your goal is to infuse all the sacred qualities of God into your life. As you go up the tree you will acquire these traits of God.

Daily embrace the symbol of the beautiful, naked sensual woman in your life. You will start to unlock the mysteries of this Sephroit.

The Kabalah is not based on theories or a particular philosophy. It is a live tree that exists within you. It is based on experience. You must have practical experience.

You must master your emotions. Take a look at the weakness and slowly remove them within yourself. Master your emotions. Don't let them run your life.

Each time a negative emotion controls you at that moment in time you have lost your connection to God. So pay attention. When you experience a negative emotion work yourself through it.

Use the four worlds of creation to overcome these emotions. Remember to change any habit you must replace it with another habit. So use the tools that have been given to you.

You must practice, practice, practice daily in your lives. Each moment be united with God. Build your foundation on the rock, not on the sand.

Live each moment with God. Learn how to be a co-creator. Learn how to be a proactive being. This is the way.

In each Sephroit take a look at your baggage and let it go. Take out all the thorns in your life. They are holding you back. Watch out for any re-occurring events. Notice them and pay attention to your reactions.

Remember to stop, look, and listen. Spend a few moments and process your emotions. Why are you getting upset about it? What was your expectation? Does it matter?

Are you blowing it totally out of proportion? In the order of the universe does it matter? Don't take it so personally. Day by day this will help you on your way.

This is the true path of the Kabbalah when you can practice moment by moment these principles. This will take you away from theory to the world of God.

So this is truly a difficult path. You will have to go to the depths of your soul. But in the end, you will reach your goal.

I love you Haniel

Before we begin we have a message for this channel. It's the message of trust and letting go. The spirit of Netzach is the Elohim. Do you know how awesome it is to be connected to these higher energies?

You can absorb and integrate these energies within you. At times it may seem like a theory but this is a living tree. You must let go of your ideas, beliefs, judgments, etc. You must learn to overcome your emotions.

You must learn to let go of your excess baggage. When any emotion comes your way you must stop, look, and listen. Deal with the issue now. Clear all your issues and you will be free.

Let your will be united with God. Each moment your will should be in sync with the will of God. Take each moment and make it sacred. Overcome and process moment by moment your issues. This will set you free.

This is the same process that Jesus Christ used in the desert for 40 days and 40 nights. He had to face himself and clear himself. Even the son of God had to do this process.

There are no exceptions. To walk through that gate, you must be pure. This is the way it has always been. You may meditate your whole life but you must do the clearing.

You must make this practical and put it into practice daily in your life. The tools are given to you. Use them and put them into practice so they become a part of you. For some people, it takes a while to learn how to ride a bicycle.

Once you learn it becomes so easy. Utilize the tools that have been given to you. Let go of your negative emotions and embrace the light. Let God's will be your will. Be an Adam Kadmon.

We love you Elohim

As you open up to Netzach your sexual awareness will expand.

You will be in a deeper state of consciousness. Mankind can only go so far with the sexual experience when he is a reactive being.

The sexual experience of a co-creator is one of the most powerful experiences that a man can have.

An Adam Kadmon can transmute forces from the source of Creation. In this state, the being experiences the merging of the two into one.

Friday, March 22, 2002

Netzach will help you to open up to the world of nature spirits, fairies, and elves. This is a world in the same dimension as ours but the veil has been lifted. Mankind does not believe in elves and fairies but they do exist. There is only a thin veil separating the world. Netzach will help you to see through this veil.

Now is the time for all of us to unite as one power, one Love. For peace on Earth, we must all be united under the same umbrella.

We can no longer go our separate ways. We must be united with the thread of love.

Each one of us must hold the light connection inside of us. We must be able to hold on to the power of love. It is extremely important to take good care of yourself. You are God's in training.

You must be physically, emotionally, and mentally fit. You are training to bring peace to this planet so you must be fit. Your body and mind must be able to handle this energy or else it could cause damage to the body.

So now is the time to start exercising daily. Meditate every day and eat only good food. Every single moment should be a ritual. This is very important.

You must learn how to have your will in control at all times. Your negative emotions should not steal the show. Remember it's by will alone that I set my mind in motion.

Each moment you are knocked off balance you must go inside and do some introspection. Don't hide or stop anything. Day by day if you do this you will have to let go of your baggage.

So pay attention. Establish some sort of exercise program where you do stretching every day. Make sure that you do some sort of aerobic exercise and some weight programs. Be in tune with your body.

Make sure that every day you walk with God and that you meditate. Establish a strong connection with the Hierarchy. Love each moment. Live each moment in your sanctuary. This is your assemblage point. This is what makes you the Adam Kadmon. Your feet must be on the ground and your head must be in heaven. You must bring Heaven to Earth.

For those of you who are studying the Kabbalah become one with each Sephroit. Absorb and unite with these qualities. The tree of life will reveal to you the sacredness of life.

You will see that you are a divine being. For the ones here who are adepts build your life around God. Try to be aware of these meetings. Practice these rituals daily.

They will take you to places you have never imagined. They will protect you and guide you through your life.

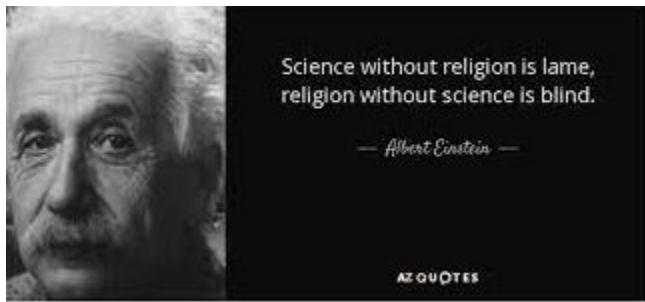

For the teachers go out and serve. That is your mission. Dedicate your life to this mission.

We are all here together. We all have different roles. Yet we must all be focused and understand we are all on the same mission to transform this world. I came down over 2,000 years ago and planted the seeds.

Now it's time for the harvest. Watch miracles happen. In the name of the Father, I love you.

By going up to Netzach you will bring in an awakened love and idealism.

Imagine that a thin veil is covering you between yourself and love.

Netzach will help and show you the true sense of love. Automatically you will have a sense of heightened awareness.

By focusing on the beautiful, sensual naked lady you will be lead to greater awareness. Also, the gifts of the rose, the wildflowers, and the seashell will give you greater awareness.

Remember to focus on these gifts daily. They will lead you to greater places within you. The entire universe is built on love. You must be able to know this while you are alive.

Netzach will help you to develop a sense of awareness that all there is love. Love is the foundation for everything. Pray to God that you may realize this. Daily let go of your baggage.

The Kabbalah will reveal to you the mysteries of life. This is a living tree. Remember each Sephroit has qualities that you must embrace in your lives. Love is attainable.

But you must look towards God. Pay attention to Netzach. This will help lead you to greater love.

Netzach will bring to you a greater idealism. This means that the idea of peace, love, harmony, and joy aren't just ideas but they are experiences that you can have daily in your life.

These gifts are yours. With these gifts, you will want everyone to have these experiences. You will want peace on Earth. You will develop a greater idealism in your life. Most humans on your planet have a very limited vision of idealism. They've merely just lived their lives.

They don't see the wonder of love. They don't have the ideals to waken man's mission to bring peace to Earth. This is the way for an awakened being to be conscious.

This is the goal to know God and to serve to help your fellow man. These ideas will become real in your life. When you have joy, love, peace, and harmony in your life you will help others to have that too.

Christ had that and was sacrificed for that. Now is the time to open up and express these ideas.

*True beauty
in the mirror*

The deepest level of Netzach reveals the vision of our true beauty and within others. When you can see beauty inside of yourself and in others then you know that you're on your way to knowing your creator.

This is the deepest level that Netzach reveals, the true beauty that lies within.

The goal is to see it 24 hours a day. This is the true vision of Netzach. You must have a strong desire to have this experience. This takes real determination.

Don't just skim the surface of the Tree of Life. You must jump right in. Dedicate yourself to the tree of life and you will see the answers lie within. You will see the beauty behind all things.

This is the gift that Kabbalah reveals if you utilize it. If you have a hard time seeing the beauty behind all things just pretend you can. Pretend that you are united with everything.

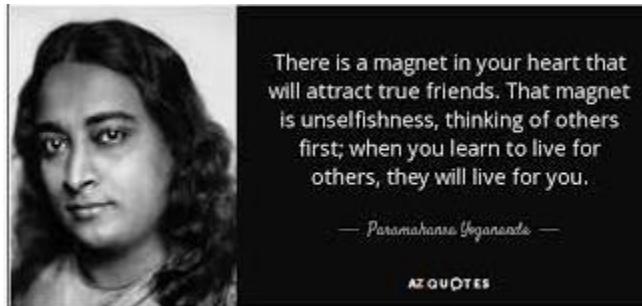

Feel the love and energy behind all things. You enter a childlike state. This state is of innocence and purity. As adults, we judge every step. This is good and this is bad.

But we are constantly locked in a state of being reactive. A child is proactive. A child is a co-creator. We have lost that state.

Netzach will help you regain that lost state. So spend time daily and look within for that true beauty. Then you will see it where ever you go.

One of the strengths of Yesod is unselfishness. This is a trait acquired when one will is in alignment with God's will.

The more you understand life and God the more unselfish you will become. You will let go of all the pettiness in your life.

Your 9 to 5 existence will diminish. You will realize that joy is found when God's will and your will are joined together. This is when you will truly understand the beauty of life and you will be unselfish.

Man of this world is selfish because their foundation is on the sand. But a man of God's foundation is built on solid rock. Nothing can shake it. When a man of God has experienced that God is present in all life how can you get angry or selfish?

Life is always there guiding you. You realize the grandeur of the universe. It will put you in a state of being humble. In this state, you have no selfish feelings. This is the way. You must be unselfish when you are in service to God.

Wednesday, March 27, 2002

Netzach will reveal to you greater warmth in your life. A feeling of warmth comes when a human discovers his true nature.

This Light within reveals a soft, glorious, warmth of love. It's like the warmth of a blanket on a cold winter day. Not only is it warm but the feeling of complete love goes along with it.

This is called true love. It is the truth behind all things. So Netzach will show you how to embrace this warmth. This warmth will show you that God is already with you. You are never alone.

When a man knows God he is full of optimism in his life. The Kabbalah reveals to you the source of all.

Consequently, when a man discovers his essence there is tremendous optimism in his life.

The majority of man lives as reactive beings. It's hard to have total optimism when a person is always reacting to any given situation. The Kabbalah teaches that our natural state is a pro-active state.

We are all co-creators with our creator. How can we not have optimism when we are in that state? Netzach will help reveal to you your true essence.

So optimism is a by-product of knowing who you are. A human being may have optimism in a reactive state but true optimism is when you are a co-creator.

You will always be optimistic. This is the law. So know your purpose in life and be a co-creator. Then you will have true optimism.

One of the gifts in Netzach is spent in nature. This is extremely important.

Most of the man is bombarded by the noise of cars honking, sirens, and all other city noises. They do not bring peace. Listen to Nature. Listen to the early morning dawn. The chirping of the birds, the small whisper of the wind.

You are listening to God's creation. Your soul can bathe in that experience. You begin to calm down and acquired these qualities in your life.

The human mind has lost touch with nature. Nature will soothe you and caress you. Nature will reveal to you its hidden secrets if you would only listen.

So during this time pay attention to Nature. Go out in it. Run in it. Laugh in it. Experience it. Be one with it. Break out of your mundane mode. Life is exciting.

Nature is here to teach you and remind you of harmony in all things. Nature is in harmony. Man is out of harmony. So this Sephora will reveal to you great wonders about nature. Please spend time in nature.

Welcome welcome welcome. It's a beautiful day in creation. We are all here to bring peace to Earth. To do this first, there must be peace with yourself.

Time is of the essence. We must all unite together and serve our Father. Each one of us has a particular mission.

We have all come here from totally different backgrounds. Our mission is the same. We are here to help transform this planet. We are here to help bring the light of God into your world.

Your role is to bring this light down and bring it into your world. We are bringing Heaven to Earth. Now is the time to embrace it. Open up your heart to the love and the light.

Take care of cleaning out your own house. This leads to accomplishing God's mission. If you have a clean vessel for the Father then you will be in tune with your mission. Your will and the Lord's will be the same.

This is how peace will be brought to man. This is how your planet will be transformed. The seeds were planted a long time ago. It's time for the harvest. Left the fruits of the harvest be gathered in your heart.

Now is the time for the harvesting of man. Go out and be a representative of your Father. Let freedom once again prevail. May the bell of freedom ring throughout the land.

May we all work together? You are all on this planet tied together under the thread of love. Now is the time to recognize this and be in unity.

We have representatives from all walks of life here. Let's unite under the name of Love. May the peace be here on Earth? Blessings

One of the strengths of Netzach is creative activities. As you begin to open up you will begin to see creative activities opening up.

As you begin to get in touch with yourself you begin to find out hidden talents and ways to express yourself.

Life has a new meaning. Your weekends and time off will change. You will go out in nature and listen to the songs of the wind and trees. Life has its messages and will whisper secrets to you.

Your laughter will increase. You will truly know how to enjoy life. You will not use any negative substance to enjoy life. Your happiness will come directly from life itself. How incredible that is.

You will see through different eyes. You will be a child again. Your sense of awareness will increase.

Exciting times are ahead. Each day will be new and different.

Another strength in Netzach is expressionism. As a person begin to wake up the expressive nature of God begins to wake up.

The quality of love, forgiveness, compassion, and tolerance begins to arise. You then begin to wake up to your true nature.

No longer is life mundane. A reactive being and a proactive being express differently. A reactive being expresses anger or all sorts of negative emotions.

A proactive being expresses love, compassion, and tolerance. The more a person drops the veil the more a person can express more in his life. This is the goal of human life. You are a co-creator.

Tuesday, April 2, 2002

One of the weaknesses of Netzach is its high emotions. When you are highly emotional you are in a reactive state.

In this state, your emotions are running the show. You are totally out of alignment with God.

To be aligned with God, you must be in a pro-active state. When you are emotional you are out of balance. So remember always to set your negative emotions aside.

Stop look and listen in your life. If you do this your life will be transformed

Wednesday, April 3, 2002

One of the weaknesses of Netzach is the tendency to worry. Worry comes from a reactive being.

Worry comes when you do not faith in your creator. When a man is not in harmony man will worry.

Being worried does not accomplish anything. Be a co-creator and be proactive. This will set you free. Everything will be in harmony when you do. By being in a proactive state you will not worry.

You will know that the Lord's will and your will are in synch. Being worried only comes when you have lost your way. Pray for guidance. Make effort to take yourself out of the hole you have put yourself in.

Only you can take yourself out of the hole. It's your responsibility. You have coaches but you must do the work. So worry does not accomplish anything. Be in a proactive state and know that the Lord is taking care of you.

The voices of Netzach

Thursday, April 4, 2002

Envy is another weakness in Netzach. Everyone has a major problem with it on your planet.

Wars have been started over it. It is the work of darkness. A co-creator does not experience envy. Life is in harmony with its creator.

Everyone is special. We all have special gifts to offer this world. Unfortunately, we have lost our way and we don't know we are lost. So consequently we live our lives as reactive beings.

We envy people who have more money, fame, or glory. Look at your movie stars, pop stars, and athletes. They are all considered stars. The world envies them.

There is a constant struggle between men for fame and power. We teach our children that this is the way to happiness. We envy these people. We are looking in the wrong direction.

Money and fame will never bring you happiness. Happiness exists only inside of you. It is an experience of the divine. The world is caught in a web of darkness. We are all tangled in a mess.

We are envious of each other. We need to see that there is one thread tying us together. This is the thread of love. If we knew that we would cut and dismantle the web of darkness. It wants you to be lost and confused. It has no good intentions for you to find yourself. It wants you to be envious.

The path of a Cabalistic is to cut through the web of darkness and live in the world of light. The sun does not see darkness. We must become the sun. This is the way, the truth, and the light.

So now is the time to come home. The world needs you. Every human being on the planet today needs to find the diamond inside. Then nobody will be envious.

Love the voices of Netzach

Lust is a major problem with Netzach. Lust has been on your planet for literally thousands of years.

Wars have been fought over it. Man has put the woman into slavery for it. Your whole culture is obsessed with it.

Man has lost his way. Man has taken something sacred, holy, and an act of God and has perverted the whole act. Man has lost it. Your whole society is driven by it.

You love pop stars and movie stars. To be a successful movie, it must contain lust. Your entire advertising world is based on lust. Man is lost and driven.

What a drama we are in. Imagine a universe of light and love and we are lost 9 to 5 existence. We think we are fine yet we are drowning in this world. We call lifeguards such as Christ crazy when they try to save us.

We are in total disarray. Lusts have taken us out of our father's arms into the arms of darkness. Darkness has been fooling you for thousands of years. It has already put the carrot in front of you. This will make you happy.

This you see is all a game to keep you from reaching your goal. It has prevented you from reaching your goal. So look at how your society looks at lust and how you embraced it.

One of the weaknesses of a person who is not in balance with this Sephroah is impurity.

Imagine the mind is like a tuning fork. Whatever it touches it vibrates at that frequency.

If the mind is not focused on God then the mind will be filled with impurities. To be with God one must be pure in mind, body, and soul. One must be a co-creator.

As we walk the tree of life we start throwing away our old baggage. The more we release the baggage the purer we become. So it's very important to be aware of our impurities and let them go. Don't hold on to your negativity. Simply let it go.

All the love, joy, and abundance are yours if you follow the natural laws of the Tree of Life. Every day should be a learning experience.

Possessiveness is another weakness in that Netzach. How can you think you can own somebody? Everyone has free will. Everyone is a spark of creation.

You come into this world empty-handed and you leave empty-handed. This is the law of life. In reality what belongs to you? Can you take anything when you leave this world?

Daily remember you came from the source. Your mission is to discover who you truly are. The Tree of Life will reveal to you your true home. It will reveal to you your excess baggage. So just let it go.

Welcome to today's meeting. This week's meeting is about the war in the Middle East. Things are going out of control.

Both sides have lost touch with reality. Both sides are in a purely reactive mode. Both sides are angry, and depressed and see nowhere out of the situation.

Man must stop this violence. What kind of humanity are we when ignorant teenagers blow themselves up and others around them? It is time to set aside our beliefs and look at the situation with different eyes.

Both sides have been fighting for so long. Both sides are right and wrong. So what can we do? We must all be united under the will of God. We must bring light into this world.

We must all be the representatives of peace. Wherever we go we must be living in the Kingdom of Heaven. Peace will never come with violence. We must return to a logical mind.

Both sides are extremely reactive. This will never help to solve the issue. Both sides are taking actions that go against the laws of God. There is no harmony, respect, and love between one another. This is the highest law.

This conflict will never have taken place if both sides have integrity, compassion, and willingness to work things out. Why should there be war in your backyard? This is insane.

Both sides all come from the same father. We have different ways to express this yet there is a thread of love that ties us all together forming a garland of love.

This world allows differences. It's so vast and unique. A man should embrace the differences and recognize the common denominator among man. It is time to stop this madness. This goes against the laws of God. This only creates injustice in this world. All of us can be true representatives of God. Each moment is important. Always be still.

Remember to change this planet you must first change yourself. This is the way. Nobody can do it for you.
Our blessings are with you.

The magical images of Tiphareth are the Majestic King, the child, and the sacrificed God.

By concentration and embracing the majestic King you are acquiring all the attributes that the King has.

There is honor, idealism, Justice, and truth. The King looks after his people with the utmost respect. The King rules with love, not with a sword. He is a great diplomat. He knows how to treat people with respect.

A king is honest and full of Integrity. He has compassion in his heart. A true king like King Solomon was extremely wise. His wisdom was from this planet and beyond.

A true king is a co-creator. He is not a reactive being. His foundation is in light. His will is in control along with his emotions. His will and the Lord's will are aligned.

These qualities are for the Kabbalistic to acquire. These qualities of the King can be assimilated. Daily focus on this symbol. Over time you will acquire these qualities.

A young child represents youth, freedom, joy, openness, and innocence. A young child holds no prejudice in his heart. He accepts all people regardless of their race, color, religion, or creed.

They can be sad at one moment and then they can be totally happy the next moment. They do not hold on to their feelings. They do not stuff their emotions. Life is carefree and happy.

They can be rich or poor. They value life. They are full of innocence and compassion. They feel the beauty of nature. They always are in a state of learning about their environment. A young child is extremely curious. They want to know the secrets of life and the universe. The child is always moving. They run, laugh, and play.

These qualities are hidden inside of you. The young child will help to bring them to the surface in your life.

Now the sacrifice God is a human that dedicates his life to the almighty. His will is in alignment with the will of God. This human sacrifices his life to the will of God. He is in total harmony with life and the universe.

Not one action is out of alignment. This is perfect harmony. This is the Adam Kadmon for man. He is in total alignment with God. The power of the universe lives inside.

You are the Sun, the Moon, and the Stars. You are this invincible power. Concentrate on these ancient symbols. Try to incorporate these symbols into your life.

The magical gift is a crown but it is too large. A being will always grow under the almighty. You can never rest on your laurels. A crown that is too large means you will never grow into this crown.

Your wisdom will grow on forever. You will never take yourself too seriously. You will laugh and play. Your life is not mundane. Everything in life is a glorious experience.

A large crown will give you a better perspective on life. You will be balanced. You will not be too proud or arrogant.

Maybe put this in. needs more work

Buy houses and rent them to people who are of the light. These houses will showcase the neighborhood's light and harmony. The participants will be of any religion, race, color, or creed.

They must be dedicated and help humanity. They must be conscious of serving God the profit of these houses will be split up. Automatically 10% will be given away. 10% will be saved for when the houses get sold. 25% of the profits would go to the people living in the house. This will encourage people to fix and keep their houses clean and in good shape.

They will have value and integrity and their houses. They will value the house.

I am Jehovah Eloah Va Da'ath. I am the Lord of knowledge. To receive knowledge, your heart must be open to receive.

If your heart is open you will receive. If it's closed you will not receive it. It's as simple as turning on and off your faucet.

This life is an incredible journey. How fortunate we are to be alive during this point in time. You can tap into these mysteries of life. The Kabbalah will help show you the way.

It is a living tree. it exists inside of you. You have the opportunity to learn and experience the Tree of Life. How fortunate this is. You have been shown a path where over time you can transform into the Adam Kadmon.

Knowledge means to know. You are here to know yourself. By knowing yourself you will know God.

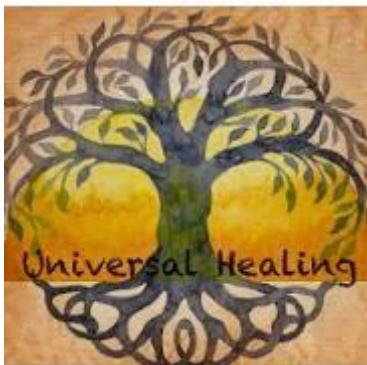

So our advice to you is to know yourself. Open up to this Sephroit and experience what it has to offer. Each one is a unique manifestation. They will help you to discover yourself.

Open up to the flow of infinite knowledge. You will always be learning. This is the way of life. Life always grows and expands. So don't be stagnant. Carry on and open up your heart.

I love you

Jehovah Eloah Va Da'ath

The time for healing is now. Open up to the true beauty within as you will start the healing process. Man's world that he has created is not a world of beauty.

Look at the present conditions of the world today. War, diseases, scandals in your world. Man has lost touch with the beauty within.

When a man discovers his true nature healing begins to happen. Healing is a force that occurs with the heart being open to God's love within. It is a magical power expressed in one's life.

It's a total miracle that many humans are alive on your planet. The way they treat their body is horrendous. This human body is the crown of creation. It is a temple that is alive. It is extremely sacred.

Tiphareth reveals to you the beauty of the Lord God within you and to realize the incredible beauty that lies within. This Life is a treasure chest waiting to be opened.

How fortunate you are to be walking this path. It is an ancient and sacred tree. The goal is over time to be Adam Kadmon the divine man. Your will must be the will of God. You must have absolute faith.

Everything is provided to you on this path. This path is not easy. You must turn over every stone in your life. You must face each obstacle. Yet this path is filled with beauty.

You will be shown the beauty and wonders. This is where you are going back to your Father's mansion within. This is your true home Beauty is not just a word but it is a profound experience. This path is not theoretical but it is experiential. The theory is important yet the experience is what you were meant for.

Open up to the beauty within. True healing will take place. Your life will be in harmony with your mind body and soul.

All the diseases will leave. The disease is caused by inharmony from within. This path will teach you inner harmony. You will begin to treat the body with respect.

So open up your heart and dedicate your life to God. Let your mission be God's mission. Don't be separated any longer. Let God's will be your will. Don't live in a reactive state but be a co-creator. This is the path of Adam Kadmon.

Blessings to you Raphael

May all the powers to be, be with you. This is an auspicious day. Today is a day of celebration.

There are great opportunities for your planet. In the last thousand years, man has hoped for a better future.

Well, the time has come. We are striving for a better future regardless of what religion they are in. This is happening in the hearts of mankind. There is a calling to return home and mankind is responding.

This is a cause for celebration. The seeds were planted a long time ago. This is the time for the harvest. Mankind will transform. Mankind is waking up from its slumber. This is a cause for celebration.

The door to God is opening within the hearts of man. Man is beginning to see the beauty that lives within. This is a true beauty. The Kabalistic has known this for thousands of years.

This is the path of love. Love will heal all wounds. Love will heal the differences among men. He just thinks he is separate but love will show the truth behind all things. Man is united through love.

May love prevail on Earth? May the light of God shine upon you in your daily life. The Kingdom of Heaven will be on this Earth. Great things are happening. My blessings are with you.

Hold the Light Of God within. Walk with God. He has never left you. He is always there. Now is the time to recognize that.

When a being opens up to Tiphareth a greater and higher sense of devotion is obtained. As you become more aware you will see the true beauty that lies inside.

This is the true beauty of God. This beauty will reveal to you a greater sense of devotion. Devotion is a greater connection to God.

When your will and the will of God become more in alignment you will have a greater sense of devotion. This is the true state of man. Christ was a perfect example of a human who obtained true devotion.

His will and the will of God were in total alignment. True devotion requires self-mastery and total empowerment over oneself. It is not blind devotion. It is not highly emotional.

True devotion is full of wisdom and knowledge. It's when man understands and follows the laws of the universe. It is not blind or shallow. One respects all peoples, races, colors, and creeds.

It does not force itself onto anybody. If all man attained this state your world would blossom into the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth.

So open up your heart. Pay attention to this Sephora. These are qualities of Tiphareth. They are meant to be embraced. These are not just words, but practical experiences. This is not just some theory but it is a real path that you may walk on.

The goal is for you to be a proactive being, a Co-creator of God. This is your goal in life. This is your purpose. So open up your heart and receive this gift.

This is a true gift from God. You must be ready to receive it. Remember you have free will. Your free will must be aligned with God to receive this gift. This is this tree of life. It is real. It exists in all of creation. It is a way for you to remember who you are. It's a way to get rid of darkness and transform it into the light. It's a way to become free. It's a way to come back.

Our blessings are with you. We love you. May you walk the Tree of Life with the utmost devotion, reverence, and respect.

Christ consciousness is the ideal state for man. This is the purpose of life. Christ was a being who developed himself to a point where his will and the will of God were the same.

You could say they were inseparable. This is the goal. Christ was an example of this. He showed us the way.

Here was a man who in his lifetime became Adam Kadmon the divine man on Earth. We all have the same potential. Christ Consciousness encompasses true love for all things. It pervades everywhere.

This is the state where man is headed. In this state, man doesn't judge. A person accepts love and accepts all people. Love is truly the key to this consciousness. One's will must be aligned with God.

So Christ came and showed us the way. He became the Adam Kadmon. Christ planted the seeds into the hearts of man. Thousands of years later those same seeds are ready to be harvested. We have the same opportunity to be like Christ. This Sephroit will help show you the way.

Christ's consciousness reveals the light of God. This light is, was, and will always be. Christ was one with this light. This light existed before time and for all eternity. It exists beyond the sun, moon, and stars.

Christ consciousness will reveal to you this experience. This experience matures very slowly. The human body needs to slowly become used to these manifestations of energy and Light

So open up to this Sephroih. Let the will of God become your will. We love you.

The council meeting was over. Went to reception. Barbara and I were there. Saw Ann Stills and Karen Harrington.

The reception hall was over a bluff with incredible waves breaking in the distance. Gundi and I went surfing. We rode the waves of joy

Then I turned into one of my power animals the eagle and soared. It was total freedom. Flew to the land of the lotus. Met Buddha. I experienced a ray of compassion.

Then I was instructed to focus on the mountains in India. I went there. I was told to go and meet Sai Baba. I got personal instruction from him. It was about how to manifest through the hands. I practice this many times. I was told to come back for further instructions.

God's love and glory will live forever. Embedded in the songs of man is the glory of God.

Every religion sings the praises of God. God has total fame.

A wise man who dedicates himself totally to God sings God's glory. He does not want fame or glory yet he will be famous. People will make him famous. Yet he knows that the glory and fame go to God.

An example of this is Jesus the Christ. He was one such man. He was humble and yet over time his glory and fame spread throughout the land. His life was dedicated to his Father.

A man whose life is dedicated to God will have fame and glory. To the average person, fame and glory go to a person's head while a person of God goes to their heart.

One is ego-centered while the other is heart-centered. So this Sephora will show you the true glory and fame of the almighty God. It brings reverence to the soul. This is the path of the Kabbalistic.

Your life is dedicated to bringing the Lord's will into your life. This is where true transformations take place. So open up your heart. Remember that you are here for a purpose.

See that purpose and take action. We love you thank you. Sing the glories forever.

So the more you open up the greater the energy will be. You will be more successful because of your opening up. You will understand the basic laws of the universe.

True success in life comes when you open up to the laws of love and compassion. A being must be humble and without ego. So true success lies inside of you.

By opening up to Tiphareth you will see the beauty that lies within. Your life will be successful because you will be in complete alignment with the Lord.

Tiphareth will reveal to you the harmony in your heart. True Harmony comes when you open your heart to the almighty.

When you do this you are in sync and harmony with the universe. Consequently, your heart will be in harmony with all things.

For this to happen your mindset must change. You must not see yourself as a reactive being but as a servant of the almighty. You must be a Co-creator. In this state, you will see the harmony behind all things.

This message is for victory over adversity. With a person surrenders his will to God, he attains victory against adversity. We live in an adverse world.

Everything is backward and against you. Your whole society is built on adversity. Yet from time immemorial man has strived to be a true servant of God. The world at large never did like a saint.

The saint overcame adversity in his life to become a co-creator of God. They went through a lot of hardships. They obtain victory over adversity. It's like the challenges they went through made them stronger.

It's putting steel into the fire and forging the steel. It makes us stronger. This is the way for the Kabbalistic. Life adversities make us stronger. We can overcome the adversities in life and become victorious.

Christ was a master who became victorious. His life is an example to us. So open up to this quality and victory will be yours. Be strong. Be a co-creator. Don't limit yourself. You can overcome any obstacle.

Tiphareth will allow you to gain the true energies of the rainbow. The rainbow contains distinct colors.

Each color has a vibrational frequency that has specific energies behind it.

This is the rainbow of God. The colors are red, orange, green, blue, violet, indigo, and white which contain all colors. Each color contains specific energies.

By focusing on these colors great things will happen. White, for example, contains all the colors of the spectrum. All colors are derived from white light. The entire universe is composed of this light.

Red is the frequency of circulation. It is the power of change. It sets things in motion. Red carries information from one place to another.

Orange is like the sun. It radiates heat and nurtures man. Everything on Earth receives this divine energy from the Sun.

Green restores health. It is a regenerator. It brings balance to life. It calms the soul. Taking a walk in nature helps take away the stress in life.

Blue is the color of Michael's ray. It restores justice. It is both calm and at the same time helps to fight against Injustice.

Violet is for spiritual healing and communication. It brings divine information into your being.

Indigo represents the divine plan for man. Hidden inside Indigo lies the codes for man to wake up.

So the more you focus on these colors within you will be able to acquire these divine attributes.

Tiphareth is the heart of the tree. It is the center. One of the Divine attributes is healing on all levels of mind, body, and soul.

This is truly a blessing and grace from the almighty. By opening to Tiphareth, you will experience healing at all levels.

This healing will soothe the mind, body, and soul. You will feel like you are melting. All stress and diseases will leave. This is true health. This is your birthright. So this is truly a gift.

Disharmony will leave. The body has the intelligence to heal itself if given the opportunity.

So pay attention. Live your life under divine law. Pay attention to your lifestyle. Perform any modification that will prevent you from reaching your goal. Do this daily.

This healing takes place when you have aligned yourself with the divine. If there is a part of your lifestyle that you don't change this healing won't take place. Pay attention.

Words can never relay the state that a human being can be in when he is healed mentally, physically, emotionally, and spiritually. This state is divine. All systems are in harmony.

So open up your heart. Live the life of a being whose daily lives are following the divine law. If you follow this you will be healed. We love you.

We have all come here today to celebrate the coming of man. Man is about ready to transform himself into Adam Kadmon. This is the prophecy told long ago.

Man has been living in a reactive state for thousands of years. It hasn't gotten him anywhere. Wars, famine, and poverty rage on your planet.

Yet there have always been Ritual Masters who held the light even in darkest times. This is the most important position, for without this service darkness would have won a long time ago.

So the Ritual Masters are in total alignment with God. They come to serve humanity. Great things are happening on your planet. Man is about ready to wake up from their slumber. There is an awakening throughout this land.

People are being reminded of their true home. There is so much hope for your planet even despite what appears in your world. The troops are here.

All of the gods and goddesses are here. They are here to guide us back home. They act out of compassion for mankind. This is the way of the ancient ones. Christ planted the seed long ago. Now is the time for the harvest. Peace be with you.

Love Michael

I bow my head to our Father who protects us all. Grant us love and compassion for our fellow man. May peace be on earth? Lead us from darkness into the light. Take away all of our sins.

May you have compassion for us? We are lost and we think we are found. Please take us home. Beloved Father, I love you. Grant us the wisdom to show humanity the way.

May the law of compassion pave the way? May all religions unite as one?
May the dove fly inside of man's heart? May There Be Peace On Earth.

Blessing Jesus the Christ

Welcome, welcome, welcome members of the hierarchy and the Galactic Federation. We are all here united under the power of Love. The love that was never created nor destroyed.

The Love that exists beyond time and space. The Love was there from the beginning and at the end. This love exists inside of us all.

We are all tied together with this thread of love.

It binds us together. We are here to watch the transformation of your planet. Man is once again opening up to Love. Love Is the answer. Love is the key to bringing peace to Earth.

All of your prophets have talked about this. Yet you have ignored that. Now is the time to listen and pay attention. The world needs love. Without it, the world will survive but you won't.

This is the battle between darkness and Light. Mankind has to take sides. There is no more time sitting on the fence. The fence is being torn down. May you make the right proper decision. The future is in your hands.

We call them miracles but they are a part of God's law. Because man does not understand the divine law he thinks a miracle is a miracle.

God's love is a miracle. What magic and mystery lie behind it? Opening up to Tiphareth will show you the miracle of life. You will begin to see the miracles of life.

Miracles will start to manifest in your life. The miracle is a gift directly from God. Miracles are God's way of saying I love you. What a miracle you are! Open up your heart and you will see it. I love you.

Entered sanctuary. Met Wolf, bear, and the eagle. Open door to the higher self. Three demons came in. I killed them with a sword.

Three more came in. Must be at guard at all times. As Ritual Masters, we must always be aware. I called up the hierarchy to create a circle of light around my sanctuary. I called Gudni today.

Note 18 years later. Killing demons is a metaphor. One changes the thoughts from darkness to light. This is the inner battle.

Brought in the Dragon world. Jesus and Michael were there. It was the first time in a long time they attended my sanctuary.

Lord grant me the power and courage to fight the evil within. Let your will be my will.

PM

Met Raphael and Jehovah Eloah Va-Daath in the sanctuary. They congratulated me. The message today is on reverence. We must be humble and ready to serve. We must let go of our way of doing things.

We must allow the Lord's will to be our will. A servant does not place importance on look what I'm doing. We are all performing service to the almighty in our way.

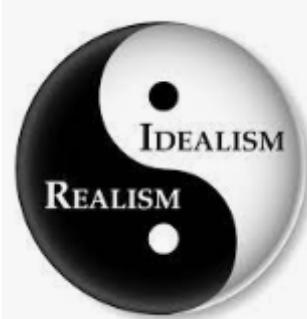

We need to respect the other works of people doing their service. This life is a miracle. It is a golden opportunity to serve. So be humble. Be compassionate. Be an example.

Life is so precious. Open up your eyes to see this opportunity that life is so short. It is like a blink in the eye.

Idealism is the way for the Kabbalistic. One must have high ideals to reach the Almighty. This is the law. As you grow within and start opening up your ideals will grow.

Automatically your ideals change and get more in alignment with God. If these ideals were to be manifested on your Earth they would create peace on Earth. This is how powerful they are. Each man, woman, and child on this planet would be transformed.

So open up to God. Discover Idealism inside of you. We will talk about them in more detail but the prime importance is for you to discover them on your own. We are your coaches. You must play the game.

During this time integrating Tiphareth spend time nurturing yourself. Nurture your mind, body, and soul. Take a nap during the day.

Get a massage. Sleep in. Read a book outdoors. Tiphareth is about nurturing yourself. You must be kind to your body. Listen to its needs and wants.

This body is a temple of God. Nurture it. Pay attention to the food you eat. Pay attention to how much water you drink.

Pray before each meal. Give thanks to the Almighty. Give your body the respect it needs. You are the crown of creation.

Take a nice hot bath. Put some oil in the water. Relax. Let the mind, body, and soul be unified.

Take it easy. Don't let life's pressure wear you down. Take a vacation or mini-vacation. This is the kind of nurturing you need. Be kind to yourself. Don't judge yourself. You are a Creator so realize that.

This opportunity is about giving and receiving. Nurturing it is the receiving end. It is necessary. It will release stress from the body, mind, and soul. So nurture yourself. You will be glad you did so. Slow down and enjoy the fragrances of life. We love you.

If you want to be a co-creator you must develop compassion. Compassion is a gift from God. If you are not compassionate you have lost touch with your true nature.

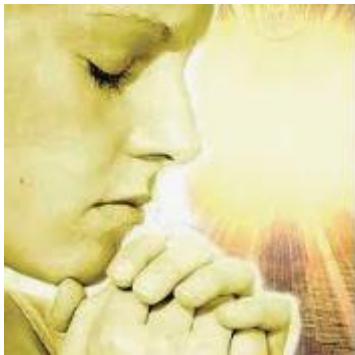

You were born with compassion. It's the very essence of your being. But unfortunately, over time a veil hides this quality from you. You lose your innocence and purity. You become jaded and hard.

Pray for compassion in your life. Buddha was a being who cultivated compassion in his life and became enlightened. Compassion will reveal to you the unity behind all things. It will truly set you free.

This is the way to God. The more you let go of your baggage the more you can develop compassion. You will be amazed at what you see.

Devotion is truly one of the greatest gifts from God. Devotion is the way to self-discovery. If a human does not devote himself to God then how can you expect to attain God?

In your world whatever you devote yourself you will become, whether it's to your job, sports, harmful addiction Etc.

In other words where you place your attention is the supreme importance. An example of true devotion was Jesus Christ. Christ dedicated his entire life to God. Through all the sagas of Christ's life, his mind was on serving the Lord. He never did quiver from his goal.

We should learn from this example. We must be single-minded and in other words, we should be in sync with the Lord's will. This aspect of devotion will open up in Tiphareth.

Devotion is the key that will open up your heart. It will reveal your life's greatest Mysteries.

Devotion is what your soul is looking for. It is not blind or full of dogma.

Devotion stems directly from the truth. It is not emotional. Your will alone sets your mind in motion.

It does not judge or criticize anyone. It is not fanatical.

Devotion will help you bring Heaven down to earth. It is practical.

So what a golden opportunity you have to cultivate devotion. It is truly the highest gift.

We love you. May you truly be wise and open up your heart to devotion.

The voices of Tiphareth

Now the opposite of reverence is false pride. False pride is when you think you know all the answers. It's when you think I've mastered life. It's when your ego gets in the way. Self-pride leads you away from your goal.

It's like you come to the Lord with a full cup. Your cup is filled with ego. How do you think your cup can be filled with God when it's filled with ego? One should always be humble and approach God with an empty cup. There are always greater lessons to learn. There are always greater adventures.

So be humble and full of compassion. Don't be a know-it-all. If you didn't know an answer to someone's question be honest and say I don't know.

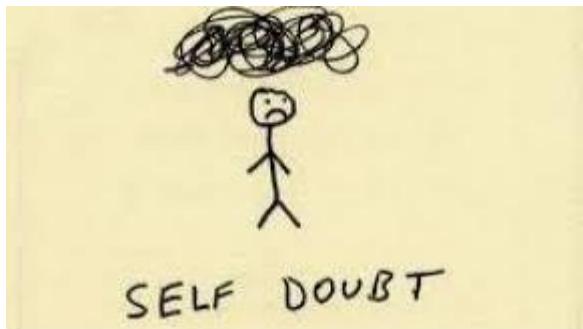

False pride will lead you astray. In this state, you have forgotten reverence.

Without reverence, you are building a house on sand. You think you are a King but the waves of change will soon tear your house down. Life itself will someday put you in your place.

In your world, there are millions of people whose lives are built on false pride. In the end, you will see the house come crumbling down. Only reverence is eternal. False pride will someday end. So be open to reverence. Let go of your false pride.

Be aware of self-doubt on this journey. This is one of the negative aspects of Tiphareth. Self-doubt comes into the picture like this can't be true.

I'm only imagining this. How did they come up with this tree in the first place? It may say others can do this or this path is too hard.

Yet in doubt just go forward. This will eventually remove the doubt. On this path, you will have some sort of doubt almost guaranteed. Yet if you move forward and don't dwell on it the winds will blow down the door away

So you just walk through your doubts. Don't stop or you might get tangled in the web. Just look at the road ahead of you and take one step after another. This will take you to places you have never imagined.

If you are lost in doubt and have wandered off track call your guides, Call Archangel Raphael and ask him to show you the way. Pray for guidance. Contemplate on this Sephroiah. Make your effort and before you know it you will be sailing in the wind.

So we love you. Blessings.

The voices of Tiphareth

The opposite of nurturing is insecurity. Insecurity is not being secure inside of yourself. On this journey, you will experience this to some degree.

As you move from a reactive being to a co-creator your insecurities will go away.

Insecurity is a state not knowing the power of God at this moment. You are lost. It might be some tasks you need to perform. A reactive being might be insecure at this moment while a pro-active being will experience the will of God at this moment.

Insecurities come when you are not secure about the future. This is where faith comes in. You must have absolute faith. Faith will move mountains. So by opening up your heart, you will begin to be more secure in your life.

Welcome brothers and sisters. This past week has been an intense week for the people on earth. Especially for the lightworkers.

Many lightworkers have been attacked by dark energy. These attacks are trying to get people on earth to go to the dark side.

So now at this time remember to be aware at all times. Do your rituals. Be aware of God in your life. Don't be frightened. We are here to guide you and help protect you. Help is on the way. So be aware of your surroundings

This life is a mystery. As you know the battle has been going on for a while between darkness and light. It has intensified more in the last week. We are receiving many different kinds of reports.

It seems that the more light you carry the stronger the attacks are against you. Remember to always put the shield of Love around you. This will help protect you. Call on us for protection. Most of all be aware. Be in that place of love at all times. Be in the light. This is your refuge. Listen to your guidance within.

As you know there is a battle going on. Be disciplined and light-hearted at the same time. These are the qualities that you need.

Every day do your magic circle and perform at least the Kabbalistic cross or whatever protection rituals you have. This is very important. You want all outside energy to not touch you.

Remember these are not mere rituals.
Over time they will transform you.
Our blessings are with you.

irreverence

The opposite of compassion is irreverence. Be careful not to cultivate this. Irreverence will take you off this path faster than anything else.

It is guaranteed to bring you into a reactive mode.

Look out for the state of mind that knows all the answers. Don't be a know-it-all.

To master Tiphareth, you need compassion. This world needs compassion.

A being may have tremendous power but without compassion your power is worthless.

Love and compassion go together like salt and pepper.

So don't be in a state of irreverence. Don't be self-centered and full of ego.

Be a true servant of the Lord. No matter who you are and no matter if you are an Archangel, the Divine force or Spirits you must have compassion and love. This law will never change.

Irrelevance comes from your negative ego. In that state, you have lost your true nature. You think you are the king and queen of the universe. You have lost perspective on who you are.

So always remain humble. Take one step at a time and remain focused on your goal.

We love you

The voices of Tiphareth

Now the opposite of devotion is blaming. Blaming comes from your negative ego. Devotion comes from God. When you blame someone you have lost your self-empowerment.

In this state, you are not a co-creator or proactive. You are in a reactive state. Blaming yourself or others will not reach your goal. This kind of baggage must be released. So let go of this.

Day by day focus on yourself. Let go of your baggage. Take this out of your being. Be in a devotional state at all times.

Rejoice in every moment in your life. If you do you will never blame others again. So take a good look at yourself and pull out all unwanted baggage.

When a person blames someone they don't want to take responsibility for their actions. Everything in life mirrors your attention.

Know if your emotions govern you then you are living in a reactive state.

You have lost your way. So pay attention to your state of mind moment by moment. Always monitor your thoughts and clear out your emotions.

We love you and blessings to all.

The deepest level of all or this Sphroiah is the wakening of the vision of the Holy Grail. This state will reveal to you the gift of devotion.

This state is the revealment of the Holy Grail. Man has been searching for this throughout history and all along it exists in the hearts of man.

The Holy Grail has been hidden from man for many years. Man has been looking outward. The Holy Grail lies deep within your soul. The very essence of Tiphareth will reveal the Holy Grail.

This occurs when the mind of God and man's mind merge. Both wills are in sync. This is man's destiny.

Your heart has to be pure as gold when this happens. Only the pure in the heart may find this. This is the safeguard.

The magical image of Geborah is the mighty warrior and the warrior in a chariot.

These magical images represent the fight against darkness. There is a battle going on inside between good and evil.

The warrior fight for truth, justice, and light. The warrior in times of peace is a gentle soul but in battle is a fearsome opponent.

We need to realize that a battle is taking place right in our backyard. Since we are reactive beings we are caught in the battle. Our goal is to be sovereign and co-creators with our Father.

Unfortunately, a man's present state is in darkness. Man must fight and throw out the baggage in his life. These are the Warriors of light.

Many people refuse to fight yet unfortunately in that state darkness has already won. We must fight the battle within us. We must be Warriors of light. Whether we see it or not a battle is being fought on your planet.

Man is enslaved in darkness and ignorance. Man must wake up from his slumber and take up his role in the divine plan.

We can no longer sit on the sidelines watching the game. Man must be a team player to help accomplish peace on Earth. It's all our responsibility. So the Warriors are needed at this time. In the future warriors will be in the background but for now, there is a battle taking place.

We love you.

The voices of Geborah

Wednesday, May 1, 2002

One of the magical gifts of Geborah is the sword. The sword fights against injustice and darkness. It helps clear the way so you may walk on the path.

By embracing the sword you are embracing life. You are embracing God. You are embracing the spiritual warrior within.

You are a Co-creator. You are walking away from the path of being a reactive being. With the sword, you are cutting through all the darkness in your life.

A sword is one of the major tools for a warrior. To be an Adam Kadmon, you must be a warrior within. You must face your demons.

Another gift is the spear. A spear can be thrown. This is another tool to fight the darkness within. In times of battle, a spear is necessary. Always be ready and alert to fight the darkness within. These magical gifts will give you the strength to carry on.

The armor is another gift. Use this armor to protect yourself from the darkness. Daily do the magic circle and the Kabbalistic Cross. This will help you to build invincible armor around you.

Concentrate on the symbols and practice them in your daily life. These gifts are yours so you may be equipped properly to face your demons. A spiritual warrior needs proper tools for the battles within.

Be still and ask God for guidance. Walk on the path of light. We love you.

The voices of Geborah

This Sephroiah is about the path of the warrior. There is a battle going on between darkness and light.

The warrior represents the Father of creation. The Lord's will is the Warrior's will.

The Warriors do not like to fight but he is prepared to do so. So recognize that Warrior within you. You are a part of God. You are here to serve the Almighty. Your planet is in great apathy.

The Kabbalah will show you how to lift yourself out of the darkness and into the light. This is the way you help uplift humanity. By developing yourself you help uplift Humanity.

If you are in a hole you can't help anybody get out of the same hole. But if you are out of the hole, you can throw them a rope and pull them out of the hole. They climb out of this hole themselves but you assist them in their quest. This is your service to humanity.

The tree of life was meant to be a living tree that the gifts may be used to benefit humanity. Don't go to a cave and not share them. This is why the Kabbalah was shown to man. It is a tool to be used to help mankind transcend and be an Adam Kadmon.

So Geborah will reveal the warrior within. When Geborah and Chesed are united you have mercy and strength merge. The goal of the Kabbalah is to assimilate all the aspects of the Kabbalah. This will bring you to be an Adam Kadmon.

You are on an incredible life journey. Life each moment to the fullest.
We love you

Welcome, welcome, welcome. Today is the beginning of a new age. As all of you know the last few weeks have been very intense on your planet.

All of your beings of light have been attacked. We have heard some incredible stories about what has happened. Some members of the hierarchy were personally involved in assassins from the dark side.

Fortunately, the Ritual Masters used Michael's sword to eliminate the dark forces. Later more dark forces came and a small group of Masters of light lead by Jesus the Christ and Lord Michael came and eliminated the dark Forces. A quarantine area was set up but now the situation is clear.

We must all be ready at all times. Daily do your rituals. This will put you at a level of security from any dark Forces.

These rituals must be used. They are your lifeline to the hierarchy and the Lord Almighty. We cannot emphasize how important they are. They are more important than your breath. They will bring you in complete alignment with the Almighty.

The time is now to be an Adam Kadmon.

For the initiates we honor you. Great work is coming from you. You know America will be the home of the new beginning for man.

Remember we only need a small percentage of America to transform America.

Imagine 100 Christ walking on your planet. The change would be phenomenal.

These events start a chain reaction. The result is Adam Kadmon, the new Divine Human.

America is slowly waking up from its slumber. The Divine is waking up wisdom on your planet. The lotus flower within is about ready to bloom. Peace will reign on Earth. You are about to witness an incredible series of events. You have the opportunity to participate in the new beginnings of man.

You have been chosen to help and assist in this transformation. What great service can there be to help your Father in the mission to transform man? Jesus the Christ came 2000 years ago.

He planted the seeds within man. The man responded by crucifying him. Yet now the harvest is about ready to happen. You have been chosen to assist in the harvesting of man.

What a blessing this is. Gods and Goddesses yearn for this type of service. Many of you came down to help assist in this transformation. Many of you are still asleep. We urge you to wake up and assist. Recognize your mission and then go out and do it.

We are all united in the thread of love.

Love is the key. You are no better or no worse than anybody. But you do have the honor to serve. That my friends are worth more than you can ever imagine.

Let your will be in complete alignment with the Lord's will. Let every action you take be the Lord's action. Walk-in unconditional love.

These are incredible days. Walk like a God because you are. May you come back home. We love you.

Your Mother/Father in heaven

I'm Kamael. I'm the Archangel of Geborah. I'm the Spiritual warrior for God. Each one of you has to wake up to the spiritual warrior within.

There is a battle going on and you have to recognize that. You must be aware of what's happening. You can no longer sit on the sidelines or wear a blindfold. Darkness is on your planet.

You must recognize that. What you can do for mankind is eliminate the darkness within. If you do this you will transform. This is the way for you to help in the transformation of man.

Your job as a Kabbalist is to assimilate the energies of each Sephroiah. Become one with the symbols. Become one with the magical images. Become one with the gifts.

Assimilate all the positive qualities. Let your life be in complete unity with the living tree. If you do this you will become the Adam Kadmon. Your life will be transformed. Your life will then be in complete alignment with your beloved.

So rise to this occasion. Throw darkness out of your life. Become free.

I'm always at your side. Over time you will see this.

My blessings are with you.

Forever love Kamael

We are the protectors. We protect those of the light. What a grand opportunity you have. If you embrace Geborah you will be fully protected.

What an incredible blessing. Can you imagine something like that?

We are here to protect you from your enemies the dark forces. The more you embrace the light the less you will encounter dark forces. You have an army at your service. There are many things you don't understand.

In time you will. But in the meantime remember we are always with you. The time is now to wake up and recognize that we are here. We are the servants of the light. We are all precious. We all serve in our way. We are all united.

Great things are happening on your planet. We are here to help and assist you. So remember your destiny and fulfill it. We love you.

Tuesday, May 7, 2002

One of the blessings of Geborah is the vision of the natural forces and how to use them.

One of your great masters of Light on your planet is Sai Baba. He has mastered the art of manifesting using natural forces.

He uses the forces of the earth, wind, air, and fire to create. For a man of God, these are open to you. You have at your beckoning all the forces seen and unseen. All the mysteries of life are yours to know.

But there is one trait and character that you must have before you can partake in this. You must develop love and compassion. These are key ingredients for making the cake.

Without love and compassion, your Creations have no meaning. They will be an example of the dark side.

So always walk in the light. Walk arm-in-arm with your beloved. This is the key. All these forces are here to serve you. What a golden opportunity you have.

We love you

When a Kaballist takes a good look at Geborah one of the main traits is overcoming cruelty and destruction.

This takes place in thought, word and deed. Man and his ignorance create cruelty and destruction.

By not embracing the light man consciously or unconsciously walks on the path of darkness. Your planet has seen tremendous amounts of cruelty and destruction. These acts are pure evil and must be stopped. They reflect total ignorance within man.

Man must realize that we are all tied together in the thread of Love. We are all one consciousness. In this state, there is no cruelty or destruction.

The man of God sees the beauty behind all things and acts accordingly. The life of a Kabbalist is of light and harmony. This is the path of the Almighty. May mankind walk this path someday.

Strength and courage are other attributes in Geborah. To face yourself and darkness, you need strength and courage.

Imagine a warrior going to war without strength. How would he ever survive? He would be in a fear-based reality. The odds of surviving would be slim.

But with strength and courage, comes the knowledge that you can do this. You become a Co-Creator. Your will as God's will. You are in complete alignment with serving God.

A servant of God needs strength and courage. This is extremely vital. From the Lord God of your being, humbly request for it. This is your birthright. You were endowed for this. You are a Co-Creator.

There is a battle on your planet. You must realize this. Take up your sword and fight. Fight against Injustice, darkness, and evil.

Throw away all the baggage that is holding you back. Time is of the essence. If you only knew of the crisis of this moment in time.

Be prepared. That is your motto for Boy Scouts. We on the side of light say the same thing.

Open up your heart. We are here to help and assist you. Remember you are not alone.

Today's message is on tearing down the old and building the new. As a Kabbalist, you are learning that you need to tear down your old foundation. It was built on falsehood. Whether you knew it or not but darkness was at its very root. Darkness is ruling this land. Look at the chaos it has manifested on your Earth plane.

A Kabbalist understands this and tears down the old foundation.

He builds a new foundation based on the saying let the Lord's will be my well. You are a co-creator. You are an active participant in bringing transformation to this planet. What a blessing this is.

You have the tools necessary to transform your life. Use these tools.

This is a living tree. So water it daily. Take out darkness from your being.

Live your life in love and compassion. Don't judge your fellow man.

The one who tears down the old and builds the new will be the Adan Kadmon – the divine man.

So the time is now to tear down the old and build the new. Every single moment is special. Know why you are alive. The mysteries of life will be revealed to you.

Message Sathya Sai Baba

You are here to help transform this planet. You and I have done great work together. Great things are happening to you. I'm always with you. You and I come from the same Ray.

We are here only to serve. You are awakening very fast. I am always with you. I will help you bloom like a lotus flower.

I know that you tried over thirty years ago to see me but you have a different path to follow.

You will see me before I leave this planet. You and I have great work to do together. So open up and I'm always with you. You are always invited to be with me.

I love you Sai Baba

Adonai, Adonai, Adonai. What a blessing it is to be alive. We are so fortunate to serve the Almighty. We have come together in the transformation of your planet.

The planet earth is receiving incredible guidance from the hierarchy of light. We have some great news for all.

Sandalphon, Metatron, and Gabriel are on earth to personally help in this transformation. Your planet has not received this kind of blessing for thousands of years.

Your planet is in the midst of a battle between good and evil. Yet the majority of man is wearing blinders.

At this point, the hierarchy of light and the Galactic Federation is focusing all the energies on your planet. It's time as a member of the hierarchy of light to wake up. Every one of you has a particular mission to uphold. Be in touch with the mission and start manifesting your mission.

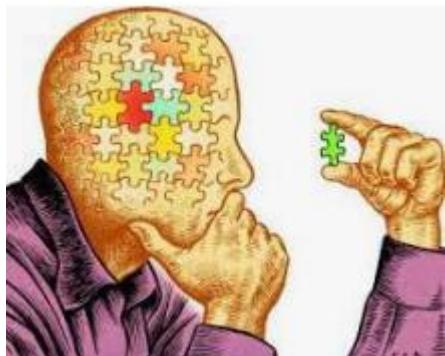

If you only knew how incredible it is to be alive at this time. This is the greatest time to be alive. The harvest is near. I come upon your land two thousand years ago. The fruit is ripe for picking.

If you only knew who is walking on your planet today. So wake up from your slumber.

Arise to this occasion. The battle has started.

It is crucial as you walk on this path that you have critical judgment. You must be able to make decisions every moment of your life. There is a certain junction point in your life where you make crucial decisions. At This

Don't have the rest of the material.

As you learn more about Geborah you will develop more insight into your enemies and discord.

When any kind of discord happens you will feel it and sense it. Pay attention. You have an internal radar to feel this.

Remember evil is your enemy. Evil comes in many different sizes. You must be aware of your surroundings.

When you sense any kind of evil, don't be frightened. We are always here to help and assist you on the way.

As you grow you will become stronger and stronger day by day. So always have faith. We are here to assist you but you must do the work, otherwise, this is not a living tree.

This is not a theory or dogma

"I learned that courage was not the absence of fear, but the triumph over it. The brave man is not he who does not feel afraid, but he who conquers that fear." — Nelson Mandela

The deepest vision of Geborah is to awaken one's true strength and courage and manifest it.

You need these qualities to go further up the tree. It takes strength and courage to face yourself.

All of your excess baggage must be removed. A true spiritual warrior must have these qualities. These qualities do exist inside of you. They must be brought to the surface.

We are here to help you see them for yourself.

Pray that you may find them within yourself. True strength will take you towards your goal. It will lead you further inside of yourself.

Thursday, May 16, 2002

One of the strengths of Geborah is confidence. You need the confidence to go up the tree. Confidence allows you to proceed.

You will not hesitate with confidence. With confidence, you have a goal and work towards it.

It doesn't matter the obstacles you face. You just walk right through them. This is a very vital key. You do not want to waiver on this path. You want to be centered at all times.

Confidence will reveal to you the way. There will be no hesitation. So pray for confidence this will help you on the way. With confidence the impossible becomes possible. You will be transformed into the Adam Kadmon.

Friday, May 17, 2002

Another strength in Geborah is critical judgment. This strength is necessary. Along this path, you need to know what is of the light and what is of darkness.

You must have this kind of discrimination. With critical judgment, you can see clearly. You are in sync with God. As a human alone it's often difficult to see clearly. You want to see the whole picture.

So by embracing Geborah you will be able to see more clearly. You will be able to manage your affairs easier. You will become more in tune with what's from the light and what's from the darkness. So open up your heart. Let the light in. This will dispel the darkness.

We love you

As a Kabalistic one who embraces Geborah have the initiative to follow through. You must have initiative.

The opposite is self-doubt. One who has self-doubt cannot follow through.

Only a being who has initiative can reach the goal. Discipline is part of the plan. Your Initiative is like a wave that you can catch. You must paddle and catch the wave. One who can catch the wave knows the keys to life.

So one must fully embrace this quality

Wednesday, May 22, 2002

Another strength in Geborah is being active. One who is in line with God performed many different kinds of activities. Each day you are involved with your Kabbalistic work, prayer, family, your work, and exercise.

Each moment is an activity of love. Each moment is an act under the will of God.

Being active equal's action. Every day every hour one's actions are in sync with God. This is the path, the way. If you truly do this you will be set free

Taking up issues is another strength in Geborah. This allows you to take your excess baggage and throw it out of the window.

You can go to the root of your issues and solve them. Imagine you have a thorn in your foot.

This trait will allow you to recognize the thorn and take it out of your foot. So Geborah is about being a spiritual Warrior and taking responsibility for healing oneself. One has the integrity to look within and dispel darkness.

This is truly a gift. Unfortunately, a man on your planet tends to ignore their thorns. They cover it up and bury it. Yet we must confront the darkness. We must let go of our darkness. We must be aware.

So you have this opportunity in front of you. Take this opportunity. Your life will change far more than you can ever imagine.

The voices of Geborah

Friday, May 24, 2002

The opposite of confidence is anger and fear. Anger and fear are weaknesses in Geborah. To proceed, you must let go of these. You must confront them.

If you embrace confidence these will fall apart.

Anger and fear have no place in the life of a Kabbalist. These are negative emotions. You are out of sync with God when you get into these negative emotions.

So always try to be in sync with the will of God.

Look at your anger and let it go. Be confident. You are always protected. If someone did something to you don't get angry. If you do feel it and release it immediately. Don't hang on to it.

Life is a mystery and meant to be solved. By holding onto anger and fear you will never solve it.

Anger and fear will prevent you from reaching your goal. Let It Go. Embrace God's world into your life. You have no idea how glorious it is.

The time is now to embrace Geborah. Don't hesitate. Let go of your baggage. We are here to help you.

We love you

Saturday, May 25, 2002

One of the major weaknesses of Geborah is cruelty. Cruelty is not the work of the light in any shape, way or form. It is the work of ignorance and darkness.

When you are cruel to anyone you have created a distance between you and your creator.

You have created separation. You must stop this. You are distancing yourself from God and embracing darkness.

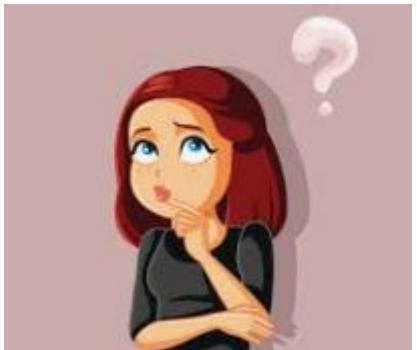

Your whole world at times seems very cruel. The way kids treat each other, the way countries go to war. You as a people have lost your way. You have forgotten who you are.

You must remember that life is precious. It is extremely sacred. You have no right to be cruel. You are ignorant of the laws of nature. So throw away your baggage and embrace the light. May you see the wisdom of these words?

We love you

The voices of Geborah

Monday, May 27, 2002

The opposite of strength is self-doubt. Self-doubt must be eliminated from your being. You must know that you are a co-creator and you must reclaim your throne.

Self-doubt will stop you from reaching your goal. As doubts come in continue with the work. The light will dispel all Darkness. This is the way it has always been. Always have faith in God. This is the key.

Darkness will try to give you as many thoughts that will try to take you off the path. So take proper measures. Do your prayers every day. Concentrate on the tree of life daily. Let go of all your baggage. You will then see who you truly are.

How fortunate you are to see the path. Many people are walking aimlessly in life. They are lost and they think they are found. So be a beacon to this world. Discover yourself. Then you can be a true servant of the light. So take the opportunity to eliminate self-doubt. We are always here to guide you.

Tuesday, May 28, 2002

The opposite of free will is manipulation. Don't try to change or manipulate anyone. This is the law of God.

When you manipulate a situation you are not following the light but you are of darkness. Everyone has free will. When you force your will on others and manipulate others you are not coming from the light. So pay attention.

Always remember that anytime you manipulate someone you are not of the light.

In the future remember to ask for the highest good for that person and respond appropriately.

The opposite of dealing with issues is belligerent. This is a state of total ego. This is a state you want to leave behind. In this state, you can do things that you later will regret deeply in your life.

Belligerent comes from unsettled anger. I'll show you a thing or two. This is no compassion at all. The main thing is to process your emotions. Don't hold on to them. Let them go.

You will never reach your goal if you are belligerent. Therefore keep it out of your life. Embrace God totally in your life. You are a free being.

Welcome to the Sephiroth of Chesed. The magical image is a mighty crown and a throne ruler. The ruler rules with mercy. This is a humble ruler. This ruler has love and compassion for the subjects in the Kingdom.

So concentrate on this ancient symbol. This symbol will reveal to you how to rule your life in love and compassion for all. You are a divine ruler. Your will is under the will of God.

This symbol will show you the mercy and grace of God. It will harmonize the mercy and severity of God. Both Geborah and Chesed work together.

You cannot separate the two. May you be an instrument of peace, love, and mercy. This symbol will help you reclaim your throne. You are a sovereign being who has lost the way. This will show you the path. You will be able to once again rule over your kingdom in love and compassion Greeting. Today is an auspicious day for mankind. Today makes the beginning of a new era for man. Your planet is in turmoil.

Your planet is in chaos. Yet at the same time peace is on its way. Never has there been such an incredible time as it is here on Earth. You have no idea who is walking the Earth. Never before have there been so many incredible beings walking the face of your planet. You are extremely blessed.

Darkness is great on your planet. India and Pakistan are on the verge of an all-out nuclear war. Millions of people would die. The leaders are holding on to their sanity by a thin thread.

So, therefore, we have the forces of good and the forces of evil on your planet. What an incredible drama. This is better than any Hollywood presentation. So what can we do?

We must always be an example of light to this world. Shine Your Light like a beacon. This will be a turning point for man. Be an inspiration to man.

Listen closely to your heart. I am a holder of abundance, glory, and grace in Life. Great abundance is yours for the asking.

The key is to fully embrace God. Let the Lord's will be your will. Abundance is a gift from God. This Sephora will allow you to tune into the divine frequencies of God.

You can develop a special relationship with me. Let your heart feel the grace of God. This Sephora will help balance the mercy and severity of God. May you begin to experience the grace of God moment by moment in your life?

You will begin to see more clearly the glory of God. When you pray or meditate you will slowly open up to the wonders of the Lord. Be patient. Open up your heart. Be like a child.

A child is pure and innocent. Always live in that state. That goal is to always live in the light. Drop your baggage. Let go of your darkness.

The Lord has infinite mercy. As human beings, you are hardwired to experience mercy yet the majority of man has yet to flip the switch.

Man is in a reactive state. Mercy is felt in a proactive state. When a man is proactive the will of God and man is in perfect alignment. It's like there is a faucet that is turned on. Mercy flows through it.

Such is the nature of Mercy. It needs to be turned on. It's like it's always flowing but you need to stand in its shower. What a golden opportunity you have. Open up your heart.

This Sephora will lead you to the mercy of God. I'm the Angel of Mercy. I'm always with you. Daily stand in the shower of Mercy. Meditate and worship daily. Be humble and kind.

Drop all of your excess baggage. We are here to help you but you must take the proper steps to open up your heart

I'm Chasaline. I'm here to bring majesty to your life. May you always see the majesty of life?

The Majesty of man is lost in their ways. They have forgotten how precious life is. You have the opportunity to see this. You have the opportunity to see its great wonders.

How unfortunate that man is just skimming the surface. Man can dive deep within the ocean of life and see the great wonders.

God is there in all its majesty. If you open up you can see that in your life.

You can see the majesty of the sun, moon, and stars.

Every moment contains such an awesome grace. Every moment contains the essence of God. So open up and see for yourself. Your life will be changed forever.

One of the traits of being in alignment with Chesed is increased abundance and opportunities for prosperity.

As you truly discover yourself you will see that life's mysteries are endless. True abundance and prosperity are yours. For a being who is in alignment with God whatever you need to help accomplish your mission on Earth is yours.

Remember to always align your will with the will of God. Don't be like the majority of the world who have lost a sense of themselves. They're busy with the buy, buy, and buy syndrome. Let life provide you with the prosperity and abundance you need to live.

Be in sync with abundance and prosperity. Let go of your ego. If you do you will be more than provided for.

Never forget that you are a servant. Never forget that the mystery of life is yours. What a golden opportunity you have.

As you work with the laws of the universe you begin to see justice in one's life. Every fact, every deed has consequences.

The goal of a human is to be in perfect harmony with the will of God and the universe. Be in perfect sync. This is the goal of human life. In this state, you will see Justice behind all things.

This life is a golden opportunity to discover your true essence. Unfortunately, man has been acting in a reactive state that he has lost the way. As a reactive being man has lost touch with the will of God.

Chaos rules your life. The goal is to discover yourself. By finding out who you are you begin to see justice in one's life. You will see that man is his own worst enemy. Man has completely lost the way.

This is the time to once again discover who you are. So justice does exist. By not paying attention to the laws of God and the universe man has put himself in a precarious position.

If each person on this planet begins to consciously search for God this planet would transform.

To hear and recognize the inner call is truly a blessing from God. The majority of mankind on your planet is truly sleeping at this moment.

They are truly lost and think they are found. God is something to worship on a Sunday or Saturday if at all.

But one who is graced with this is truly blessed. One who dedicates his life and whose will is in alignment with God is extremely blessed.

This is a time when man is about to wake up from his slumber. As a Kabbalist, you have the opportunity to wake up. It's by the grace of God that you are walking this sacred path. Don't take it for granted

This tree of life is extremely sacred. Words themselves cannot describe. So day-by-day listen to your inner calling. Cultivate it so strong that you never miss a beat.

Chesed will awaken to you greater peace and mercy. The deeper one embraces Chesed the deeper one experiences peace and mercy.

Peace and mercy are truly gifts from God.

In your world peace is an unknown thing. People are looking for peace in all the wrong places. Peace resides at the core of your being. By embracing Chesed you will embrace this ultimate peace.

When one experiences peace one experiences mercy. Mercy and peace come from God. So by embracing Chesed, this awakening can occur.

What a glorious day. As you move from Geborah to Chesed you see the balance between severity and mercy in your life. Geborah was learning to tear down the old foundation.

It is cutting away all the old limbs of the tree that no longer serve you. You are in essence pruning yourself. This will allow the effects of Chesed to take over.

This is a new beginning in new growth and movement. Everything in nature reflects this process. The whole universe is active. It follows the natural laws Chesed will show you a new growth and movement that you have never conceived. Open yourself to this new growth. It will take you directly to God.

Every day, every second, every moment is an opportunity to be in alignment with the will of God. This will allow for greater expression. We are here to help and assist you in this precious Journey. Remember only you can start this process. It's only by your will alone. So consciously try to merge your will with the will of God. Be a Co-creator. This is truly an incredible time on your planet. May you truly accept the new growth in your life.

At its deepest level, Chesed reveals a vision of love and power. At the center of everything lives the power of Love.

Without power, there would be no love. Without love, there would be no power.

This is the essence behind all things. So the deeper one goes into the more awakened one will be.

One of the strengths of Chesed is idealism. The more one opens up to Chesed the more a person's life changes to embrace greater ideals.

These ideals are different attributes of God. By embracing Chesed you are incorporating these into your life. These attributes include faith, hope, reverence, humility, compassion, and love. Each one is a gift from God.

Unfortunately on your planet today these ideals are to some extent lost. A man once again must discover his true nature.

A wise man embraces these ideals daily in one's life. This is the key. Open up yourself and the gifts will be open to you.

Chesed will reveal to you the truth behind all things. This truth cannot be spoken. It lies at the essence of your being.

The truth that can be bought and sold is not the truth.

What an opportunity you have to embrace this truth in your life.

As Christ once said the truth shall make you free. This is the supreme law.

Thru this law of the truth, it will reveal loyalty. To express the truth, you must be loyal. You cannot say one word and your actions are dedicated to something else. You must be loyal to yourself and God. This is the sacred law.

You can't serve two masters at the same time. To serve God, you must be aligned with the will of God.

Take heart for what we have spoken.

Patience is the greatest virtue. Everything in the universe has its time and place. Everything requires patience.

Imagine Christ walking the planet over 2,000 years ago. Christ planted the seeds within man and today we are starting to see the fruits of his labor.

Mankind is waking up. What would happen if Christ's everyday pulled the roots up to check on the progress of the plant?

Patience is required. You must learn how to truly be patient. You must learn how to truly enjoy each moment.

Patients over time will allow you to reach your goal.

All manifestations require patience. All creation requires patience. Patience is the main ingredient in life. If you don't have it then try to cultivate it. A wise man appreciates every moment. Make your life glorious.

I love you is the essence of devotion. Devotion is a vehicle to experience the love of the Lord. One is a humble servant of the Lord.

Devotion is the key that unlocks the door.

Everybody has the Lord hidden inside but devotion is the key that unlocks your heart.

How incredible it is that the source of all lies inside yet we search near and far to find it. Devotion is truly a gift from God.

A man who is humble and full of devotion will reach his goal. Both are necessary ingredients. It is very difficult to discover oneself without devotion. It carries the energy to walk this path. It is truly a gift.

Chesed will give you more devotion. This is one of the major attributes.

Therefore spend this time cultivating it. This is the way to help you become a true servant of God.

Endurance is another gift from this Sephiroth. Endurance allows you to reach your goal. Without endurance, it would be extremely difficult.

At times the road of life is extremely difficult. Endurance is the key that gives you the energy to carry on.

This is truly a gift from God. Without it, it would be like a swamp where the water of life is stagnant. Imagine that endurance is like a beautiful river that will carry you downstream. Don't try to fight the river. Let it take you downstream.

Endurance is a different manifestation of Grace. It gives you strength and comfort. It is the force and will that keep you from quitting. I will see you at the end.

So open up your heart. You will truly receive the gift of life.

To reach God you must be committed. You cannot serve two masters. You must be committed to resolving your issues. This is the way.

Being connected is a gift from God. Being connected is like a train on the right track. Without the tracks, the train will never go anywhere.

So totally embrace this gift. Align yourself with this quality. Being connected will allow you to do the highest service to your fellow man. You will be in true alignment with the will of God and the universe.

Remember each one of us has our part in this divine plan. Pay attention to your part and manifested it.

You must be committed to this. This life is meant to be used as the self-expression of God's love. We are here to be Co-creators and to be Proactive. We must be committed.

This path is like riding a huge wave. You must be 100% committed to taking off. You cannot hesitate or else you will experience a wipeout of a lifetime. So be committed. Don't just dabble in the water. Jump in and catch the wave of your life. You will not be sorry.

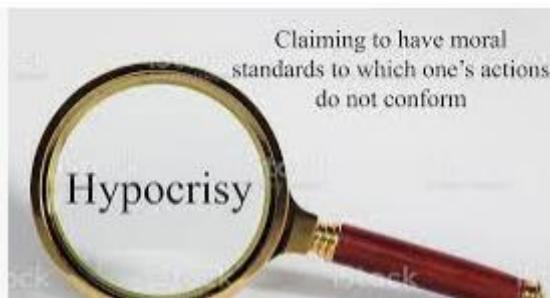

If you are not committed you will not reach your goal. This is how important it is. Therefore do your best at all times. If you fall which you will just dust yourself off and keep on walking.

Always look down this path and keep on walking. This is the way of Christ. This is how one enlightens. Give all your troubles to God. This path is lit up. Don't take any detours. Always be a servant of God.

We love you. Remember he who hesitates is lost. Be connected.

Hypocrisy is a major weakness in Chesed. This is very subtle at times. Hypocrisy is when you believe in God and dedicate your life to God but your actions do not reflect your words.

In other words, actions speak louder than words. How many people in the name of God have caused incredible Injustice towards their fellow man? On a subtle level, how many times during the day do we stray from the path?

We must always be humble. We must always try to improve ourselves and learn from our mistakes. Just a little bit of hypocrisy inside of us prevents us from reaching our goal.

We must pull the weeds so we can harvest flowers in our life. We must make this a practical tree in our life. We may have the best intentions but we must manifest them through our thoughts and actions. We must be aware at all times

O Ye Kaballastic. Do not get involved in dogma. Dogma is a way where you can't see the forest from the trees.

Be respectful of all religions, paths, and beliefs. Remember there are many different paths to one.

Don't make life so rigid. Expand your horizons so you may see all. Don't take everything at face value as the word of God.

Contemplate and gradually over time you will see if this is beneficial for you. Life is a mystery so be open to it. Don't get so involved in the dogmas of life.

Don't see that your path is the only path. Be open and respectful of all. See God behind everything. Hold on to your vision and walk this incredible path.

Smugness is another weakness in Chesed. Don't be smug. See the love and beauty behind all men. Life is an incredible journey. You are no better or no worse than anyone else. You are all the same through the eyes of the Lord.

Don't think I'm better than this person. Don't put yourself on a pedestal. Look at life with mercy and compassion. This is the true value of Chesed. Life is filled with love, mercy, and compassion.

Smugness takes you away from God. Smugness only reinforces the negative ego. Smugness will make you self-centered.

Listen to your heart and there you will find love, mercy, and compassion for all. This is the goal of life to love all. Love thy enemies. Love can and will transform all.

Self-righteousness is another weakness. Don't puff up your feathers like a peacock? Don't go walking around like thinking I'm superior to my fellow man.

God loves all equally. Don't judge your fellow man. You are truly no better nor no worse than your fellow man.

When you are self-righteous you are embracing your negative ego. You are distancing yourself from God. This is not the aspect that you want to embrace.

When you are full of self-righteousness pray to God for humility, love, mercy, and compassion. This is the true way.

Devotion is the key to overcoming self-righteousness. True devotion will carry you to your Father. This will show you your divinity.

Devotion will help to tune you to the will of God, the will of the universe, and the will of a human. This is truly the way to transform yourself.

Now be aware of false pride. False pride will tear down the foundation that you have built. It will take your house and piece-by-piece start burning down your house.

See the father behind all. Don't get involved in false pride. Always be humble before the face of the Lord. The Lord exists everywhere. Be respectful of all religions and all cultures, races, and traditions.

Love the uniqueness of man. Be diverse in your thinking. Humility is the antidote to false pride.

Daily pray to God for humbleness. Live your life in a humble state. Love your fellow man. This by itself will transform your life.

Remember you are a servant of God. As servants, you are all equal.

Don't embrace bigotry. Don't judge a book by its cover. Love all man. Love all religions. Love the beauty and uniqueness of life.

There is one thread tying us all together. This is the thread of Love. Be open and allow yourself to embrace love daily in your life.

Don't judge someone different than you. Walk in their shoes and you will see the love which ties us all together. They are striving for perfection in their way.

Love them and respect where they are. Be kind, and tolerant, and pass no judgment on them.

For this planet to transform we must see the one in all of life. We must lay down our arms and rejoice in our differences. Rejoice that we are all so different, so unique, and at the same time we are all of the same essences

We love you

Welcome to the land of Daath. The magical image is a Janus and the figure of Isis.

The Janus is a man with two faces looking in opposite directions. This is a very powerful symbol. This symbol helps to convey the hidden meaning of Daath. Daath contains hidden knowledge.

The Janus figure looks in all directions to find the essence of life. This figure is the embodiment of hidden knowledge. It contains all of life's secrets.

It contains hidden knowledge. To cross Daath you need a teacher to guide you over the abyss. The Janus figure will help you to cross this place. You can't do it alone. The Janus figure looks in all directions to help you cross the abyss. This archetype figure contains knowledge that you have never encountered before.

The second figure is the figure of Isis. Isis has wings to fly you directly to Daath. It can take you from one place to another. This is a very ancient symbol. It contains vast sacred knowledge. You must be open to receive this. You must come to Daath with your heart wide open. Leave all of your issues aside. Life is a sacred journey. At this step in the ladder, you must not have any excess baggage. Be true to yourself. Let go. Be extremely humble. You need a teacher to guide you across the abyss.

The magical gifts of Daath are the Book of Knowledge, the Crescent, and the Pentangle

The Book of Knowledge is a very sacred symbol. It will reveal to you the true secrets of life, the knowledge behind all knowledge. It will reveal to you who you truly are.

Embrace this symbol in your daily awareness. This will help you to truly understand who you are. The Book of Knowledge contains all the knowledge of the past, present, and future.

Every event is recorded in this book. It contains the wisdom of all ages. Words cannot describe the awesome wisdom that it contains.

The Crescent is another magical gift to embrace. This ancient symbol has been used for thousands of years. To cross the abyss the Crescent symbol is like the crescent moon in the sky.

The moon controls the ebb and flow of the tides on Earth. The Crescent symbol will help you get pulled by the force field of the abyss and take you through to the other side.

It's like a black hole where the matter gets redirected. On the other side, a brand new universe is being created.

In the same way, Daath will tear away your baggage and rip them to shreds. Only the light of God will survive. On the other side the real you will shine. This experience must be led by someone who has been there before.

Do not enter it by yourself. This is extremely important. Many people have tried by themselves and have ended up insane. So be aware. You need to cross the abyss with a teacher.

So concentrate on the Crescent. You will begin to feel this force field. When you cross the abyss you will be already familiar with it.

The last magical gift is the pentangle. The pentangle will align you to the will of God. It is a very special figure. It contains many-faceted pyramids. It will show you the unity of life.

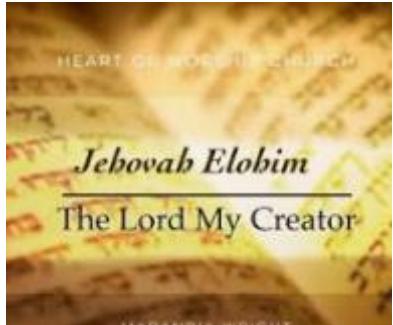

Love mercy and compassion exist. They are not a state of mind. They exist. The symbol represents all that you are. The facets of life will be revealed to you. This path is extremely glorious for those who walk upon it.

Be sincere and know you are privileged. You have a golden opportunity. So walk this path. These three gifts are worth more than the wealth of all the universes. Open up and receive. Be humble. Be a true servant of the Lord.

We love you

The Divine force of Daath Is Jehovah Elohim. This is created through knowledge. Words cannot describe the power, love, and glory of this being.

By aligning yourself with this Divine Force you will be set free. You will be carried across the abyss when the time comes.

This is truly a sacred moment when this happens. Always be humble. Always be full of joy. Let go of your negative ego and personality. Let your light shine.

You are just beginning to see the majesty of this precious moment. Great things are about ready to happen to your planet. Listen to the tides of life. This life is so precious. Live each moment as if it will be your last.

Cherish the life you have. Know that it is only by the grace of God that you are here. Let's go of all your pettiness. It's not worth getting into. Realize that you are a Proactive being. Realize that you are a Co-creator. The decision is yours. Only you can make the choice.

I love you

There are four Archangels for Daath. Michael, Gabriel, Raphael, and Uriel. These are the Archangels of the four directions.

Each direction is associated with one of the elements of nature earth, water, air, and fire.

Earth - Uriel North

Water- Gabriel South

Air- Raphael East

Fire - Michael West

The entire creation is composed of these basic elements. To cross the abyss it is necessary to be in harmony with these Archangels and their directions and elements.

One's whole being should be aligned to the will of God, the will of the universe, and the will of the human. To cross the abyss it is wise to learn how to be in this state

You need to let go of your negative ego. You need to let go of forcing things to make them happen.

To cross the abyss one should be open, humble, and in a proactive state. Let your issues drop like flies. Be open and sincere. Remember not to enter the abyss without a physical teacher.

This is required. You may familiarize yourself with the boundaries of the Abyss but don't go in. Daily do your prayers and rituals. Let your focus be on God. Let's go. Trust in God. This always works.

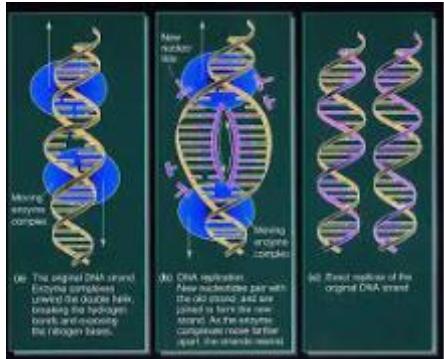

If it doesn't work according to plan remember there is a master plan. The most important thing is always to be in alignment with God. This is the key. Before you begin your day align yourself with God.

This life is so incredible. Let go of your reactive nature. Trust and let go. When you fall by the wayside, pick yourself up and keep on walking. Learn from your mistakes and gain wisdom from them. Day by day you will be more in tune with God.

We love you

The spirits of Daath are the Serpents of knowledge. Knowledge allows you to shift your perception of something.

It allows you to see the forest from the trees. It's like climbing a mountain. The higher you climb the better the view.

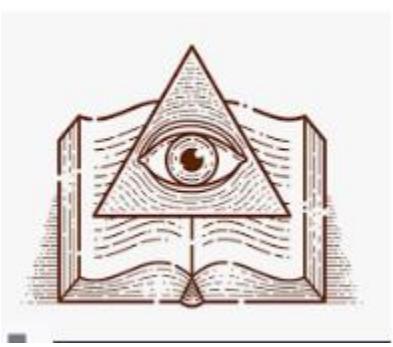

The more knowledge you acquire your perspective on life changes. You begin to see things more clearly.

It's like you rise above the fog in the valley. This is why it's so important to discover who you are. Self-discovery allows you to climb to depths you never imagined. Knowledge is acquired every step of the way.

You must learn to live as a pro-active being. You must be a co-creator. Before you cross the abyss make sure your baggage is sorted out. We are here to help you in your quest.

Daily align yourself to the will of God, the will of the universe, and nature. Look at yourself in the mirror. Go to the root of your fears. Learn to control your emotions. We will guide you.

Thursday, July 4, 2002

One of the attributes of Daath is hidden knowledge. When a person crosses the abyss one can access the secrets of all. This knowledge is hidden through a veil.

The veil covers the knowledge as a cloudy day covers the sun. This knowledge brings you into a greater sense of being.

You are aligned with the will of God and nature. The struggle between the positive ego and the negative ego diminishes. This is why preparation is so important. You must make sure you have let go of all of your baggage.

This is very important. You must be sovereign. This is the highest and most sacred knowledge. The only one who is pure at heart may enter. So pay attention. Let go and be like a child.

Another attribute of Daath is past life information. This is somewhat of a misnomer and highly controversial.

The Hierarchy believes that a human comes here once and only once.

You have only one opportunity here on Earth. Past life information relates to a life where in the past you were a guide to someone else. You experience the whole life of that person.

It's like you participated in that person's life. In essence, you were a guide. This has happened many times throughout one's spiritual life. Yet the soul gets born once and only once.

It is born in this world to go back to its source. This is why the Brotherhood and Sisterhood of Light say it's a misnomer. You are here physically only once yet as Guides you may experience numerous lifetimes guiding someone else. More than one Guide may assist someone which usually is the case.

So, in reality, Daath opens us up to the numerous roles we held as guides. We can remember life as that person we assisted. This makes the opportunities of this life a thousand percent more important.

Each life is sacred. Each moment is sacred. We only have one time to perform service to heaven on Earth. When the body dies the soul goes on to a greater School.

The goal is to go back to the source. This is yet another classroom. So by the grace of God, we are here. We are here to serve the Almighty. We continue in this sacred Journey
Love the voices of Daath.

When a person opens up to Daath creative expressions are opened up. This allows for even greater expression in your life. Each moment is a sacred moment. Each moment is an opportunity to be a co-creator.

This is the highest self-expression known to man. You are a co-creator. You have been created in the image of God. Your creativity lies within just waiting to be tapped into.

Daath will help you unleash that capability. So let go of your baggage. Be a true channel for God. Look at each moment. Don't react and run old tapes. Process and learn to release old buttons that charge you. This will lead you back home.

Council meeting

What a great time to be alive. It looks like the darkest hour yet the sun is about to shine. A New Dawn is about to happen. Man will transform one by one. The seeds were planted a long time ago. The harvest is about to begin

We as the hierarchy have been looking forward to this moment for a long time. We knew that you were created in the image of God. Yet man has lived in a reactive mode for thousands of years.

Now is the time to reclaim your divinity. Now is the time to come back home. Get rid of your excess baggage. It will no longer serve you. Now is the new beginning for humankind.

Trust and heal yourself. Become a true Living God. Overcome all your issues. We are here to help and assist you but you must yield your sword. In other words, you must conquer yourself. You must face your monsters. This is a true spiritual warrior. We are on the sidelines watching the game. You are the ones on the field playing the game. We can only watch you.

So open up your heart. Roll up your sleeves and start to release your old buttons. A New Dawn is about to occur. We do not doubt that you can do this

Love the Christ

When a person crosses the abyss they will have greater vision and perception. The veil will be lifted. It's like a foggy day. The sun is still shining but you cannot see it.

If you rise high enough you will see the sun. By crossing the abyss you will have the opportunity to have greater perception and vision. It's like you are moved from the valley to the mountain.

You have a higher perspective in life. The air is more clear and pure. This will assist you in your transformation.

A greater vision and perspective will help you see the majesty of life. You will see that we are all tied together by the thread of love. All of life is woven with this material.

So we humbly request that you let go of your baggage.

We love you.

Daath will give you the knowledge and information that will increase your wealth and information.

Because one's will is aligned with the will of God and the universe, one is open to abundance.

This is the law of Life. Man must discover true abundance within. By crossing the abyss one begins to see greater abundance in one's life. The veil has been lifted.

You are now at the mountaintop looking down. You have great vision and knowledge. You begin to see how everything gets tied together through the thread of life.

Knowledge can freely flow to you because you have cleared yourself of all excess baggage. You feel the grace of God in your life.

In this state, you follow and are in time with the natural laws of abundance. Prosperity flows to you with ease. Remember abundance is always there. You just have to tap into it. This is the law. In this state, you are aligned with the will of God and the universe. Abundance is yours.

Daath will allow you to balance the male and female aspects of your life. These need to be balanced in men and women.

Man must learn how to embrace the feminine side and women must embrace the masculine side. They must be in balance.

Each one of us has its perfect ratio which we need to discover. Daath will give you the knowledge and wisdom to discover this ratio inside of you

Man can't only embrace his masculine side. If he does this world will be destroyed. Women need to embrace not only their feminine self but the masculine one as well.

We need both severity and love, mercy and compassion. A world with severity only will destroy itself in the end.

Daath will show you the way how to live in perfect harmony with these two aspects of yourself. They will be in perfect balance. Man has been struggling for thousands of years with this issue. Now you will be able to see with love strength and understanding Daath will give you greater clarity of mind. When a person crosses the abyss you rise to a different state of being.

Your Consciousness is higher. Imagine that Daath Is like a water filter.

Only pure water can enter. The filter takes away all impurities. It is a filter that gives clarity to the mind. Your thoughts are pure and filtered out. This clarity will enable you to see through the eyes of God. Your will and God's will are in sync with each other.

The condition of man's mind today is like swamp water. As you start on the road to self-discovery clarity of mind begins to change and eventually the mind is like sweet rainwater with no impurities.

This is the true state of man. In this state, the monkey-like chatter of the mind is gone. Your consciousness is filled with love, mercy, and compassion.

Saturday, July 13, 2002

Daath will reveal to you your past life's karma. Now, this isn't what you have been told about reincarnation. The mystery schools don't teach about reincarnation.

They teach that man gets born once and only once.

They have been Spirit guides for thousands of years. As Spirit guides, you have felt everything that that person felt. It was like you were that person. So, in reality, there is a fine line between that person and yourself.

You aren't that person but you felt everything that person felt. Yet you know that person inside and out. You were a guide to that person. This is kind of a divine paradox.

So reincarnation is different for the mystery school. Yet you can tap into the lives of those as a spirit guide. You will know and experience their lives.

We are all guided. We all have guides. The goal is to go back home and become aware of this incredible process. This life is a total miracle. Learn to be in total joy in every moment.

We love you.

Council meeting

Today is the new dawn for man. Your world is going through great changes. Your stock market is in the midst of turmoil. This turmoil is reflected in the mass corruption of your business leaders.

Greed has overcome them. They cannot see the forest from the trees. They are like an ostrich who put their heads in the sand thinking they won't be seen. Everything is seen and heard. You can't hide anything. Everything will be brought to the surface. This is the way and the law

Corruption must be revealed. It must be destroyed. Your foundation must be changed. Your leaders are playing a cat-and-mouse game with you. They don't mean what they say.

It's all doublespeak. They are lost. How can they lead the world when they have forgotten who they are?

So your foundation is decaying. A new foundation must be built. This foundation is built on inner awareness. It is built on love, mercy, and compassion for all.

This is the true way. Your world must learn that we are all tied together with the thread of love. If you experience this you will not behave in the ways you do. You will be extremely compassionate with your fellow man.

You will want to serve your fellow man. This is the new beginning for man. Everything that you are not is coming out. All of your falsehoods will come out.

It's better to process yourself and throw away your baggage than for the world to see your corruption. The time is now when there are no more secrets. Everything will be revealed. You may not like this but this is the new beginning.

We highly recommend that you clean up your act. Learn about yourself. Throw away your baggage. Learn to love yourself and your fellow man. We are here to guide you

The deepest level of Daath is the hidden knowledge of the Divine operating in our life. The Divine has always been operating in our life.

Yet we do not have eyes to see. We think we are all alone. Yet man is never alone.

We are all tied together with the thread of love. The divine lives inside us all. Daath removes the veil and we can see the beauty of all. We can see that we are all held by our Father. This is that way back home. Crossing the abyss is sacred and holy. You must prepare yourself.

This is one of the most important steps you will ever take. Don't take it lightly. You can never over-prepare but you can under-prepare. To have this deepest level you must let go of all your baggage.

All the issues must come up and be resolved. This is the way. Your baggage will hold you back. It's like carrying a ton of rock on your shoulders. This is why your energy level seems so low.

Darkness cannot enter the light. Your goal is to let go of all the darkness within. You must embrace your monsters and let them go. Only then will you walk through the fire.

So Daath will reveal to you this hidden knowledge but you first must prepare yourself. Spend the next few months clearing your issues

We love you.

One of the strengths of Daath is open-mindedness. To cross the abyss one must be open. A being who is living in a reactive state is close-minded.

They can only see the world with their tainted glasses. They are set in their ways.

These belief systems are extremely limited. They can't think outside the box.

One who embraces Daath is a pro-active being. They are co-creators. The mind is free and open. This being realizes that everything is a miracle. They realize the beauty behind all. A pro-active being will think outside the box.

Their will is aligned with the will of God. These two states, a reactive being, and a proactive being depend on how open you are. An open mind is free. It sees a thread holding all of life together.

A close mind is a reactive being. It is lost and thinks it's found. It has lost its true identity. The mind creates a separation between God and itself.

The next strength in Daath is the willingness to face Karma. What does this mean? This means you are willing to face your issues. You are willing to look at your excess baggage. To cross the Abyss you must let go of all excess baggage. This is the way.

This must be a concentrated effort. We all have baggage to look at. Daath's strength will give you the courage and insight into what's holding you back. Then you can easily let go of your issues.

These issues are like magnets that will bring these traits to your life. Don't take it personally. When an issue comes up, face it and be cool, calm, and collected.

Don't react. Just look at that issue and command from the Lord God of your being to let go of this baggage. You do not need this baggage any longer.

You can do this. Just learn to look at your issues and resolve them. Face them and throw them away. This baggage is extremely heavy and wears you down. You don't need this heaviness in your life.

So totally trust in God. By the time you cross the abyss make sure you have let them go in your life.

The last strength in Daath is the courage to express themselves. This means you are not afraid to express your Divinity. You are not afraid to be who you truly are. You are not afraid to express your feelings and emotions.

You can express your deepest dreams. Daath gives you the courage to do so. You are a unique and different soul and can express it in this world.

Wednesday, July 17, 2002

One of the weaknesses of Daath is doubt. Doubt is one of the main components which will prevent you from crossing the abyss.

You must have faith and trust that you can cross. Doubt is a thorn that must be taken out.

It keeps you in a reactive mode. It doesn't want you to trust in yourself and God.

Remove doubt. You can do it. You have come so far. You have faith and determination inside of you.

You are a co-creator. Reclaim your throne. Reclaim your Divinity. These are the most important steps you can take in your life. Doubt will keep you from reaching your goal. So trust in God and you will be taken across the abyss.

Fears are another weakness. Fears prevent you from reaching your goal. By aligning yourself with the will of God you will let go of all your fears. Let God be your partner. You don't have to stand all alone.

When you stand with God you dare to throw away your fears.

Remember you are never alone. You just think you are. Find God inside of you and you will never be alone.

Let go of your fears. They will never help you or serve you. Your fears are limiting you. They put you in a fearful state where you are separated from God. This is the mission of fear to separate yourself from your divinity.

Now is the time to let go of fear. Throw away your baggage.

Another weakness in Daath Is fanaticism. This is a practical path. If you are a fanatic you cannot see the forest from the trees.

You become diluted. If you are fanatical about anything you lose your perspective on life. You are wearing tinted glasses. You may think you see clearly but you don't. This is why the path of a Cabalistic you must be level-headed.

You must have discrimination. You learned about discrimination in Malkuth. This is very important to embrace this in your life.

This is a living tree. This is a practical path. You must embrace all these qualities in your life.

Being a fanatic will eventually take you off the path. This is an attribute that you don't want to embrace. In your world, people are fanatical about their religions and God. Yet millions of people have died in the name of fanaticism. I'm right and you are wrong. God is not a fanatic and neither are you.

The Thread of Love ties us all together respectively of our race, color, and creed. Yes, a fanatic expects everyone to be just like him. We all are different and unique.

How do you expect if you are a fanatic to see the uniqueness if you are in this state? You never will and this is why your world is in such a sad state.

Your fanatics expect everyone to be just like them. This is not the way to God. This is fanaticism pure and simple. So don't be a fanatic. Embrace all the strengths of each Sephroiah. Then and only then you will not be fanatical in any shape, way, or form.

Also, let go of apathy and blame. Apathy will never get you to your goal. It's like driving your car on the freeway of life and taking an exit to a rest area. A rest area is to take a short nap or just relax for a while.

It is not your final destination. Yet many people just pull off the freeway and stay there for the rest of their life. Don't be stagnant. Your car is meant to be driven. Don't let your car just sit there and decay.

You must take proper action. This is the path of being a Co-creator. As a Co-creator, you must work in the four worlds.

Apathy will not allow you to continue being a Co-creator. It will stop you in your tracks. It's like quicksand. You will sink more and more into it.

So if you experience apathy let it go. Do what you can to get rid of it. By now you have learned the tools to get yourself out of this situation. So take proper action.

Next do not blame others or most importantly yourself. Let bygones be bygones. Let go of the past. Let go of all the past incidents in your life. It doesn't matter if you were the cause or if someone did something to you.

Let it all go. Live in the moment. This is extremely practical. Always embrace love. Be a co-creator, not a reactive being. A reactive being always blames others.

They will blame others for their misfortune or they will blame themselves. A Creator does not blame others or himself. In this state how can you blame others? You can't.

So Moment by moment we oscillate between these two states. You are learning how to be a Co-creator twenty-four hours a day. This is the goal. So don't be hard on yourself.

This is an evolution that is taking place. You are experiencing both sides of the coin. So realize this. You can do this. Remember you must take practical steps. You must learn how to create through the four worlds of creation.

Everything must go through these four worlds. This is how creation takes place.

Stop look and listen. Do what you have to do to get out of this state.

We love you.

The magical image of Binah is a mature woman, matron, and Crone.

The mature woman represents a woman who is sovereign, wise, full of compassion, and in total charge of her life. There is no immaturity in any such way.

This woman knows how to laugh and cry. She is not afraid to face her issues and to resolve them. She loves all. She is full of love and compassion. This woman has faced her issues squarely in the face.

She has knowledge about this world and beyond. It seems like she has the embodiment of creation. This mature woman has given birth and devoted her years to raising her children.

She knows firsthand what it takes. She knows when to listen and when to speak. She has nothing to prove. Her negative ego was let go a long time ago.

She lives her life in harmony with the will of God and the universe. Therefore she lives in complete harmony. She is in a state of love, mercy, and compassion. She is in harmony with both Geborah and Hessed. She can be quite stern at times when she has to be.

She does not preach but teaches by example. This mature woman believes that actions speak louder than words.

Because she has been through the incredible process of maturing she has compassion for humankind. She knows that we all have issues to face. By facing our issues we learn to become more mature in our being.

An immature woman doesn't face her issues. She blames others for her problems. This person does not have a stable mature nature. She is in a negative ego state. Therefore everything comes and goes nothing is stable.

The mature woman is a co-creator, and proactive. She has explored the mysteries of life. She knows that she is a co-creator and is humble and grateful. She is in direct contact and connection with her Father.

The matron is a magical image that represents the motherly aspects of nature. It is the mother herself in all of her glory. A matron is the head of the household.

It is the one who controls and is responsible for maintaining and directing the family unit. The mother is responsible for the mothering of creation. She gives birth to all of creation.

She is responsible for raising her creation with love, mercy, and compassion. This is her master role. She is the mother of the guardian of creation.

Because she has birth all, she understands all. She understands her creation. She is beyond wisdom and knowledge. Words cannot describe that state.

She understands the conditions of humanity and has total sympathy for all. She knows that her children must learn the lessons of life on their own. Each one must become enlightened by their work. She encourages us like a coach but we have to play the game.

She is there to listen and scold. She is there to hold you when you are all alone. She is there all the time because everyone comes back home. This is the matron. Words do no justice on talking about it.

The crown is another magical image for Binah. The Chron represents the tribal elder who mastered life. She is old yet has mastered all of life's lessons. She is beyond wisdom.

The Chron has gone through all life's development from birth, childhood, and being an adult. She has brought knowledge and wisdom into her daily life. The Chron represents complete majesty over her life. The Chron represents the female aspect of Christ. Both of these faced their greatest demons and had total mastery over them.

The Chron is a being who loves all. Both man, woman, and child feel the love, mercy, and compassion from her. She is total power yet it is filled with love.

In our culture, the Chron represents a hag. We in this world are so depressed about getting old we take a symbol like this and destroy it. We are afraid of our death, our aging process. We look at the old and despise them. We have old people's homes.

Yet the Chron is old. It is wiser than you will ever imagine. This archetype symbol will show you death itself and life itself. It will show you the secrets of life.

To truly embrace Binah you must embrace these through these magical images. This will bring you to be in a complaint alignment with Binah.

Council meeting

Greetings. It seems like your planet especially the United States is experiencing the bringing out of corruption and greed. Never has your country seen such events like this.

This has caused many to wonder when will this ever end. You need to lay a new foundation in your life. This foundation must replace the present foundation of greed that has pervaded your society.

Your present-day CEOs have lost their innocence and compassion. They rule with an iron fist. They have no compassion for their fellow man. Not all companies are like this.

There are incredible examples of companies that embrace the new foundation of man. Yet many are being exposed for what they are. Leaders will rape billions for their self-interest.

They have no interest in their fellow man. They feel they can cheat and steal. They can change the books at their whim. Fortunately, all of this is coming to the surface. It is being exposed.

This is the new beginning for mankind so we do need a new foundation. The old ways are about to be destroyed. Society will not tolerate these old ways.

They will pull out all the money on corrupt companies. This is a good thing. This is like the fish coming to the surface.

During this time nothing is hidden. It's like we are all standing naked.

So rejoice to see that we can change this world. Your world is not going to end. Your world is transforming before your very eyes. Justice will prevail. Peace will be on your planet. Man shall learn to live in harmony with each other

The magical gifts of Binah are the cloak of concealment, the robe of many colors, and the Yoni.

The cloak of concealment will reveal to you the hidden secrets of life. It will show you the Divine Mother aspects of God. The cloak will nurture you and protect you. It will allow you to be free like the wind and at the same time your society will have no idea of the state you are in. You are protected and you contain the essence of life.

This cloak is woven with the threads of love. It's filled with love, mercy, and compassion. It contains the essence of Binah.

The robe of many colors contains the essence of Binah. It contains all the colors of life. Life has many different colors. This contains the rainbow of life. Each color has an attribute that you can attune to.

This is no ordinary robe. The Divine Mother herself made the robe for you. It contains all the Divine strength of Binah.

The Yoni represents the essence of creation. All of creation is birthed by the Divine Mother. It will reveal to you the secrets that man has forgotten. It contains the essence of creation.

Words cannot explain or do any justice to this gift. Dive deep within your heart and pick up the pearl within. Then you will realize the value of this gift.

The Divine force of Binah is Jehovah Elohim. All of creation is born and created by the Divine Mother. Everything from the primordial strands of DNA to the creation of universes has been created by the Divine Mother.

Never underestimate this fact. Binah contains the essence of the mother's wisdom of creation. It brings balance to Chomak, which contains the Power of Love, while Binah's power is the birthing process of all creation.

All worlds are governed by these two aspects of God, the Divine Mother, and the Divine Father. Beyond this is Ensof which can never be put into words. How fortunate you are to come this far.

This is the secret of creation. You have the opportunity to be aligned with the Divine Mother of creation. So pay attention and embrace Binah.

The Archangel of Binah is Archangel Tzaphkiel. The Divine Mother is the protector of good. Love is the true emotion emanating from all of creation. Love is the fabric of life like cotton. Man and his ignorance have forgotten to be in total harmony with love.

Love is that true tool to overcome evil. It will stop evil in its tracks. Tzaphkiel is the Archangel of Binah who is directly aligned with the Divine Mother. His message is to use the power of love to overcome evil.

By aligning yourself with Tzaphkiel you will help overcome the darkness. You must embrace the light. This is the true goal for man. Man must discover that he is a co-creator.

You are not a reactive being. Unfortunately, this is the state of man. Align yourself with Binah and you will discover that you are a co-creator

The spirit of Bena is Aralim. They assist the Divine Mother in protecting Mother Earth. They give substance and understanding. These secrets are the protectors of men and women.

A mother will always protect her child. In the same way, the Divine Mother will always protect her children. These Spirits assist the Divine Mother to protect us and the planet earth.

For added assistance place your awareness to these Spirits. Realize that these magnificent beings are there. This will help you with your enfoldment. So pay attention. These Spirits can help you in ways that you can't even imagine. But you must be aware of them.

Saturday, July 27, 2002

One of the attributes of Binah is the understanding of sorrow, sacrifices, and burdens. The Divine Mother has total love, mercy, and compassion for all of creation.

This is the Supreme Mother. As you begin to assimilate the qualities of Binah you will begin to understand the sorrows of man. You will see mankind in its present condition. You will see the sorrows. This will give you great compassion.

Man in their ignorance has cut themselves off from God. This is the greatest sorrow. You are a representative of God. If you came this far up the tree and crossed the abyss then it is your responsibility to be a true instrument of God.

You will see the burdens of humanity. You will see the sacrifices that humanity makes. Cultivate compassion and empathy for your fellow man. Now it's by grace alone that you have found your way back home. Be like a lighthouse to show humanity the way back home.

In Binah, you will understand all the mother types of wisdom. You will begin to see the Divine mysteries of your mother. You will see that the mother represents all of creation. You will understand the whole birthing process.

What a miracle life is. In Binah, you will truly begin to see the beauty of creation. Behind creation lies the Divine mother. Words do not describe her beauty. You can tap into this stream of awareness

The Divine mother has been lost in your culture for thousands of years. You are fortunate indeed to discover the awareness of her. Binah will truly bring you into the awareness of your mother.

So open up your heart to your Divine Mother. Fell her compassion and incorporate it into your life. This is the way.

We love you

Console Meeting

Welcome, Adonai Adonai Adonai. What a magnificent day. Great things are happening on your planet. People from all races, creeds, and religions are beginning to see that the future of man depends upon our own choices.

We just want peace on this planet. Man must want peace. This is a huge surge within man. Humanity wants to take the next step. Many new teachings are coming. Each day brings a new awareness to man.

How fortunate you are to have the ability to come this far during this time. This is a new beginning for humanity. You have been fortunate to be involved in this process.

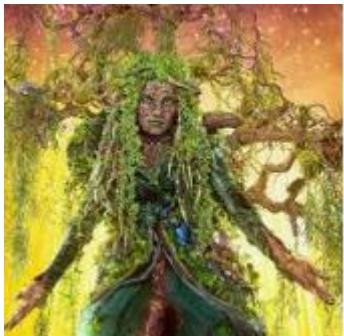

So be a beacon of light. Carry the torch that I did two thousand years ago. Each one of you is handpicked.

So let's work together you and me. Let's bring peace to this planet.

I love you

Binah will reveal to you a deeper relationship with Mother Nature. As you know the entire creation is birthed through the Divine Mother. Your planet Earth contains the consciousness of the Divine Mother.

You have the golden opportunity to develop a deep relationship with Mother Nature. Every leaf, every stream, every animal is sacred and holy. Your American Indians realized this.

Yet modern-day man has forgotten. You have the opportunity to be aware once again of the divine connection between you and Mother Nature. Words do not describe that experience. All of nature is divine.

All of nature contains the presence of the Divine Mother. You have lost contact with me. Your religion focuses solely on the Father why do you ignore the Mother? You are sawing off the branch you are sitting on.

If you destroy nature then you are destroying yourself. Where will you go? It's time for man to be in balance with the Father and Mother. It's time to live in love, mercy, and compassion.

Don't be a reactive being. This has not gotten you anywhere. But the time is now to be a Co-creator. The time is now to cherish this experience of living on Earth. You are here to serve.

Take advantage of that. As you embrace Binah you will embrace life and Mother Nature. You will see the secrets of life.

This is a new birth for you. From this birth, you will understand great secrates. This birth will reveal to you the Divine Mother. All of creation comes through her. You have chosen to be born again in a sense.

This new birth allows you to see the secrets of life. You will see the Divine Mother in all of creation. What a glorious opportunity. You have the opportunity to discover secrets not known to man. You will see that Divine Mother behind everything. What a blessing. So open up to Binah. Throw away your baggage. This will set you free.

Love the Divine Mother

Monday, July 29, 2002

The deepest level of Binah is to awaken a vision and understanding of the process of birth and death. The entire universe follows this process.

Everything is born and eventually dies.
Everything goes back to the source.

Everything is birthed by the Divine Mother. All the stars, universes, and galaxies are birthed through the Divine Mother.

The spark of life is contained in all. Yet the man on your plant does not have this vision and understanding. What a blessing it is when you see the Divine Mother in all.

Behind the Divine Mother lies the Father the source of all. Yet the Power of Love comes through the Divine Mother. Now all creation must eventually go back to its source. This is the process of birth and death.

Yet man can be co-creators. They can know the Divine Mother and Divine Father while alive. This is truly a blessing. What a fortunate one who has this insight. Few beings are open to this.

So this is Binah at the deepest level. This is yours. So open up your heart and see this great puzzle. Only you can put the pieces of the puzzle together.

Tuesday, July 30, 2002

One of the strengths of Binah is patience. A true Mother has a lot of patience. A true Mother will allow you to make mistakes so you may learn.

She will intervene if you are about to harm yourself. The Divine Mother's essence is patience. Everything has a master plan.

This virtue must be embraced otherwise you will be impatient. Being patient is a co-creator, a pro-active being while being impatient is a reactive being. You must learn to be able to detect both of these states. Man oscillates between both of these states.

Patience is truly a gift of God. Imagine Christ 2000 years ago planting seeds in the hearts of man. He had tremendous patience. An impatient man would have planted the seeds and would have given up in a short period.

Now we are about ready to enjoy the fruits of the Harvest. So you see patience is truly a virtue. It is impeccable. It knows when to wait and when to respond.

Impatiens only know how to react. No intelligence or wisdom is backing it up. This is the state of your world. The world is changing. People are slowly waking up from their slumber. A new dawn is about ready to appear. Humanity will once again embrace the Divine Mother and Divine Father. Heaven will be here.

So remember to be patient. When you are not you are in a reactive state.

The next strength in Binah is silence. The opposite is greed. Silence is truly golden. All wisdom and understanding come from silence. Everything in the universe both known and unknown comes from silence.

Silence will put the soul totally at ease. There will be absolutely love, peace, mercy, and compassion.

Now the opposite is greed. Greed comes from a total lack of silence. It's like the door to silence is closed. Mankind then lives his life in a completely reactive state of being. All the doors are closed within. A person in this state cannot be logical.

Some beings are obsessed with greed. They can't see the forest from the trees. Greed is a fire that consumes you. It takes you away from the light. It's like a dark hole where all light is taken out.

Silence will bring you back to your home. It will reveal to you who you truly are. This is one of the greatest strengths known to man. It will truly set you free. It doesn't matter if you are rich or poor.

Silence will reveal to you the secrets of life. It will show you the greatest wisdom and understanding known to man.

So open up your heart to silence.

*Whoever is faithful in small matters will be faithful
in large ones.*

LUKE 16:10 GNT

The next strength in Binah is faithfulness. The weakness is the fear of the future. When you have total faith in God you will not be afraid of the future.

Only a reactive being is afraid of the future. A person who has total faith is aligned with the will of God. In that state what do you have to be afraid of?

Because a man doesn't know himself he is afraid of the future. The future is unknown. It's a whole uncharted territory. Yet a being of God loves the unknown. It is a joy and an adventure. It is a quest.

Binah will show you the way to have total faith. It is an experience. It is not just a word. Behind that word lies an experience that can change your life. It can take you away from the fear of the future to a state where all you can see is God.

So open up your heart. Open up to the mysteries of Life. Open up to the Divine Mother. Ride the waves of life.

We love you

The voices of Binah

Nurturing is another strength of Binah. The Divine Mother's entire essence is nurturing. A mother always nurtures her children.

This is a basic law in life. When your will is aligned with the will of God you will be more nurturing. It's as simple as that. A being is fortunate to be aligned with Binah. This will bring you in direct contact with the strength of nurturing.

You are living on a male-dominated planet. It needs to acquire more nurturing. God never wants suicide bombers to kill innocent children. He does not take sides.

God is neither Hindu, Jewish, Muslim nor Christian. He is beyond what you can ever imagine. In your world, you think God takes sides. People died in the name of God. Being a martyr is not in sync with the will of God.

A true mother will nurture her children and the society around her. This is truly the way. Can you imagine how the world would change if everyone would be filled with nurturing? This world would change in an instant. Violence will never solve any problems

Yes at times there is a need to fight or to protect yourself. But when it comes to politics you're not doing too well with nurturing. It is corrupt. That's not to say all politicians are corrupt but the system is.

You are sawing off the branch you are sitting on. Two weeks ago the United States government passed a law that they would use cellular low frequencies in the ocean.

You will in effect kill all mammals in the ocean. You will have to stop this nonsense. This is when Mother Nature will fight back. You have no right to do this. Nature gets destroyed because of jokers like this. How far away from the truth are you?

Your fisheries pass this into law. How barbaric. How would you like to die with your eardrums rupturing? This is a warning to man.

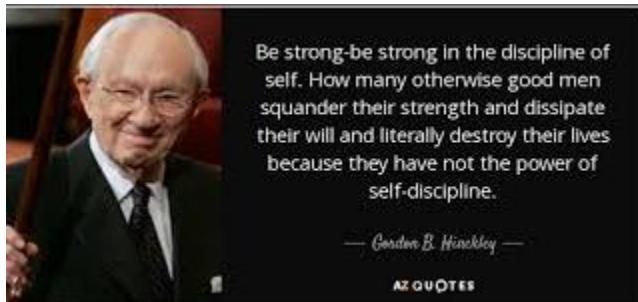

At the same time, the Divine Mother nurtures all. She expects her children to grow up and become responsible citizens of the universe. Have you ever expressed this in your relationships with your fellow man? Have you learned any lessons? This is up to each one of you.

So the choice is yours. Do you accept nurturing in your life?

So the choice is yours. Both your father and I love you.

Today we shall talk about discipline and strength of will. The weakness of this is the lack of competence.

To truly discover yourself you need discipline and strength of will. It's by will alone that I set my mind in motion.

The will is the key. It takes great discipline to cultivate a great will. The will is probably your most prized possession. Without a strong will, you are a reactive being, tossed like a leaf in the wind.

A strong will comes with discipline. There are no shortcuts. Both are absolute ingredients. These are the two main ingredients.

In the rules of mystics, the will is the most valuable asset that you have.

The opposite of these traits is a lack of confidence. This means that you have a weak will and a lack of discipline. You cannot hold any secrets whether it is a sacred ritual, idea, belief, or someone who told you a secret.

This person tries but lacks discipline. The world is full of gossip. This is a major issue that prevents you from discovering your true essence. You must discover within yourself where you can hold on to your true treasure.

This takes will and discipline. Humanity treats this treasure like junk. No wonder society has so many problems. In this state, you are a reactive being.

A co-creator and a proactive being is one whose will is aligned with the will of God and the universe. This takes great discipline. Most of humanity lies counterclockwise to God, the universe, and nature.

This is why we are out of sync. This is why life is so hard on us. We are in a place where we are against the flow of life itself. We are trying to swim upstream all our life.

This is extremely tiring. When you align your will to the will of God we are swimming downstream. Life is easy and carefree. We discover the true jewel that lives within.

We can hold secrets dear to our hearts. People can tell us secrets and we can hold them. In this state, we can hold on to the beauty of life. We realize the absolute importance of will and discipline.

These are the two keys to life. It is by will alone I set my mind in motion. For a reactive being, the mind controls you. You have no say in the matter. You are the fog. You can't see what's true.

You can't rise above the cloud to see where you are going. The mind controls you instead of you controlling the mind.

So this is why it's important to embrace these two strengths. This is so crucial in your development. You must not be lazy. You must be disciplined and ready at all times.

The magical image of Chokmah is the older bearded male figure. This archetype symbol will reveal to you the mysteries of Chokmah.

Chokmah contains father-type information in Binah contains mother-type information.

The Divine Mother is contained in Binah and the Divine Father is contained in Chokmah. This is the Divine Father and Divine Mother in heaven. Beyond that lies Keter which is the En Sof that no words can describe.

For centuries humanity has depicted God as an older bearded male figure. This is an extremely powerful symbol. All the attributes are contained in this symbol. The wise man or woman would contemplate this.

As you know Chokmah contains all the information about the Father. These qualities are infused into this archetype symbol. Spend time concentrating on this symbol daily. It will bring you in tune with Chokmah.

This symbol will help to reveal to you a more sacred and direct communication with your true Father. How fortunate you are. This is opening up the keys to life.

You are given the combination to open up the safe. What a Divine privilege. Do not take it for granted. This is the highest honor you can receive. You are given the keys to the universe. Realize how fortunate you are.

So open yourself to this magical image. You will be eternally grateful.

Council meeting

Greetings all glory to the Divine Father. What a golden opportunity we have. You have all been chosen to be ambassadors. You are the one who deserves to help humanity in this great transformation.

Be ever so humble. Learn that it is a privilege and honor to serve in this capacity. You are the beacons for man. You don't have to try to change anyone. There is no converting only self-discovery.

This is a great honor. You are all created by the same Mother/ Father. There are no differences between you. You are all the same in their eyes.

Cultivate love, Mercy, compassion in your life. This will align you with the will of God and the universe.

This the experience of God. Love your fellow man. Have compassion for all. Your service is to help and bring humanity to a state of self-awareness and self-knowledge. Do not be arrogant or filled with ego. Leave your negative ego behind.

Do not try to prove your superiority over anyone. Yes, you are special but everyone is special. You are always to remain humble. Look at your actions and fine-tune them.

Go over your actions for the day. If you fall pick yourself up. Dust yourself off and carry on. You all have baggage that you must face and unload.

Remember that you can do it. You have been chosen. You did volunteer for this service. So let it happen. Do whatever it takes to make it happen in your life.

Daily pray the Lord will is your will and make that happen. Stop, look, and listen in your life. If you stop for an instant without re-acting you can control everything. You will not be a reactive being. You will be a Co-creator, a Proactive being.

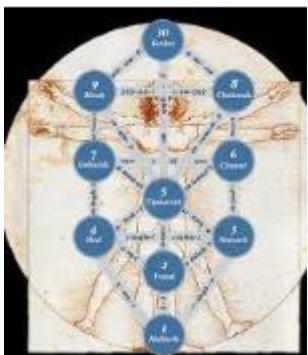

These are some tips that we provide to you. It may be simple but the truth is simple. You are so complicated. A baby has no baggage but over time carries a tremendous amount.

So remember always to be humble. Pray to God for assistance. Be focused and be in sync with the will of God. Your life will flourish. Get rid of the baggage in your life. Ask your guides for assistance. They will coach you but remember only you can play the game. They are on the sidelines.

So my blessings are with you.

The magical Gifts of Chokmah are the scepter of power, staff, and phallus. These three gifts are the keys to Chokmah. They contain all of life's mysteries.

This is the Father God's energy while Binah is the Mother's energy. Usually in your society, the Male is what people consider God. God is both Male and Female. God is beyond all comprehension.

The scepter of power will bring you in tune with the power of creation. As you know all of creation is birthed through the Mother. The scepter of power contains this essence. It reveals to you the secrets of creation.

It will show you how you can truly be a co-creator. These same energies can work through you consciously. The staff is a gift that gives you authority. It gives you balance.

With this balance, you rule with love, mercy, and compassion. Without these qualities, you are a tyrant. Power itself is not the answer. The staff will show you the keys and the mysteries of life.

You will be blown away by the infinite glory of God. You will see the essence of free will in all of creation. A staff allows you to have total compassion for all. You want all to see the glory of God everywhere.

The phallus contains the seed of life. All of life comes from this seed. This seed of power gives birth through the Yoni of the Divine Mother. This is how universes are born. This is the sacred dance of life.

The entire Western world is obsessed with sex without knowing the true beauty behind it. It's like humanity is playing the same old song over and over. After a while, it gets completely insane.

But the phallus will show you that love is the Divine force in life. Life is truly a mystery. Your world is obsessed with sexual acts while you are just skimming the surface. For them it's physical.

But making love is the alchemy of life. It is the elixir of creation. It takes males and females to create. In the same vein, all of creation is created through the Mother /Father energies of creation. The phallus will reveal to you these qualities and mysteries.

So accept these gifts unto your life. You will be shown the secrets of Chokmah.

Monday, August 5, 2002

The Divine Force for Chokmah is Jah(Jehovah). This is the Divine Father aspect. This is supreme wisdom. This wisdom is beyond the sun, moon, and stars. It is beyond the universe.

This wisdom has been existing from time immemorial. It exists in all times and places. Behind all creation lies this wisdom.

It is the very essence of life. All knowledge is contained in this wisdom. Words can try to describe it but it is beyond words. This wisdom exists at the very core of your being. It is your very essence. I

It is pure bliss, love, and compassion. It's the very source of life. It's the eternal spring where all creation comes from.

By focusing on Jah over time you will begin to acquire great wisdom. You will begin to see the hidden influences in all of creation.

Man/Woman in this present state of affairs sees only the physical world. They are not experiencing the hidden treasures in creation. At times they may have experienced subtle influences but are not conscious of them.

They are ever so softly. The more a being becomes aware of these hidden influences become more your waking state. You become more aware of your divine nature. You become over time a co-creator.

This is why it's so important to be aware of this wisdom. This is the way to transformation. Jah will assist you with this transformation. So open up to Jah and receive these divine influences. Be a Co-Creator. This is who you truly are.

The Archangel of Chokmah is Raziel. Raziel is an archangel who is here to help answer your prayers. When you pray from the Lord God of your being from the Lord God of your soul at the deepest levels you connect to Raziel to answer all prayers.

True prayer is connecting to the God within. It is connecting to your Divine being. Raziel helps you with this process. There is a place where you are connected directly to the source. In this state, your will and the will of God are in sync.

This is the purpose of life to be in that state. There you can truly serve. Raziel helped in this process. Raziel reveals to you the Holy Spirit. This Spirit exists in all.

Raziel also is the angel of hidden knowledge and concealment. This knowledge exists at the core of your being but unfortunately, man has forgotten his true nature. Raziel will reveal your divine nature. So open up your heart to this Divine Archangel.

The spirit of Chokmah is Ophanim (the wheels). They are the wheels of life.

These divine forces make up the force that is in complete alignment with the will of God and the will of the universe.

You would say the will of God and the universe is contained in these divine forces. The entire universe and beyond contains the spirit of Ophanim. This is the power behind all. This is the glue that binds all together. Words can't describe this pure and perfect state.

These spirits will help you to have a vision of the spiritual forces in action. The goal of life is total self-knowledge and self-mastery. How incredible we can know the secrets of Life.

What an opportunity. Chokmah is the focal point for the Father himself. How incredible it is to know the Divine Mother and Divine Father. So pay attention and try to solve this riddle of life.

Chokmah will reveal to you greater intuition in your life. This intuition will give you the strength and endurance to reach your goal.

Everyone has dreams in their life. You desire this and that.

Yet without intuition, these dreams will never manifest. You must go through the four worlds to be able to manifest anything. Intuition is the driving force that allows you to go from an idea to a thought, to a plan, to action.

Without intuition, you cannot manifest anything. The whole universe and creation were created through the power of intuition. It is the process that drives creation. Intuition is the ability to step on the gas and drive to your destination. You can just sit in your car and drive there.

Beyond all of your dreams lies the seed of intuition. If properly grown it will help you to manifest anything in your life

The greatest dream is to serve God and be in total harmony with the will of God. You are then a co-creator a pro-active being an Adam Kadmon.

So remember that without intuition you will never reach your goal. It requires day-by-day, moment-by-moment action towards your goals.

Council Meeting

This week has been quite an auspicious week. Greetings to all. As you know your planet has been going through tremendous upheaval. The scales of light and darkness are slowly tipping over ever-so-slightly on the side of the light.

This is the first time in a very long time that man has tipped the scales in this matter. From the mystery school overnight several teachers walk through the doors. Their lives will never be the same.

This was three times the number from the year before. This one alone helps tip the scales ever-so-slightly on the side of the light. This is a huge achievement. Darkness has been in control of your planet for many years.

Now the scales are tipped ever-so-gently. It is like saying the straw that breaks the camel's back. A crack is in the foundation of this planet. The foundation will soon crumble.

This will help in establishing a new foundation for humanity. This foundation will be built on love, mercy, and compassion. These qualities will rein the Earth. The ray of light is coming over the horizon. This is the new dawn. The sun is about ready to shine on your planet.

So we are pleased to welcome the new teachers. May they truly help mankind? Let's all work together and bring peace to Earth.

When you embrace Chokmah, you will be open to opportunities for new understanding. The ability to co-create will be much greater.

You will be in tune with the Creator therefore more responsibility will go your way. You will be able to take on greater projects for manifesting the creation of God through you.

You will be a co-creator. This is the true state of man. Your life should be a direct creation of God manifesting through you. The more you open up the more understanding will be offered to you. Remember you always have free will. So the more you open up the more opportunities will come.

This is the ever-changing facet of creation. All of creation works this way. As co-creators divine opportunities for new understanding will come your way. This is the power of creation coming through you in your daily lives.

What a golden opportunity this is! Your planet could be transformed into the kingdom of heaven if Humanity embraced God in their life. So open up your heart to the Sephiroth of Chokmah.

Chokmah will reveal to you the source of Life-Giving energy. This is the energy that keeps the whole universe alive.

The same power that is keeping you alive is keeping the sun, moon, and stars alive. This is the breath of life.

Behind your breath lies the power of creation. It is the engine that moves all things. When this energy leaves your body, it will put you six feet under. This is the secret behind all of life.

Everything is created and gets destroyed. Yet behind that lies an energy that was never created nor will be destroyed. The goal is to unite yourself with this energy. This is the goal of human life.

By opening up to Chokmah you will day by day learn to be in that energy every moment of your life. If you want this experience you must meditate daily in your life. Only through meditation can you directly experienced this energy. The goal is to 24 hours a day be aware of the source of life.

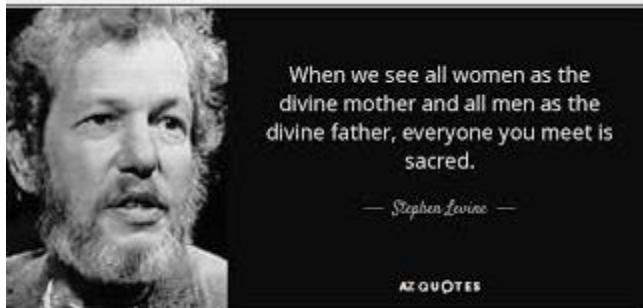

The best technique to be aware of this energy is to concentrate on your breath. Behind your breath lies the energy that is keeping you and the universe alive. Moment by moment day by day, year by year concentrate on your breath no matter what you do.

This will bring you enlightenment in this lifetime. It's as simple as that. Remember to throw away all excess baggage and you will be free. You will then be aligned with the will of God.

So remember you can do this. It takes effort and practice.

As you know Chokmah is about the Father type of wisdom. It Is the Divine Father while Binah is the Divine Mother.

Such is the sweetness of life.
The more you open up to Chokmah, the more you will receive wisdom about the Divine Father.

Behind all of creation lies the Father.

The Father is a force behind the creation and the Mother births creation through her. This is the dance of life. As a Kabbalist, you are given the keys to unlock the door to the great mysteries.

What a divine opportunity you have. The secrets of creation lie before your eyes. Behold the mystery. Know why you are alive. Today is a new beginning a new day. Open up your heart to all.

The more you open up to Chokmah, the more you will have the revelation of hidden attributes.

Everyone is born a genius yet over time we cover it up. We lose perspective of who we are. A thin veil is placed between us and our divine intelligence. We become lost in the dance of a nine-to-five existence.

Over time we simply forget who we are. Chokmah will help reveal to you your hidden abilities. Over time they will come to the surface. Each one of us has different and distinct gifts hidden inside.

Chokmah will help reveal these sacred gifts. So open up to your fullest potential. You will be surprised by who you are.

Tuesday, August 27, 2002

All the mysteries of God and the universe are hidden within. Chokmah will help give you revelations of things concealed.

It's a great wonder that we live a nine-to-five existence and in the midst of this lies the great wonders of God.

We are so entrenched in our lives that we miss out on the great wonders of Life. The secrets are concealed within. Only the pure in heart knows the right combination to open the safe.

Each one of us carries the treasures of life yet we are ignorant. We don't know the value of life itself

The Hindus have a saying someone is holding a jewel in their hand but doesn't know how precious it is. This is the human condition. We have the most precious Jewel and out of ignorance, we throw the Jewel on the ground.

So we must discover the jewel within. This is the way to the heart.

As your knowledge of Chokmah deepens you will have a greater understanding of astrology and the stars.

You will slowly begin to understand that you are stardust and you are connected to the planets and stars.

Each planet has a divine frequency and attraction to other planets. There is a complete mixture of events and emotions occurring where the planets reside.

Remember astrology does not control you but is a tool to help in your transformation. You can use the powers of the universe to help you.

Over time you will begin to understand the cause and effects of these bodies in motion. A divine dance is being played before your very eyes. Yet most people don't see it.

The whole point of this is to know yourself. Know the universe and where you stand with it. You are an important piece of the puzzle. You were born to discover who you truly are.

So remember that a bit of you resides in the stars. Open up and find your home among them.

Thursday, August 29, 2002

The deepest level of Chokmah is to awaken the vision of the Divine face to face. From time immemorial man has searched to touch the Divine. Man has yearned to see God face-to-face. Chokmah at its deepest level will allow you to see God face to face.

This experience will help you to solve your puzzle. God lies within and through the power of Chokmah, you can see the Divine face to face.

This is one of the greatest gifts given to man. For the majority of humans, God is a far-out concept. For you, it is a practical experience. What words can describe that experience? There are none.

Sunday, September 1, 2002

One of the strengths of Chokmah is austerity and devotion. The weakness is inefficiency. A person whose will is aligned with the will of God is filled with austerity and devotion.

We are all co-creators yet we don't know it. A person who knows his role as a co-creator is constantly filled with austerity and devotion. We all have a purpose. When we know our purpose our life is turned around.

We have the necessary energy to fulfill our dreams. Our hearts are filled with devotion. Devotion is a day-by-day direct experience of God. This experience expands day by day, year by year.

It is not dry. Devotion is the experience of expressing your life to God. We all are created equal yet we all have a unique gift to offer this world. Devotion allows us to open to our divine gifts. It allows us to bloom like a flower.

The opposite of austerity and devotion is inefficiency. When a person lacks these strengths his life will be spent wasting energy. It's like spinning your wheels and going nowhere.

Imagine a car where the timing is off. Now imagine a car that is perfectly tuned. The car's engine is running perfectly. The goal of this life is to fine-tune our cars within.

We all have run the gamut from a poorly tuned car to a car that has high efficiency. A person who knows he is a co-creator with God will daily begin to fine-tune the car of life.

He understands that he is learning to become a master mechanic so you can take care of your car. Everything in this universe requires energy. True abundance requires energy.

To receive you must be in a space with the required energy and to receive it. In other words day by day we must increase our energy to manifest our great dreams. We must be in alignment with God.

When we are we can rejoice in this. We can receive it. Use your energy wisely. Be smart and intelligent. Be focused like a laser. Don't have your container full of holes so water may leak out. Remember it's up to you to be in this state.

Monday, September 2, 2002

The study of the Stars is the next strength in Chokmah while procrastination is its weakness.

A man who studies the stars is always learning about the universe. He learns the relation to the universe and inner knowledge.

This being at this state learns to be a co-creator. In this state, a person is always learning and discovering. This person is not in a state of procrastination.

A person who procrastinates is a reactive being. In this state, a person is not in control of his life. This is the state of the world. Unfortunately, we are not in control of our lives.

The slightest thing knocks us off-center. Because of this, we procrastinate. We know what we should do but we don't do it. We wait. We put things off. This is the tendency of man. We have this tendency to put it off until tomorrow and tomorrow never comes.

A wise man studies the stars and sees the oneness of all. He knows that they are responsible for solving their puzzle. They make the correct effort to reach their goal.

They understand how the stars and their alignment affects all. They are in harmony with the universe. Day by day they become more aligned with the will of God and the universe.

A being who procrastinates puts everything off until tomorrow. The being is lost and needs to find the way home.

We all procrastinate in our lives. Yet as mankind we can grow and learn from our past. This is the training ground for us. Every day allows us to grow and learn and understand. Each day is a precious day. If you fall which you will dust yourself off, pick yourself up, and continue walking. Always strive to learn. Be like a child who is innocent and curious. This is an internal quest for learning. Reach for the stars and beyond.

Tuesday, September 3, 2002

Today we are going to talk about being goal-oriented and the opposite which is superstition. A being who embraces Chokmah is goal-oriented.

You can't manifest anything without a goal. Goals are a way to achieve your dreams. All goals are achieved through the four world's ideas, thought, blueprint, and action. These are the Divine laws of creation.

Each day work on your short-term goals and long-term goals. Write them down on paper. This will help solidify the actions that you need to take.

Remember that the tree of life is alive. It requires you to take action so you may achieve your goals. The opposite of this is envy and superstition. An envious person lacks the willpower to do the same actions as a person who they are envious.

They are not empowered. They feel like a victim. You can always change. You can always grow. Don't be envious of others. Learn to manifest from the four worlds. Learn to be goal-oriented.

A superstitious person doesn't understand the basic laws of life. The universe is not superstitious. All knowledge can be yours. It's a man not knowing that leads to superstition.

A man that day by day grows in learning is not superstitious. A man that doesn't take action and self-knowledge is superstitious.

Wednesday, September 4, 2002

When a being embraces Chokmah he will be filled with idealism. You will have seen the master plan.

You will see that we are all created equal. We are on an incredible journey.

We are all going home. This perspective gives idealism to an individual. When you have touched God how can you not have idealism in your life? We are all on the same incredible journey. The goal is total self-discovery and self-mastery. We are here to provide tools to help you find your way back home.

A being who doesn't have ideals fears the future. The future is a great mystery. For some, it's doom and gloom. Yet the future can be a new beginning for humankind.

Man needs to be reborn into a new life of love, mercy, and compassion. In this state, idealism is born. We leave the fear of the future behind and we embraced God in our daily lives.

This is true idealism. It's not being a fanatic. A fanatic can't see the forest from the trees. True idealism comes from God. It is the spring of hope for the world. One who has drunk from this spring only wants to serve his fellow man. So embrace Chokmah and let your fear of the future go

The magical image of Kether is an ancient bearded King seen only in profile. This archetype symbol represents that day by day we are growing in awareness of God.

We will never know in totality God because God itself is expanding and growing. This is the image of a king seen only in profile.

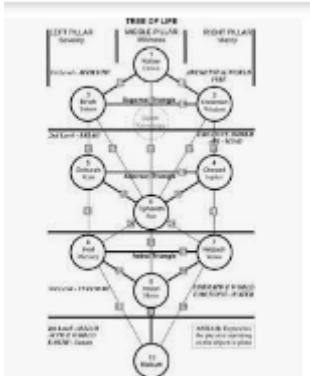

We can see the face of God but not in its entirety. God will always be a supreme mystery. Yet day by day, year by year our knowledge of God grows. Our knowledge of the universe grows.

We are walking on a Divine path. At this point, man is transformed into a butterfly. This is the transformation of humankind. This archetype symbol will assist you in the transformation.

Kether is pure white light. All creation seen and unseen stem from this Divine Light. The more you hold to Kether the light will radiate from you. The sun, the moon, and stars were created from this light. Open up to this archetype symbol. The mysteries of God will be revealed to you

The magical Gifts of Kether are the spinning top, spark of light, and the tinderbox.

The spinning top will bring you in balance with the will of God. This spinning top always spins clockwise which is the will of the universe and God.

This top acts like a tuning fork. Whatever it touches it vibrates at that frequency. This spinning top will allow you to become more God-like full of love, mercy, and compassion.

A spark of light will illuminate and dispel all darkness. Imagine a room full of darkness. One spark of light can illuminate the whole room. It's like one spark can create a forest fire of love. It can burn away all darkness and all ignorance.

A tender box holds all the secrets of God and the universe. Within time you will be shown these secrets. These gifts are of the highest. Words cannot explain the incredible honor to be given these gifts. Use them wisely.

The Divine Force for Kether is EHIEH. Everything in God's creation comes from the Divine Light. This is the light that is grander than a thousand suns.

This light is was and will always be. You have the opportunity to be one with this light. The more you embrace Kether the more you will embrace the light.

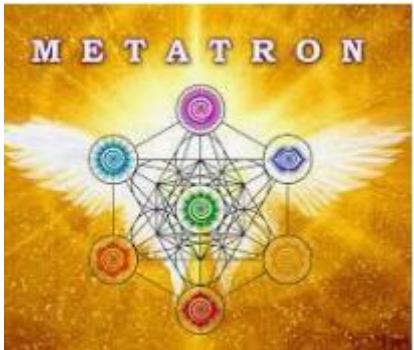

This light is supreme joy, bliss, and love. All the known and unknown comes from it. This light has been talked about in all Holy Scriptures. It exists inside of you.

The goal of this human life is to be in tune with this Divine Light. This is true enlightenment.

So align your will to the will of God and the will of the universe. Dedicate your life to be an instrument of Peace. Know thy self and you will understand this message.

Metatron gave the gift of the Kabbalah to humankind. He is here to take us back home.

This is the goal to return to the source. Metatron will help mankind in this transformation.

Over time by opening up to Metatron you will start to experience the Divine Light deep within your being. This is your true essence. Metatron acts as a guide to humanity. He is saying that every human discovers the well within. Drink the Living Waters within your being. This will reveal to you the true purpose of life.

Creativity and artistic inspiration are some of the attributes of Kether. All creativity is born from Kether.

When one is directly connected to Kether one is in a proactive mode. In this state, it's very easy to be creative. This is where creativity comes from.

If you are an artist you will see the artistic abilities manifest before your very eyes. If you are not so fond of areas of art begin learning. This will help you learn more about being creative.

This is a gift of looking at the source of life and being able to create something physical. What a wondrous achievement. You are being taught that life is a majestic creation and in each moment you can participate in it.

You can be a co-creator and express your divinity. Such is the beauty of life. Life is ongoing and a state of creation in each moment. So open up to it.

Kether will reveal to you over time the revelations of endings and beginnings. Everything in the seen and unseen has its beginning and end.

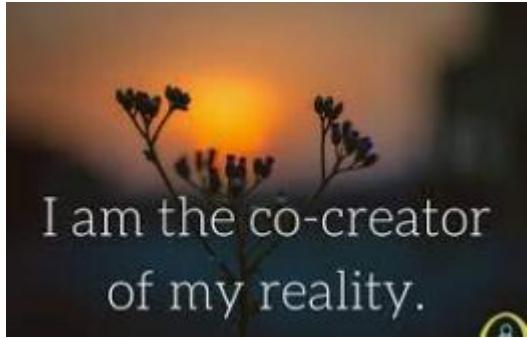

This is the law of creation. By knowing this basic law one will realize over time the ebb and flow of life.

You will understand the cycles of life. This will help you tremendously. You will have the knowledge and wisdom to see the endings and new beginnings in your life. You will then begin to tear down the old and build a new foundation. This is the law of life.

So change is inevitable. Don't resist change. It will happen. Life is a constant series of changes much like a movie. You can recognize change and be expanded by it. You can rise to the next level. So don't hold on to anything. Everything will change.

Kether will provide you with the opportunity and energy for change and transition. As you know all of the creation changes. Nothing is fixed or constant. It may seem like it but it's not.

You are learning to become a co-creator.

As a co-creator, you will see the sea of change and understand how it works. Behind any change lies the energy of change. From this energy transition takes place. It is being changed into something else. It's like the laws of magic. To change nothing into something.

This allows you to see and witness the laws of creation. You understand the energy behind changes.

Most people on your planet are afraid of change. They hold on to their lives. They are afraid of the future. They try to control their life. Yet life cannot be tamed. It is wild and free.

A caged animal is not free. We put ourselves into cages and think we can control change by doing so. The wise man understands this and learns to see the beauty of change.

This is how one truly grows. So be open to change and the transition that it brings. Your life will never be the same.

Kether will reveal to you the intensified aspects of life and evolution in your path. This path could be called the evolution revolution.

When one decides to truly discover oneself and starts to walk on this path the changes are phenomenal. It is especially when one embraces Kether. This is where all change comes from the Divine Light.

By absorbing this light one begins to vibrate at the frequency of this light thereby changes are going to occur. This is the law of Life. One begins to see the forest from the trees. Your vision of life is enhanced. This is the sacred law.

At this point, it seems like you have lived ten lifetimes. Each day is a brand new experience. Each day is starting over a new life. This is the beauty of this path. One never gets stagnant or old.

We are always walking in new territory. One can't even get bored. Daily the secrets of life are being revealed to you.

Wednesday, September 18, 2002

Kether will reveal to you the initiation of new life flow and opportunities. At this stage, your life starts new. It's like you have a new beginning.

From the new beginning, opportunities will come your way. This is the sacred law.

By opening the door within and taking steps to pass through the door, a whole series of opportunities will come your way. These are divine opportunities. They will truly help to transform you.

They are there to uplift you on your road to self-discovery. This is truly a blessing. You are now entering a new world a new way of seeing. This is truly a gift. Be always humble. This is truly an incredible journey. Words cannot describe it.

The deepest level Kether will reveal to you on a practical level is revealed what must be done to complete life's work and how to do it. We all have a purpose in life.

We have forgotten this. This tree of life reveals the mysteries of life to us.

Every human purpose is to discover who they truly are. Kether will show you how to complete your life's work and how to do it. This is probably one of the greatest gifts that you can receive.

This will help you fulfill your mission. Each one of us comes here for a reason yet we have forgotten why we are here. We are lost in this world and think we are found.

This gift is the key to helping you solve the mystery of life. Each one of us must solve this puzzle. So open up to Kether and solve the mystery within.

Friday, September 20, 2002

Creative imagination is one of the strengths of Kether while excessive daydreaming is its weakness.

This whole universe is created by creative imagination. Everything is created through an idea, a thought, a plan, and an action.

Creative imagination comes directly from the source. The more your will is aligned to the will of God the more creative imagination you will have. This is the law.

To be a co-creator one has to be aligned with God. One negative ego must be relinquished.

Now in this state, a person will have their feet on the ground and their head in heaven. This means they will be grounded, practical, and down-to-earth yet their consciousness will be in heaven.

Now for the common man, he lives in a state of excessive daydreaming. We don't like our life, our job, etc. We then daydream to try to enhance our life. Yet daydreams are only that.

They are dreams that won't come true without action. Remember all dreams must go through the four worlds to manifest. One who daydreams about something better needs to take appropriate action. Unfortunately, the man just dreams while never taking the appropriate steps.

Many foreigners come to America with high dreams and take the necessary actions to accomplish their dreams. Many of these people far exceed their expectations. This is what it takes. Your creative imagination along with the right plan and action will help you manifest your dreams.

One of the strengths of Kether is being in a state of wonder. The opposite is being in a state of shame.

There is always a sense of wonder for one who embraces this path. Each day is a unique opportunity to discover the mysteries of life.

Every day is a divine wonderment. Every day more and more secrets are revealed. As you grow in wisdom your wonderment also grows more. This will go on for eternity.

Shame has no wonderment about it. Shame is not being able to realize how you have been acting. Every moment is a learning experience. We all make mistakes. This is how we learn.

Shame comes when we take our life too seriously and refuse to accept mistakes in our life. We can't forgive ourselves. Yet if we look at the wonder of life we will not have shame.

We will realize that each moment is a learning experience. We can learn from our mistakes. This is the key to learning. We embrace our mistakes and bring wisdom to the situation.

This way we will always grow and learn. Then each day we will begin to see greater wonders in our life.

Tuesday, September 24, 2002

Another strength of Kether is embracing change while its weakness is self-denial. To discover yourself one must embrace change.

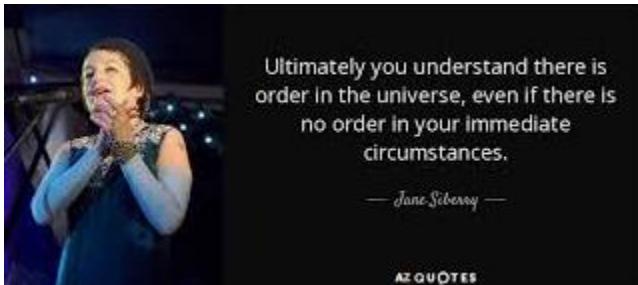

Every step of the way requires you to embrace change. This will go on for eternity.

It is the evolution of self-discovery. Change allows you to grow in knowledge and wisdom. Change allows you to take the next step. Unfortunately man does not like change.

Man likes to be in a stable environment even if it does him no good. This is self-denial. Self-denial rejects change. Change is the mechanism for growth. Self-denial is the opposite of growth. It rejects change.

How difficult this is for a man to change. We get so caught up in the web of life. We have forgotten who we are. By changing it will allow us to get out of our limited shell and to see the beauty behind it all.

Wednesday, September 25, 2002

The last strength in Kether is order while its weakness is a lack of sympathy and a poor self-image.

The whole universe has order.

Behind endless chaos lies order. By being in harmony with Kether one will begin to see that divine order behind all things. Even during chaos in your daily life, you will begin to see the divine order of things.

This is a sacred law. Behind all of creation lies the tree of life. This is the foundation of order. This is a living tree. The order stems from this truth.

If a person does not see order then this person will have a lack of sympathy and a poor self-image. The world lacks sympathy.

These negative traits are when we have lost contact with our divine selves. We forget who we are. Kether helps us to transform to see our divinity.
